WAR REVENUE MEASURE

Passes the House by 151 to 107 After a Sensational Debate.

Washington, June 10.—The conference report on the war revenue measure passed the house late last night by a vote of 151 to 107. Previous to the passage of the bill there was a vituperative protest on the part of Democrats in the lower chamber.

A vote arrangement of the failure of the war to bring relief to the suffering people in Cuba was introduced in the debate by Mr. Pierce, of Tennessee. After reviewing the demands for war upon the ground of humanity that were made when the Cuban resolutions were under consideration, he attacked what he declared the negligence of the administration and its failure to relieve quickly the distress in Cuba, which had largely precipitated hostilities.

“When now are the starving women and children to whom our warship was to take other ships laden with food?” cried Mr. Pierce. “They are all dead, a member says, and it is true. All that will greet our soldiers and sailors now when they land on Cuban soil will be the bleaching bones of women and children as the monumental record of the humanitarian policy of this republic.”

Further discussion from the bill was introduced in by Mr. Swanson, of Virginia, who very vigorously denounced from any inclination to turn the war into one of aggression to end with this country holding great colonial possessions. The suggestion that Porto Rico and the Philippines should be held, he declared, was vitious and not in accord with the majority sentiment of the country.

The speech brought from Mr. Grover Cleveland, an impassioned and highly sentimental response. He denounced Swanson's “unpatriotic and unwholesome utterances,” and was bitterly personal in his denunciations, charging the Virginia member with being worthy to narrow political motives.

Mr. Swanson, in a two minute reply, said: “The only reason I can give for the unfair, unjust, unpatriotic and untrue personal attack upon me is that the speaker is in such condition that he does not know whether he is fighting the confederate or Spanish forces.”

Later Mr. Swanson declared his belief that the Ohio member would never have made “the brutal attack had he been sober.”

“Saved Her Life.”

Mrs. JOHN WALKER, of Jefferson, Wis., than whom none is more highly esteemed or widely known, writes: “In 1891 I had a severe attack of Erysipelas and at the end of four months, in spite of physicians, friends and good nursing, could do my lunch hour and nervous system was so completely wrecked, my life was despaired of, my friends giving me up. I could only sleep by the use of opiates. My brain and heart pained me terribly and my comb was most aggravating. I could not lie in one position but a short time and never my left side at all. My husband brought me Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure and I began taking them. When I had taken a half bottle of each I was much better and continuing persistently I took about a dozen bottles and was completely restored to health to the surprise of all.”

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address:

SPANIARDS WEAKENING

Cabinet Delegates Power to the Duke Almodovar de Rio.

STILL ANOTHER APPEAL TO AUSTRIA.

Under Secretary of State to Aid Spain's Minister at Vienna.

INSTRUCTIONS TO AUGUSTI.

The Captain General of Philippines Is to “Act According to Circumstances.”

A Famous Spanish Republican Leader Declares the Nation is Heading Straight Toward a Big Disaster.

LONDON, June 10.—The Madrid correspondence of The Daily Mail says: There is no little doubt that Spain, seeing the hopelessness of further continuing the war, is approaching the powers with a view of obtaining an honorable peace. The cabinet council yesterday finally authorized Duke Almodovar de Rio to expedite diplomatic action, and in consequence the duke is now conferring with certain ambassadors and ministers in Madrid.

Instructions have been telegraphed to the Spanish minister at Vienna, and orders likewise given to Senor Augusto, the under secretary of state, to present at once to the Austrian capital. Spain is unjustifiably looking to Austria for assistance in her distress. It is unlikely that any appeal will be made to the emperor, or the intervention of the emperor met with a discouraging reception in Vienna.

Probably Captain General Augusti will be ordered to make the best terms he can with Admiral Denczy. A ministerial cabinet meeting was held yesterday afternoon at 12:30 for the purpose of discussing the duke's Little Belligerent. The duke's Little Belligerent would be ordered to hold out to the last, but as they were not Augusti would act “according to circumstances”—a mild euphemism for surrender.

All the forces opposed to the government, which showed signs of restlessness, Almodovar de Rio, the chief agent of Don Carlos, assured me that while the war lasts the Carlists will remain quiet but should a diplomatic peace be negotiated they will not be allowed to stand with their hands “folded.” This is a serious situation and should not be lost sight of, since it is hardly possible that the government will be able to negotiate a peace which the people will not regard as binding.

A correspondent had an interview yesterday with Senor Sagasta, minister of Finance. The famous Republican leader, thin, phlegmatic and reformer, He thinks Spain is heading straight toward a big disaster, and seeks no hope of escape for her. The voice of the people, he contends, is unheeded, for he feels that the only way to save the republic is to take the vote of the people. Republican majority would be reduced to a bare majority and the government would be reduced to a bare majority and the government would be reduced to a bare majority.

Some of the postmasters and postal clerks in Pennsylvania are growing careless in the prompt delivery of Uncle Sam's mail. Newspapers are thrown aside until a more convenient season, which, nine times out of ten, never comes. Newspapers, very often, are a great deal more important to the subscriber than a letter, and besides Uncle Sam's rules do not permit mail to lay longer than necessary in any office, whether letter or paper. We have received many complaints on this score, some of our mail subscribers receiving their papers three and four days late, and sometimes they get them two and three one time, although they leave our office regularly every evening. There is neglect of duty somewhere and we hope this inefficiency, trouble or what ever it will be remedied. It is but fair to say that the trouble does not lie in the local office.

Little Comfort For Silver.

Read the platform on which the publishers carried Oregon by a great majority and you will see why they won. Here is the essence of the financial plank:

“We are in favor of the maintenance of the present gold standard.”

“We are decidedly opposed to the free coinage of silver and to all other schemes looking to the devaluation of the currency and the repudiation of debt.”

“We combine the continued agitation for free silver as calculated to jeopardize the prosperity of the country.”

After the money plank for the Presidential year of 1896 had been thus boldly thrown aside with its talk of “bimetallism” and the “use of both gold and silver as the standard money,” no doubt remained of the belief and intention of the Republicans of Oregon. Clearness of purpose and plainness of speech gave to them the power that made the American voters at Manila irresistible. The Oregon Republicans shot straight and victoriously.

From the result silver Republicans, Populists, and their like everywhere, all represented in the anti-Republican Fusion ticket, will see why they were beaten, although their declaration for free silver was as direct as that of the Republicans for gold. The silver men shot straight, too, but they fired on the wrong target.—New York Sun.

UPRISING AT MONTSERRAT.

Quelled by British Marines After Killing Fifty Natives.

Boston, June 10.—Captain Lockhart, of the British schooner Blenheim, at this port from Antigua, reports that a few days before the Blenheim left there, which was on May 12, the mail steamer from Montserrat brought advices of an uprising at that place, and the commander of the British cutter Jervisburgh, then at Antigua, immediately sent a detachment of 250 marines and three officers to suppress the disturbance and capture the ringleaders.

Montserrat is governed by a British official, and has among its inhabitants about 25 white people. It appears that the natives were operating illicit stills in the mountains, and the governor sent several officers to arrest the ringleaders. The natives rebelled, assaulting the governor and the officers, and ordering the governor's arm. On the arrival of the troops the natives were routed, and they were fired on by the ringleaders, and several being killed. The ringleaders were afterward arrested and taken back to Antigua, where they will be tried. Montserrat is a small island near Antigua.

Probably Spanish Spies.

Tried to Enter the Magazine at Fort St. Philip.

Athens, Ga., June 10.—An attempt was made recently to enter the magazine at Fort St. Philip, on the Mississippi, 65 miles below New Orleans. An endeavor was made to approach the two magazines, with the result that the men were struck on the head by a bar of iron in the hands of a hidden ally, and seriously injured. The news of the affair has just become known.

About 2:30 on the morning of May 29 the sentinel on the parapet of the South battery fired a magazine shot in the direction of the magazine, and on creeping up to the house saw two men trying to file the locks. He challenged them, but they ran, and although fired at managed to escape, one of the men sending a shot through the sentry's legs in the flight. The sentry pursued the two men, and he had no time to load his rifle, and he was forced to load a third man, who was shot and struck him with a bar of iron, falling him to the ground. The guards, aroused by the shooting, came on the scene last night, but the three men escaped in a boat down the river.

British Advice to Spain.

LONDON, June 10.—The Daily News says: “Spain's best friends can only urge her to submit without delay. There is no armor against fate and there is no remedy for incapacity. If international diplomacy deals with the war Lord Salisbury will insist upon the just claim of the United States to secure the record of energy and foresight in a good cause.”

The Times says: “Probably the next few days will form as critical a period as any Spanish government has yet passed through. It is useless for Spain to cherish pleasing illusions. America will let her volunteers into a shape good enough for the work in hand a great deal more quickly than she can be anticipated in Madrid.”

The Nicaragua Canal.

Washington, June 10.—Responding to a resolution of inquiry, the secretary of the interior yesterday sent to the senate a statement by President Hitchcock of the Maritime Canal company, in relation to the Nicaragua canal. Mr. Hitchcock makes proposition to loan to the secretary of the treasury 700,000 shares of the capital stock, of the par value of $700,000, on condition that the government guarantee the payment of both principal and interest of a new issue of bonds of the same company, amounting to $100,000,000. The statement shows that the company has expended to date $5,136,428.
