ANOTHER BATTLE FOUGHT BY AMERICAN FORCES

IT TOOK PLACE AT CAIMANERA, AND LASTED THIRTY-SIX HOURS—NO DETAILS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

Mole St. Nicholas, June 14.—Another battle has been fought between the Americans and Spaniards at Caimanera, on the bay of Guantanamo. The battle is said to have been fought desperately on both sides, and the Spaniards made a heroic effort to withstand the onslaught of the Americans.

Hostilities continued for thirty-six hours, and navy and land forces were engaged in the contest.

The details of the battle have not reached here.

Sampson Has Seen The Spanish Fleet.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

Washington, June 14.—Rear Admiral Sampson wires the naval department here that he has just completed a detour observation of Santiago de Cuba.

All of the Spanish fleet under Admiral Cervera has been seen in the harbor from the surrounding mountain tops.

Another Attack By Spanish Guerillas.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

Kingston, Jamaica, June 14.—When the newspaper dispatch boat Dauntless left Guantanamo bay early on Sunday morning, after the 13 hours' skirmish between the United States marines, Lieutenant Colonel R. W. Huntington, and the Spanish guerillas and regulars, it was expected that the fighting would be renewed. The Marblehead was handling reinforcements, and nothing had been heard from the advance pickets under Lieutenant Wendell C. Neville and Lieutenant Melville J. Shaw.

At 9 o'clock the firing was again renewed by the Spaniards, who appeared off the camp on the edge of a small island, about a mile to the northeast. It was promptly returned by 13 rifles and a three inch field gun, and in a short time all signs of the enemy had disappeared. Colonel Huntington then sent to the landing for a second three inch gun, which was dragged up the hill and placed in position at the summit. The skirmish lines thrown around the camp kept up a popping all the morning, but with not much result to show for it. Meanwhile the Marblehead left the harbor and threw a few shells into the woods.

To the great delight of the marines in camp Lieutenants Neville and Shaw, with 20 men of Company D, returned in good shape, but much exhausted by 18 hours of picket duty. One man, Sergeant Smith, of Company K, had been shot through the abdomen and instantly killed. During most of the day and night Lieutenants Neville and Shaw had been surrounded by a much superior force, but men and officers behaved splendidly, and, although the firing of the Spaniards was constant and heavy, Lieutenant Neville's detachment held its own, inflicting much more damage than it sustained. At least five Spaniards are known to have been killed, and as Lieutenant Neville's men kept up a steady fire throughout the night, and the enemy was not at a great distance off, it is believed that the Spanish casualties were heavy.

The battleship Texas arrived yesterday morning and sent ashore 40 marines and two automatic Colt guns as reinforcements. The Marblehead also sent an additional small detachment. Private Bartholomew McGowan, of Company D, will lose his hand, which was shattered by a Mauser bullet. Amputation will be necessary. The Marblehead's pilot was shot through the leg while guiding the cruiser out of the harbor yesterday morning. He holds the rank of colonel in the Cuban service.

Spain's Cuban Forces.

Madrid, June 14.—The government professes to believe that the land forces at Santiago de Cuba are sufficient to cope with the American forces. The Spanish forces in that locality comprise thirty-six battalions of infantry, twelve squadrons of cavalry, four mountain batteries, four companies of fortress artillery, six companies of engineers and four transport corps, in addition to Gen. Linera's command and Admiral Cervera's and the coastguard vessels' crews, numbering 2,570 men.

Caimanera's Fleet.

Washington, June 14.—Much speculation has been indulged in about Spain's Caimanera fleet but navy officials here say that the fleet may leave for the Canaries within the next two weeks. The state department has received advices from Ambassador Hay to the effect that it may be three or four weeks before Admiral Canara leaves Cadix.

Germany and the Philippines.

Singapore, June 14.—Reports received here indicate that something is brewing in Germany that may be advantageous to Spanish rule at Manila. Letters dated Manila, May 26, received by sympathizers of the Philippine insurgents say that the prolonged conference between Captain General Augustin and the German Consul have excited attention. It is supposed that Germany has designs on the Sulu Archipelago.

Too Good to be True.

London, June 14.—A Madrid dispatch says Admiral Cervera believes that the American fleet off Santiago is short of ammunition and stores, and it is said that he meditates sailing out of the harbor and attacking the American ships.

Obituary. Mrs. Louis Bender, wife of the well known hotelkeeper of Wm. Penn, died this morning after a protracted illness.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Latest Advice From the National Capital on the War Situation.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

WASHINGTON, June 14.

Now that the expectation to Santiago is well on its way, Gen. Miles will return to Washington this week for consultation with officials in reference to the invasion of Porto Rico. It is semi-officially stated that the latter expedition will be started as soon as possible, without regard to whether Santiago has been taken.

Advises received here from Wall street say it is generally expected that the popular subscriptions to the $200,000,000 loan will be an enormous sum. Fears are expressed that the clause of the circular stating that subscriptions of $500 or less must be paid in full at the time the subscriptions are made may result in stringency in the money market.

It is now certain that the Hawaiian resolution will pass with a large majority. Forty-five Senators are ready to vote to keep Congress in session until the resolution is passed, if it takes all summer. Many of the Republican leaders are of the opinion that the measure will pass both Houses this week, and that Congress will adjourn soon thereafter.

The Democratic representatives held a caucus to-day on the Hawaiian annexation and an effort was made to whip in line those who favor the resolution. It is believed many Democrats will ignore party lines and vote for the resolution.

A naval official stated to-day that Lieut. Hobson and his brave men, now incarcerated as prisoners of war at Santiago, will be exchanged for Spanish prisoners within a week. It is understood that the British Consul at Havana is negotiating with Gen. Blanco on the subject.

The Yale Joins Sampson.

New York, June 14.—The Yale, one of the auxiliary cruisers, is under orders to join Admiral Sampson's fleet now at Santiago at once.

Insurgent Forces Increasing.

Kingston, June 14.—Reports received here say that the Spaniards at Santiago are suffering from want of food, and the guerillas are deserting and joining the insurgents nearby. The forces of the latter are rapidly increasing, and their officers express the belief that they are able to resist any Spanish attack on land. They predict that a famine will soon cause the capitulation of Santiago.

Troops to Go South.

Washington, June 14.—Rumors are current here in army circles to the effect that two or three brigades, including the best drilled and best equipped troops now at Falls church, Va., will soon be sent to Florida, preparatory to going to Porto Rico. Among the number will be Pennsylvania troops.

Should be Abated.

Patrons of the electric railway complain of men making use of a main branch located near the branch of the line that skirts the Kohlmoor dirt bank and just north of the P. & O. railroad as a bathing quarters and say the township authorities should abate the practice on the grounds of public decency.

Mr. Delcamp Injured.

Frank Delcamp, aged 35 years, single, employed by the St. Clair Coal Co., while repairing a boiler yesterday morning, was seriously scalded by the bursting of a flue. He was removed to the Pottsville Hospital. Mr. Delcamp is a son of Emanuel Delcamp, of town, and formerly resided here.

Must Not Use the Stamps.

Brewers, beginning with to-day, must use the new war revenue stamps on every keg of beer sent out by them. The new stamps cost $1.00 more for each barrel, and as a result it is said a number of brewers have increased the price of beer one dollar per barrel. Quite a number of local retail dealers purchased a large supply of beer before the act went into effect in order to save $1.00 per barrel.

See samples of our engraving in the window display of aluminum novelties, Bruner's.

Licenses Transferred.

The following liquor licenses were transferred yesterday: Retail license held by Peter T. Bauer, in the Fifth ward, of Pottsville, was transferred to Christian Heineck, license of John Thwaites, in the Second ward of Mahanoy City, was transferred to John Cunningham. License of Wm. Guener, in the Fifth ward of Shenandoah, was transferred to Joe Radicki.

Postmasters Confronted.

Washington, June 14.—The senate yesterday confirmed these postmasters: George L. Davis, Fond du Lac, N. Y.; Elijah S. Brown, Little Valley, N. Y.; Elijah S. Adkins, Salisbury, Md.; William L. Bixler, Ephrata, Pa.; George F. Stackpole, Lewistown, Pa.; J. W. Matlack, Keyser, W. Va.

BLAZE IN A STABLE

No Great Damage Done, But Grave Fears Were Aroused.

VALUABLE PLACES THREATENED!

The Firemen Worked Diligently For About an Hour Before the Neighboring Residents Felt That Their Homes Were Beyond Harm—The Building Was Gutted.

The town was stirred up at about 5:45 o'clock this morning by a simultaneous ringing of the fire alarm bell and blowing of colliery whistles, and many people jumped to the conclusion that one of the breakers was on fire. As little as the breakers have been working, they are still looked upon as the reliable source of revenue to be depended upon, hence some apprehension was felt. However, the fire was not at any of the breakers, but right in the heart of the town and in proximity to a number of valuable properties. It was in a stable and fortunately the fire department confined the flames to its source.

Watchman Geary and Constable Phillips discovered the fire and the former sent in an alarm from the box at the corner of Main and Centre streets. Hurrying back Geary broke open one of the doors of the stable and tried to remove the only living occupant, a cow, but dense smoke drove him back and his cowship went the way of all cows that get in the unfortunate position of being confined in a burning stable. Among the first to respond to the alarm was Sanford Shoemaker, son of the Justice, who did heroic work with a gas-burner until the indignity overtook it from him and carried it back to its place half a square away.

The chemical engine was on the scene promptly, but a mistake was made in turning on the charge and the tanks were emptied before effective work could be done. The hose company worked industriously and checked the flames when they were licking the sides and roof of the building and threatened to ignite the lean buildings on the north and the Golden property on the south. In about three-quarters of an hour the fire was pronounced out and the neighboring property owners breathed easier. The blaze was of a character that justified their fears.

The building in which the fire occurred is a two-story frame structure owned by Hon. M. C. Watson and located at the Market alley end of the lot on which the Watson hotel is situated. The lower story of the place was used as a cow stable and storage house. The upper floor was used as a club room, the walls of which were decorated with pictures of an inflammable character. The structure is badly gutted. The total loss will not quite reach $200. The damage to the building amounts to about $150. Jean Leving, the owner of the cow, valued her at $35. A soda water fountain and a sewing machine also suffered from the fire. There is a difference of opinion as to the origin of the fire, but the theory that receives the greatest credence is that the stable was set on fire by paper lighting in an adjoining stable.

SURE DEATH TO INSECTS.

Car Breakers Arrested.

About one o'clock this morning Dolben, Horley and Uffels came upon a gang of five Lithuanians who were rolling two half barrels of beer along Centre street, near the P. & O. railway station. Two of the men, John Gitis and Joe Garkovich, were taken into custody and are now in the lockup, awaiting a hearing. The others escaped. It was found that the beer was taken from a depot, the seal of which had been broken. The latter company will probably become the prosecutor.

Big Rush In Beer.

The war tax on beer went into effect at twelve o'clock last night and there was a big rush on the part of the Columbia Brewing Company to get rid of the stock on hand. Today beer costs a dollar a barrel more than it did yesterday. Teams were speeding through the town last night as frequently as men could load and unload the wagons. The company distributed nine car loads of the beverage and one thousand kegs of beer. President W. M. Brewer, of the Columbia Brewing Company, went to Harrisburg this morning, to make arrangements for the purchase of beer stamps under the new law.

Kendrick House Free Lunch.

Grand Army bean soup will be served, free, to all patrons to-night.

Killed by a Train.

Passenger train No. 6 on the Lehigh Valley railroad, while running at a rapid rate of speed struck and killed a man at Hickory Swamp colliery, near Mt. Carmel, last evening. The unfortunate man was Adam Stark. Eye witnesses stated that the man was in an intoxicated condition and that he had staggered in front of the approaching train.

Robert Hughes is confined to his home where he is nursing a sprain of the left ankle. The accident occurred by Mr. Hughes striking a misstep while going to work yesterday.

One at Pottsville's Expense.

Shenandoah is the only town in this region, within a radius of thirty miles, where Buffalo Bill's wild west show appears, and the large posters advertising the same are displayed in Hazleton, Ashland, Mt. Carmel, Shamokin and Pottsville. Commenting on this S. G. M. Holloper, Esq., remarked that this is the first time in seventy-five years (within his own personal knowledge) that posters advertising an event of this nature in Shenandoah appeared on the bill boards at Pottsville. Hereafter this town has advertised Pottsville's attractions. Our friend Holloper ought to know—he has lived here in these many years.
