OUR COUNTRY: First, Last and Forever.

BUSINESS MEN have found by practical experience that the HERALD is a profitable advertising medium.

SHENANDOAH has plenty of openings for first-class industries and too many of them cannot come this way.

Gov. HASTINGS will at once fill the vacancy of the Superior Court bench, and it is safe to say the nominee will not be a friend of the Beaver steamship.

NOTWITHSTANDING it is difficult matter to secure details of the battles at Santiago, the metropolitan papers are using illustrations of an elaborate scale.

THE Fourth of July will be appropriately celebrated by Americans in Cuba, especially in the vicinity of Santiago. The display of fireworks will be on an elaborate scale.

ONLY two newspaper men, out of a corps of two hundred or more in Washington, have enlisted in the army. As a rule, they prefer doing their fighting at home with paper bullets.

THE celebration of Independence Day in town will be a grand success, if all signs fall out. The committees are working hard in that direction, and should receive the assistance of the people generally.

THE Black Diamond of yesterday contained an article over the signature of its editor, Thomas J. Joyce, in which it was stated that the paper would suspend publication indefinitely. There is much sympathy expressed for our editorial brother.

THERE is no room to doubt that the Bryanites will control the Democratic state convention, and the same can be said of the county convention. The Bryanites are in the saddle this year and will give the "gold bugs" no quarter. The future is anything but bright for the Democracy this year, in both state and county.

THE Minersville Free Press, a pseudo-Democratic paper, says the following ticket will be nominated by the Democratic convention, selected by the Bryanites: Ryan, W. A. Murr; Congress, James Byrd; District Attorney, M. P. McLaughlin; Controller, M. H. Mester; Coroner, Dr. C. A. Bellier; Poor Director, Wm. F. Kegan.

The new libel law of New Jersey provides that the person giving a newspaper libelous information that is untrue is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of $500 or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both. The publisher shall also have the opportunity to retract, and in a prosecution the plaintiff must show malice to establish a case.

The Altoona Gathering. Our Democratic friends are warming up to their work. The Altoona convention this week will be engaged in performing its allotted task, and there is every indication that there will be the hottest kind of a time.

Most of the trouble has risen in consequence of the expectation that there will be a chance for that party at the polls in November next.

If there was no dissatisfaction, real or imaginary, with the ticket nominated at Harrisburg a few weeks ago, Democratic leaders and would-be leaders would not be anxious to lead a forlorn hope. But thinking that fame and honor will be secured through a nomination for Governor, a score or more of ambitious men are getting themselves talked about, such one earnestly hoping that his rod will reach the lightning.

As a matter of fact this expectation has a very slight foundation. Pennsylvania is to-day so overwhelmingly Republican that nothing but an internal revolution could bring about the election of a Democratic Governor, even if the candidate of that party should be unannouncedly supported by its rank and file. But the Democratic factions never were so many and bitter as they are to-day, in both state and county, and the latest developments only add to the intensity of the situation.

It is now quite certain that whoever is selected at Altoona will find himself in sore trouble, no matter what kind of a platform he may be stood upon. The defeated elements will be determined upon revenge and

EFFORT WILL BE MADE TO SECURE THE SYMPATHETIC SUPPORT OF DISSENTED REPUBLICANS.

Long before the start of the great party of Republicanism, progress and national unity and power will be gathered together and prepared to march to the left in triumph.

AIDED BY MRS. PINKHAM.

Mrs. W. E. PANTON, Youngtown, North Dakota, writes about her struggle to regain health after the birth of her little girl.

"DEAR Mrs. PINKHAM:—It is with pleasure that I add my testimony to your list, hoping that it may induce others to turn themselves of your valuable medicine.

"After the birth of my little girl, three years ago, my health was very poor. I had leucorrhoea badly, and a terrible bearing-down pain which gradually grew worse, until I could do no work.

Also had headache nearly all the time, and dizzy feelings. Menstruations were very profuse, appearing every two weeks.

"I took medicine from a good doctor, but it seemed to do no good. I was becoming alarmed over my condition, when I read your advertisement in a paper. I sent at once for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after taking two-thirds of the bottle I felt so much better that I sent for two more.

After using three bottles I felt as strong and well as any one.

"I think it is the best medicine for female weakness ever advertised, and recommend it to every lady I meet suffering from this trouble."

Maternity is a wonderful experience and many women approach it wholly unprepared. Childbirth under right conditions need not terrify women.

The advice of Mrs. Pinkham is freely offered to all expectant mothers, and her advice is beyond question the most valuable to be obtained. If Mrs. Panton had written to Mrs. Pinkham before her confinement she would have been saved much suffering. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass.

Pleasant Rapid Trips to the Seashore. The season is now with us when every one longs for a longer or shorter sojourn at the seashore, including the Jersey Railroad to the Philadelphia and Reading Road.

To all intending a visit to the shore, the Philadelphia and Reading Road offers special advantages as to both location and the getting there. Atlantic City is well known with its many beautiful attractions, that it is only necessary to say that the schedule of fast trains to the Philadelphia and Reading Road is this year fully equal, if not superior, to that of former years, and that the sixty minute trains run in the summer season are the fastest scheduled trains in the world.

By the use of the month Jersey Railroad the Philadelphia and Reading Road also acquired a direct route to Cape May, one of the finest and oldest of sea shore resorts, and to Ocean City, a magnificent family watering place. When we attract many persons to the latter place are its many religious conventions and the strict temperance regulations strictly enforced. The Philadelphia and Reading Road is the shortest route to all of these resorts.

Through tickets can be bought and baggage checked from all principal stations of the Philadelphia and Reading Road, giving list of principal hotels and boarding houses and rates, address Elson J. Weeks, General Passenger Agent, Reading Terminal, Philadelphia.
