PRESIDENT CALLS FOR MORE VOLUNTEERS.

A Proclamation Issued For 75,000 To-Day, and Pennsylvania Will Furnish 6,462 Men.

OREGON AT A FLORIDA PORT.

The Expedition to the Philippines Sailed From San Francisco This Afternoon With 2,600 Men—Another to Follow Soon.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

WASHINGTON, May 25.

President McKinley has issued a proclamation calling for 75,000 more volunteers.

It is stated on high authority that the President has decided that further call for volunteers is imperatively demanded.

The manner for raising that additional force is not learned fully, and the department has withheld that information for the present.

In the call for additional troops Pennsylvania will be asked to furnish 6,462 men.

The following disposition of troops has, it is stated, been determined upon: Cuba, 100,000; Philippine Islands, 25,000; Porto Rico, 25,000; home defense, 100,000.

As the regular and authorized volunteers' strength is 200,000, at least 50,000 more will be called into service and equipped.

SPANISH SPY ON THE PANAMA.

Special to Evening Herald.

Key West, May 25.—An important arrest of a supposed Spanish spy was made last evening by United States Marshal Hoar. The prisoner is Romiguo Sapetero Jimenez, who was among those captured on the steamer Panama, and has since been held aboard ship as a prisoner of war. He is supposed to have obtained information concerning New York harbor and its defenses, with charts of the harbor, which he is attempting to get to Spanish authorities. He is about 40 years of age, a Spaniard and a civil engineer.

Late yesterday afternoon Marshal Hoar, with several deputies and United States Commissioner Otto, received information from the north, in consequence of which they slipped quietly out to the Panama, arrested Jimenez and brought him ashore. He was taken to the Key West hotel and put through a vigorous examination in a private room. So quietly was the affair managed, however, that only one or two persons knew of it.

Jimenez stoutly denies the accusation that he is a spy, but his story was of such a contradictory nature that it confirmed the suspicions of the federal authorities. He said he had left Cuba in 1877, a date which he subsequently corrected to 1890, and later set it back a few years. He had lived, he admitted, in New York since then, but he decided to return to Cuba to engage in mercantile business, and was on his way there when the Panama was captured. He asserted also that he had spent considerable time in Venezuela and other South American countries. His story, though, was so conflicting on the whole as to be meaningless. A thorough search of the Panama was made in the attempt to locate the charts, but no trace of them could be found. The examination will be resumed, and Jimenez will be held under arrest in the meanwhile.

The Panama case was before the United States district court yesterday. The argument on both sides was largely in the same lines as in the case of the other big prizes, and Judge Locke reserved his decision. It has been decided that such ships as are held to be legitimate prizes of war shall be sent north for sale, so as to bring better prices. This will probably not be done, however, until all the cases have been finally determined. A new aspect was given yesterday to the engagement at Cardenas, where Ensign Bagley and four men of the United States torpedo boat Winslow were killed, by a statement of insurgent Colonel John J. Jova, who has been serving under General Maximo Gomez. Colonel Jova has been in Cardenas since the engagement, and he says the mortality on the Spanish side was by no means so great as reported at the time in the United States. According to his information, which seems to be corroborated by the testimony of the other Cubans taken aboard from Cardenas by the vessels of the blockading fleet, only nine persons were killed on the Spanish side, including two women and three children. Three sailors and one medical officer on a Spanish gunboat fell under the fire of the United States ships. The firing from the shore was not from a masked battery, but from the three Spanish gunboats, to attack which the Winslow was sent in. Two of them were disabled, but not permanently damaged, and the third ran away. According to Jova's information the shells from the gunboat Wilmington did little execution, because she lay too far off shore. No fewer than three Spanish flags were brought down by stray shots from the Wilmington's guns.

Key West, May 25.—Francisco Juan, an alleged spy, was captured in a prize ship Panama. Incriminating papers were found in his trunk. Juan was locked up in the barracks. He is said to be a Spanish officer. When Juan was arrested by Deputy Marshal Atchison he resisted the action vigorously. After being locked up in the barracks the prisoner was transferred to a fishing smack for safe keeping. The location of the fishing smack is a secret. Juan may be treated as a prisoner of war, but is more likely to be considered a Spanish spy and dealt with accordingly.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Latest Advice From the National Capital on the War Situation. Special to EVENING HERALD.

WASHINGTON, May 25.

The government is still waiting for confirmatory news from the fleets in Cuban waters. As rapid progress as possible is being made to reinforce Dewey at Manila. The first expedition starts this afternoon, and will be followed by another as soon as troops arrive. The first expedition will arrive at Manila about the middle of June.

Reports of an engagement between the American and Spanish fleets in the vicinity of the windward passage continue to be circulated, and the naval officials insist that no such reports have received confirmation at the state department. The officials did, however, say that the cables at Santiago and San Juan de los Rios had been cut. They have no reason to believe that a fight has occurred in the Windward passage. From high authority it was stated this morning that the navy department has official advice that Cervos is bottled up at Santiago, and that our fleets are in that vicinity.

The navy department was notified this morning of the Oregon's arrival.

Secretary Long has decided to deny Germany's request that Gustavo Rock, the millionaire Havana cigar maker, be allowed to pass the blockade and return to Havana. He is alleged to be a colonel of Spanish volunteers, and for that reason will not be permitted to go.

The Consular reports give notice of the declaration of neutrality by five countries—Russia, Greece, Venezuela, the Netherlands and Canada. The Russian declaration has an important statement and says that it is firmly resolved to observe a perfect and impartial neutrality.

A 2 p. m. telegram from Captain Clark, of the United States battleship Oregon, to Secretary of the Navy Long announces the arrival of the vessel at Jupiter Inlet, on the eastern coast of Florida.

Captain Clark reports the Oregon and crew in excellent condition and ready for immediate sea service.

Semi-officially it is stated that the Oregon will join either Rear Admiral Sampson's, or Commodore Schley's squadron as soon as coal and supplies.

Inquiry at the navy department this afternoon (4:00 p. m.) brought forth the information that no news, confirmatory or otherwise of an engagement, had been received from either Sampson or Schley. Naval officials, however, hourly anticipate information from one of these sources.

MEMORIAL FORECASTS.

Arrangements Being Made For the Annual Solemn Observance.

CEREMONIES WILL BE IMPRESSIVE.

Busy Workers at the Cemeteries Preparing For the Decoration of the Graves. Next Monday—Movements of the G. A. R. and Kindred Organizations.

Hundreds of people are devoting much of their spare time this week to the decoration of plots in the local cemeteries for the Memorial Day observance to be held next Monday, and it seems that the work this year is more extensive than in any previous years. There is a great demand for flowers and the dealers are reaping a harvest in spite of the hard times.

The activity among the old soldiers is especially noticeable. The presence of war scenes to have stirred up a spirit of veneration that has manifested itself in such a degree for many years. The members of the Grand Army of the Republic and those of the kindred organizations—the Women's Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans and Ladies' Relief Corps, are setting forth commendable efforts to make the graves of the departed heroes reflect as they have never before the beauty and fragrance of nature's choicest productions. Special attention is being given to the purchase of natural plants and flowers, but contributions will still be acceptable, as the organizations will gladly be able to purchase all that will be required for a proper distribution.

Arrangements for the annual parade and ceremonies at the G. A. R. plot of the Old Fellows' cemetery are about complete and an impressive demonstration is expected. The annual memorial services under the auspices of Watkin Waters Post No. 149, G. A. R., will be held next Sunday evening in the United Evangelical church, on North Jarlin street. The program will be delivered by Rev. J. J. Bantz, the pastor. It is expected the members of the Women's Relief Corps, Ladies' Aid Society and Sons of Veterans will be in attendance.

AT BALDWIN CITY.

Severe Post, G. A. R., will assemble at its hall at 8:30 o'clock on the morning of Decoration Day and, accompanied by the Sons of Veterans and Women's Relief Corps, will proceed to the cemetery, where memorial ceremonies will be held. There will be singing by a select choir, addresses by ministers of the gospel and the decoration of graves. Upon each grave will be placed a wreath of white flowers. There will be a street parade at eleven o'clock and a musical meeting will be held in the evening at Kaiser's opera house, when Rev. G. Reed, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, will deliver an oration. There will also be vocal and instrumental music appropriate to the occasion.

Won a Prize.

At the opening of the horse show at St. Martin's Green, Philadelphia, yesterday, Charles E. Titman's black gelding 'Maryland Boy,' with a record of 2:21, was third prize in the trotting 'drawing' class shown to the judges. Titman's horse received rather a rough deal. He is a fine black gelding with almost perfect action, and as the contestants were speeded around the ring he seemed to have first mortgage on the blue ribbon. At about his closest rival and to him went the first prize. Maryland Boy was tagged on Maryland Boy, and after parading around the ring once the judges changed their minds, taking the red off and giving him yellow instead.

Mr. Blakeslee himself vouches for the correctness of the rumor, and it was also corroborated to-day by officials at Delano by a telephone message to the HERALD.

A New Wrinkle.

Anthony Miskie and Mrs. Maryuzekowicz were before Justice Showmaker last night, charged with fraud and false pretense by Ellis Guzinski, who alleged that the woman called at his store yesterday and said Miskie, her boarder, wanted flour and other goods and would pay for them upon delivery. When Guzinski took the goods to the house the boarder said he would go up stairs and get the money. The woman took possession of the flour, dumped it into a pan with water, and proceeded to make bread. The boarder failed to appear with the money and Guzinski sought relief at the office of Justice Showmaker, who put each of the accused under $300 bail.
