Hobly Responds to the President's Call for Volunteers.

NEARLY ALL OFFICERS ENLIST.

The Eight Officers and Four Hundred and Thirty-one Men of the First Brigade Who Did Not Volunteer Were Unfit Physically or Were Needed for Family Support.

Mount Gretna, Pa., May 3.-Yesterday was inspection day for the First brigade at Camp Hastings, but this was overshadowed by the enrollment stuff of which they are made by nobly responding to the call to duty. Out of 2,680 officers and men who reported on the field 2,241 volunteered to go to war for the two years fixed by the president. In these numbers 32 officers done who did not volunteer included men of old age or known to be unfit physically, musicians and men whose families sorely needed their support, and who ficers and 431 men, and those who will soon become United States volunteers numbered 152 regimental and company officers and 2,089 men. In some of the companies there are vacancies yet to

The day was not without its accident. Colonel Bowman, of the First regiment, just before the Third regiment was in spected and enrolled, had paid his respects to Governor Hastings and staff when his horse began to buck suddenly and threw his rider violently against the nommel of the saddle. Colonel Bowman fainted and fell to the ground. He was taken to the Eighth regiment hospital tent, where the inregiment hospital tent, where the in-juries were found to be painful and probably serious. He was sent to Philadelphia in the afternoon, and there is a possibility that he will never again be able to assume his command, although as he lay on the hospital cot he volunteered to serve his country. The feature of the day was the enrolling of the volunteers, and it was intensely dramatic and pathetic at times. Throughout the day there was a hushed gayety about the camp, and until after the Third regiment had gone through its ordeal only once did the feelings of the men break loose. It was when the news of Commodore Dewey's brilliant naval victory came In a flash almost the news passed along the two and one-half miles of the camp line, and in a moment afterwards the men dropped their mess tins and rushed into the company streets. For half an hour cheers echoed and re-echoed from end to end, and from down in the valley came the cheers of the batteries and cavalry troops. The occasion inspired patriotism, and perhaps had much to do with the events that

The Third regiment was the first to pass in review before the governor, and then formed in columns of companies, and the governor and staff advanced. Inspector General Morrell presented himself before Colonel Ralston and said the words that permitted the young colonel to become the first volunteer of the war from Pennsylvania. Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the solders, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at A. Wasley's drug store.

Petroleum Bomb Story Doubted. Washington, May 3.—Navai officials are inclined to discredit the statement in dispatches from Madrid that Admiral Dewey employed petroleum bombs in the reduction of the city of Manila. In fact, no definite informa-tion could be obtained that the American squadron was supplied with such instruments of destruction. It is regarded as quite likely that, in the event of a bombardment of the city, the bursting of shells would start seri ous fires, and perhaps result in a conflagration, but that Admiral Dewey used bombs with the express idea of DO NOT DESPAIR!
