The Republican state convention has a duty to perform, that of nom-springfield Union. From there he went inating a ticket that will unite the party at least for the present cam-paign. There is no doubt but that a cluster of the view of the set of the set of the set of the set of the for about a very, where he was engaged for about a very, where he returned to Senator Quay will control the con-vention. Should be force the nomin-ble broker, C. J. Blamy, started the ation of William A. Stone a united party is an impossibility, and will in-evitably cause the defeat of Republi-can candidates for Congress, for the legislature, and for county offices in the structure of the state of the sta close districts. Col. Stone is not ac. lighted, the same of which up to the ceptable to the independent element. and his nomination would likely result in a repetition of the Delamater other foreign countries. enminight

The large number of available candidates announced for Governor. most of them friends of Senator Quay and at the same time unobjectionable to the independents, should be sufficient to cause the Quay leaders to pause before taking a step that would imperil Republican success. The nomination of Hon, John Wanamaker is out of the question. In the first place he will not have sufficient strenght in the convention to secure the nomination, and were he to be the nominee the Quay people would at least be lukewarm in their support. On the same line of reasoning William A. Stone, the slated candidate, is not available.

This state of affairs suggests the selection of a candidate who would be least objectionable to the two contending factions in the Republican party. The name of Congressman C. W. Stone, of Warren, is prominently mentioned in this conner He has never been prominently identified with either faction, has a clean record, is an able and conservative leader. Among all those so far mentioned, C. W. Stone is the man of the hour in the opinion of many Republicans who hold party success above factional victory. The eight delegates from Schuvlkill county are uninstructed. Those from the Fourth district are supposed to be for William A. Stone, while the remaining four are placed against that candidate. The delegates from the First, Second and Third districts will no doubt east their votes for the best interests of the party, and we know of no better way of accomplishing that result than the selection of a candidate that would be the least objectionable to the great body of party workers and the citizens of the Commonwealth in general. To that end they should bend their efforts. The result of the delegate election. while it may have been a surprise to some, was the natural outcome of popular feeling that has manifested itself for sometime. It removes Hon. Charles N. Brumm as an available caudidate for Congress. The issue in those districts comprising the 30th Senatorial was plainly drawn, and the successful delegates made their fight and were elected on a distinct auti-Brumm platform. The Congressman and his friends and officeholders accepted it as such, and the result shows their efforts to stem the tide of popular disgnst availed them naught. The Republican party cannot afford to make unpopular nominations this year, either for state or county offices. With a candidate for Governor who is distasteful to a large body of Republicans will endanger close Congressional and Legislative districts. and Schuylkill is by no means a sure Republican county. The same can be said as to the county ticket. If success is to grown our efforts in November the Republican lenders in tiaced in position. this county must choose well. Chronic office-holders must be relegated to the rear and clean, able, popular candidates selected.
