THE AMERICAN FLEET BOMBARDS SANTIAGO!

The Work Done by Three of Our Warships.

SPAIN'S WARSHIPS ARE NEARBY!

They Were Sighted Off the Island of Jamaica and Going Forward to the Ill-Fated Place.

Special to Evening Herald.
New York, May 19.—A Havana despatch to the New York Sun says that three American warships bombarded Morro Castle at Santiago de Cuba yesterday.

Only slight damage was inflicted. No particulars of the engagement are given.

Special to EVENING HERALD.
Washington, May 19.—A cablegram from Havana makes the startling announcement that Santiago de Cuba, an important southern seaport town, near the eastern end of the Cuban province of the same name, has been bombarded by three American warships.
Santiago is, however, the point from which extend the only three cables by which any information whatever can reach Spain from Cuba. It has, for some days, been looked upon as the point at which the next battle might be expected.

The threat of the Americans to cut the cables there, and the imminent danger that United States troops might also be landed at that point, has spurred the Spanish forces in the island on to extraordinary precautions against either plan of the enemy being carried into execution.
If the further reports sent out from Kingston, Jamaica, be accurate, that Admiral Cervera's squadron is heading for Santiago de Cuba, this may also be the scene of the first great naval battle in West Indian waters.
The press despatch of the bombardment of Santiago de Cuba is the only news the officials have. It is believed that the bombardment was done by Admiral Sampson who is in that neighborhood.

SPANIARDS NOT AT SAN JUAN.

Special to EVENING HERALD.
St. Thomas, Spanish West Indies, May 19.—The Spanish squadron was not at San Juan de Porto Rico when the steamer Rodriguez left there Tuesday noon, and there has been no intimation received here of its subsequent arrival.

WAR HAPPENINGS OF A SINGLE DAY.

Inhabitants of Manila hope for Germany's aid.
Actual warfare on Cuban soil will be begun soon.
The battleship Oregon has reached a port in the West Indies.
Sampson and Schley will effect a junction of their fleets to-day.
Senor Sagasta has announced the members of the new Spanish Ministry.
The cruiser Charleston has sailed from Mare Island Navy yard for Manila.
Lieutenant Colonel John Jacob Astor leaves Washington to-day on a tour of inspection.
Bismarck believes an alliance between the United States and Great Britain is improbable.
The Nietheroy, now the Buffalo, carries three 5.5 pound rapid fire, smuggled on board at Rio.
A Spanish mob drove a British captain, loading sulphur for the United States, from Huelya.
Spain's war fever is abating, but peace steps will not be taken till Sampson and Cervera meet.
A member of the British Cabinet believes the war will last from two to three years.
Washington authorities are anxious for news of the whereabouts of Admiral Cervera's squadron.
The Columbia arrived at New York from the Delaware breakwater.
Bismarck Seriously Ill.
Berlin, May 19.—A despatch from Friedrichsruhe says that Prince Bismarck, the great German statesman and former Chancellor of Prussia, is seriously ill and his private physician, Dr. Schweninger, has been summoned from Gaden. The Prince is in his 85th year and very feeble.

(War news continued on Fourth page.)

GLADSTONE EXPIRES AT HAWARDEN.

Special to Evening Herald.
Hawarden, May 19.—Gladstone died at 3 o'clock this morning. The family has decided to hold the funeral here. The grand old man's death has made a profound impression throughout the country.

MR. GLADSTONE AND HIS GRANDDAUGHTER.
The Queen has sent a touching message of sympathy to Mrs. Gladstone.
Interment will probably be made in Westminster Abbey, or St. Paul's Cathedral.

London, May 19.—Flags are at half mast here and bells are tolling.
The Dean of Westminster, at this morning's service, offered a special prayer for the family of Mr. Gladstone, that they might be sustained in their grief.

HAWARDEN CASTLE.
The House of Commons adjourned to-day after addresses had been made in eulogy of Gladstone.

All public bodies here to-day opened business with resolutions of sorrow and condolence.
The St. James Gazette says: "Gladstone will go to posterity as one of the great makers of the British Democracy."
The Globe says: "England has lost a citizen of splendid talent and irrefragable love."

THE HOUSE IN DOWNING STREET.
The Westminster Gazette declares that "Mr. Gladstone leaves something far more priceless than any title of distinction."

This Nation's Sorrow.
Special to EVENING HERALD.
Washington, May 19.—President McKinley to-day instructed Secretary of State Day to send the following telegram to United States Minister Hay at London:
"Through the proper channel express to Mr. Gladstone's family the sympathy and sorrow of the American people at the passing away, in the ripeness of years and fullness of honor, of one of the most notable figures of modern civil statesmanship."

France Has Fears.
Special to EVENING HERALD.
Paris, May 19.—There is much apprehension here that the hostility toward the United States displayed in the Paris press may hasten the rapprochement with England, to the permanent detriment of French trade. Because of this fear the newspapers are far more friendly in their tone. The Anglo-American is such a natural alliance that they realize that it will some day be made, and they begin to fear they have hastened that day by their display of hostility to the United States over the war with Spain.

Want to Go to Dewey.
Special to EVENING HERALD.
Mt. Gretna, May 19.—Col. Krebs, of the 15th Regiment, left here at 10 o'clock this morning for Wilmington, Del., to guard the powder works.

Coal For Spain.
Special to Evening Herald.
London, May 19.—The Star prints a story to-day from Montreal, Canada, that Senor Polo has secured the use of a French Newfoundland port near Maguetaon for use as a coaling station for the Cadiz fleet.

Spanish Fleet Sighted.
Special to EVENING HERALD.
New York, May 19.—A despatch from Colon, Isthmus of Panama, says the newspapers of that place report that the Spanish squadron is cruising near Port Limon.

A Deadly Encounter.
Special to EVENING HERALD.
Memphis, Tenn., May 19.—A despatch from Horn Lake, Miss., says that Deputy Sheriff H. B. Campbell, W. C. Cooper and C. I. James were shot and killed in a fight with Minard and William Tuttlefield, negroes. Minard was also killed. The two last named men were fugitives. William Tuttlefield is now held under a charge of murder and resisting arrest.

HEARD BY JUSTICES.

Some of the Cases Disposed of Last Night.

A LANDLORD'S RADICAL ACTION!

Nailed the Doors and Windows of a House and Barrred Out the Tenants—A Case of Brutal Assault—Trouble Over a Trade.

Justice Toomey had three interesting cases before him last night based on three different causes of complaint. The first case was instituted by Policeman Martin Molahy. On Saturday night George Malakofski, a Lithuanian, was so badly beaten in a fight on Coal street that he is confined to his bed. Yesterday his condition was such that it was deemed advisable to locate and arrest his assailant. The victim's condition was such that Policeman Malakofski issued a warrant on information and belief of William Simons and Anthony Zokofski was held in $500 bail, each, to appear for a hearing when the victim recovers sufficiently to be present. A third man named Anthony Goley is wanted in the case. He has scouted arrest.

Reuben Shapiro, a Hebrew, last night caused the arrest of Moses Rubinski, another Hebrew, and Constable Talbot Phillips, charging them with wilfully and maliciously breaking into his stable and taking away a cow. After hearing the case Justice Toomey dismissed the charge against Constable Phillips, as the latter showed that he acted in the affair under a search warrant sworn out by Rubinski. The latter was held under $100 bail.

The case hinges upon the veracity of the parties involved and Justice Toomey was unable to decide. Rubinski and his brother Hyman are dealers in cows. He says that Shapiro called upon Mrs. Hyman Rubinski and stated that he had made a trade with Moses for a cow. Upon this representation Mrs. Hyman Rubinski accepted a cow and $5 from Shapiro and gave him in exchange a cow that was in a stable owned by Moses. When the latter returned home and learned of the transaction he repudiated it and sought relief in Justice Shoemaker's office. The result was the issuance of the search warrant and recovery of the animal. Shapiro had in his stable, Shapiro, on the other hand, swears that he made no representations as alleged, but called upon Mrs. Hyman Rubinski and proposed a trade. She accepted the terms and the bargain was made.

BARRLED THEM OUT.
The third case was one involving a dispute between a landlord and tenant. George Christ the tenant, charged John Giza, the landlord, with forcible entry and detainer. Christ apparently got behind in his rent and the landlord made a levy upon the household effects, but did not remove them. A few days after Christ and his wife went out to visit friends. While they were absent the landlord broke through the floor from the basement and gained entrance to the apartments occupied by Christ. Giza nailed shut all the doors and windows and Christ and his wife last since been unable to get in. Justice Toomey put the landlord under $500 bail for trial at court.
