The final outcome was the practical rout of the middle-of-the-road crowd under the leadership of Milton Park, although the liberal wing made some conces-sions. The attempt to oust Senator Butler from the leadership was a signal failure. There will be no convention in 1890 to outline the policy of the party. In 1900 there will be an early convention to nominate a national ticket, the same to be held prior to the Democratic convention. No over-ture looking to fusion will emanate from the national committee, and none will be received and entertained by it.
