Stomach Trouble

Stomach trouble is the common name applied to a derangement of the system which is keenly felt but vaguely understood. It may mean inability to retain food or to digest it. It may mean nausea, pain after eating, fullness, inordinate craving for food, or entire lack of appetite. Whatever it means, there's a trouble, and it's with the stomach. If you have stomach trouble, you will be interested in this letter from a man who had it and was cured by

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For nine years I suffered from stomach trouble. I tried the aid of the best doctors of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, and spent large sums of money, all in vain. One day while waiting a train in Rollins, Ct., I picked up a paper with a notice of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I put one bottle to try it. It did me so much good that I purchased five more bottles. I took four of them and gained in flesh, my appetite improved, and I could eat anything. My stomach is all right, thanks to the merit of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—CALVIN M. STEVENS, Uniontown, Pa.

FLAG RAISING.

Old Glory Unfurled by the Schuylkill Traction Employees Last Night.

The unfurling of the Stars and Stripes from the roof of the power house of the Schuylkill Traction Company, at Girardville, last night, was a splendid affair. Many people throughout the Schuylkill valley were attracted to the patriotic demonstration.

Prior to the opening of the ceremonies a street parade took place in which many organizations as well as church and social societies participated. Among the musical organizations in line were the Loest Dale band, Girardville Combination band, Preston No. 3 and the Last Creek Glee Club and Down corps. The flag raised was 12x20 feet in dimensions and was carried along the line of parade by 21 school children.

After the parade the ceremonies at the power house were opened by Robert Ellingham, an employe, who acted as chairman. The United choir rendered vocal selections at intervals. Speeches ringing with patriotism were made by J. Harry James and W. H. Marr, Esq., of Ashland. Several patriotic recitations were rendered by Mr. Durkin, and Joseph Monaghan, a Georgetown University student. The latter is a son of Col. F. H. Monaghan.

A number of patriotic young men, erected a fort on the brink of the stream which runs by the power house, and within this fort they during the ceremonies. The affair was a creditable one and suitably enjoyed by all who witnessed it.

Rev. James Moore and William Collins made addresses at the flag raising at the residence of Albert Hagenhuber, on South Jardin street, last evening. There was a large crowd in attendance. A 12-foot flag was stretched above the altar. The flag was hoisted by Mrs. Collins, who also raised a flag at her residence on South Jardin street to-night.

The Columbia Hose Company will join in the flag raising ceremonies of the Washington Hook & Ladder Company at Ashland to-night.

They Are Beauties.

R. H. Morgan, the flag, cap and badge manufacturer of town, shipped to-day three of the finest looking flags ever sold. The one was a 12x20-foot all wool hunting U. S. flag, and was shipped to Tananqua, where it will be hung in the center of the great gas plant immediately on the site of the Philadelphia & Reading station. It was purchased by the station employes and the operator in the signal tower. The other two, a 10x20-foot and a 6x12-foot, went to Aristes, (Montana), a small place about two miles north of Coeur d'Alene, where they will be hung at the residence of the home of a house of cotton and music. These flags were made in first-class style and every seam is stitched twice; stars are sewed on with two rows of stitching, and the buttoning is of the very finest quality manufactured. Mr. Morgan has orders for several other large flags to be made next week. From now on he will be prepared to make any size desired in from two to three days.

Base Ball.

The West End Grays this morning defeated the Violets, the score being 12 to 10. Batteries: Morgans, Matthews and Bandenbush, and Phillips and Conry.

The name of the Famous base ball line has been changed to that of Shenandoah base ball club.

The Shenandoah nine will play a game with the Lehigh Valley team on the latter's grounds to-morrow afternoon. On Monday afternoon (Decoration Day) they will play at Indian park, Shamokin, with the team of that place. Their new uniforms, consisting of blue shirts and knickerbockers with a cap to match, will be worn for the first time to-morrow. The letter "S," in white, is sewed on the shirt.

Attempted Robbery.

An unexpected discovery was made this morning by employes of G. W. Keller, at the warehouse on North Pear alley, in the rear of the store. During the night the frame and window was removed by some unknown party. The window leads to a narrow passage which makes it impossible for a grown person to pass through it. It is supposed the robbers were foiled on this account.

MEMORIAL DAY.

All Arrangements Completed for the Observance on Monday.

Parades of foot and horse, Bands of music, gunnery, rifle and sport, Being their glowing approval for gunnery for Memorial day.

The committee having in charge the observance of Memorial Day, appointed by Watkin Waters Post No. 1, G. A. R., have completed the arrangements, and should the weather prove favorable the various societies will be largely represented. The number of societies that have responded this year exceeds that for many years.

The lapse of another year has decimated the ranks of those who stood shoulder to shoulder with the martyrs of war, but who were spared to the nation to help cement the peace they won, and there will be vacant places to evoke fresh tears when the survivors gather about the sacred mounds on Monday in the city of the day. The bands that bore rifles to victory have been aging spear, and they are stretched out to lay on the tombs of their comrades the floral tributes of a loving remembrance they will treat with the burden of years as they proudly tremble with the hush of fresh sorrow.

The valiant old war times which stirred the hearts of the old soldiers has been brought fresh to their memory by the scenes being enacted daily on the water, in the conflict with Spain. During the ceremonies on Monday let us not forget the brave soldiers of the ill-fated Maine, many of whom met a watery grave.

The line of parade on Monday will form at 9:00 a. m. sharp, on East Oak street, and will march over the principal streets of the town, and then disband to the cemetery. B. G. Hess will be the Chief Marshal. His aide will report at 8 o'clock at the Ferguson House.

The line will move over the following streets: Oak street to White, north on White to Oak, Oak to Jardin, south on Jardin to Oak, south on Oak to Chestnut, north on Chestnut to Main, up Main to the cemetery.

Rev. D. L. Evans, pastor of the First Baptist church, will deliver the oration.

Tomorrow evening in accordance with their annual custom, the members of Watkin Waters Post No. 1, G. A. R., accompanied by the Sons of Veterans, Wm. S. Rogers and Ladies Aid Society, will attend divine services in the United Evangelical church on North Jardin street. Rev. J. J. Reitz, the pastor, will deliver the memorial sermon.

All kinds of vegetables and flower seeds, and plants at Payne's nurseries, Girardville. Electric cars pass the door. 5-6-17

SUDDEN DEATH.

A. H. Roads, a Well-Known Citizen, Succumbs to Heart Disease.

Augustus H. Roads, an old and well-known citizen of this town, expired suddenly at his home on North West street last night. The death was due to paralysis of the heart, and was so unexpected that it was a shock to the immediate members of the family as to the cause.

Mr. Roads attended a meeting of Watkin Waters Post No. 1, G. A. R., last night and with his comrades discussed the final arrangements for the Memorial Day ceremonies. He was apparently in his usual good health and about no complaint. At about 9 o'clock he retired for the night at his home and about an hour later he awoke from his slumber by the attack which resulted in death. Dr. J. S. Kistler was summoned and prescribed for the patient with apparently such good effect that the physician felt justified in retiring. At 11:30 o'clock the attack suddenly increased in effect and the patient succumbed.

Mr. Roads had been a resident of this town for 27 years. Some time ago he was quite prominent in public affairs of the town, and for ten consecutive years he served on the paid police force. He was chief of the force most of that time. For the past ten years, however, he had been comparatively retired and was acting as collector for the street owners; but whenever the Prohibition party had a ticket in the field he would devote considerable time to the distribution of its circulars and other work to advance its interests.

The deceased was 67 years old and is survived by his wife, Catharine, a son, Rev. Charles Roads, of Philadelphia, and a daughter, Mrs. Morris G. Warm, of town.

Arrangements have been made to have the funeral take place on Tuesday. The services will be held at 12:30 p. m. at the family residence, 111 North West street. The funeral
