JOE LETTER'S WATERLOO

The Chicago Wheat Gambler Comes to Grief in His Deal.

FATHER REFUSED MORE MONEY.

As a Result the "Young Napoleon of Finance" Was Forced to Release Largely of His Holdings, Which Have Now Been "Trusted."

Chicago, June 14.—Yesterday was a day of excitement and wild rumors in the Chicago wheat pit. A reverse that looks like a Waterloo has come to the "Young Napoleon of Finance," Joseph Letter.

At first there was a wild tumble of prices on the June wheat selling at 11 cents on Saturday's close, and September 3 1/2 cents, and December 3 1/2 cents, but all made a little recovery before the close. It was given out that Letter had ordered his deals all closed, and that the selling rush was the result of the execution of this order, accompanied as it was by a flood of rumors concerning the stability of the big bull movement which for months has been the important factor in board of trade dealings. One of these rumors was that Letter had been deserted by some of his assistants in the campaign. In the meantime Letter's wheat was being tumbled overboard and prices had become demoralized.

Later in the day Letter made no attempt to conceal the fact that he had sold out all his holdings in futures—probably 6,000,000 or 8,000,000 bushels. It came out that he had transformed most of his trades in futures to other well known houses, and that they were pretty well protected by margins, so that whatever losses there were would fall upon Letter. His cash wheat, one report said, was transferred to Armour, but a later story was that it would be "trusted" and handled in such a way as to prevent the slump which would be inevitable if it were all thrown on the market at once. Before the final close the panic partially subsided, and July reacted 4 cents, September selling up 1/4, and December making 2 cents rally, selling a shade above September, where it was 1 cent under Saturday.

None of the principals in the Letter crisis is willing to discuss the causes which led to his abdication, and the most plausible explanation that can be offered at this time is therefore circumstantial and speculative. The first indication of approaching dissolution in the Letter regime came in the morning, when the announcement was made that all his cash and June wheat had been transferred by Allen, Greer & Zellar, Letter's brokers, to Philip D. Armour, and the September wheat, of which Letter was a heavy holder, had been transferred to Lamson Brothers. These reported transactions gave rise to conjectures that soon developed into a panic. At the outset it was rumored that Letter was trying to get out of the market, but the fact that Allen, Greer & Zellar had transferred their trades to Lamson Brothers, instead of selling out directly, aroused the suspicion that Letter was hard pressed and was endeavoring to dispose of his immense holdings without disclosing the cause of his sudden withdrawal from the pit.

At the close of business Saturday millions of bushels of September wheat "puts" were sold in the vicinity of 7 1/2 cents. Lamson Brothers apparently having large orders for the opening of the board of trade yesterday brokers supposed to be acting for Letter were ready sellers. The put price was speedily reached, and Letter, if the Lamsons were acting for him, was enabled to dispose of a million of wheat on the sale of puts, whereas if the actual wheat had been sold in the market there would have been a more severe break.

It is estimated that during the day from 8,000,000 to 10,000,000 bushels of Letter wheat, optional and visible, were sold on the account of the "Young Napoleon." This is supposed to have consisted chiefly of options in September, July and June wheat stored in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth and Chicago. It was reported during the day that L. Z. Letter, when asked by his son for more money, had refused to be drawn further into the wheat deal, and thus compelled the latter to let go a large line of his holdings in order to satisfy his warehouse creditors and marginal demands.

Mr. Letter's friends insist that he had not made an assignment, but it was admitted that the Letter interests had been "trusted."

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found her self sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as ever. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at A. Wasyly's Drug Store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.
