THE ST. PAUL ARRIVES. Came to New York For Coal, Ammunition and Stores. STORY OF THE TERROR'S DEFEAT.

Spanlards Thought They Were to Come in Contact With the St. Louis, and People Gathered in the Harbor Expocting to Witness a Capture. New York, July 2 .- The auxiliary

ruisor St. Paul arrived in port last hight and anchored off Tompkinsville She left Mole St. Nicholas early last Tuesday and has come here for coal, ammunition and stores, also to have some slight repairs made to her starboard engine. Captain Sigsbee and the officers were absolutely inaccessible to press representatives, who went off to the ship when she had anchored, even permission to board the vessel being refused. Considerable information was obtained, nevertheless, from a copy the St. Paul's war budget, the journal of the ship, which was obtained. The St. Paul's great exploit on her last trip was the disabling of the Spanish torpedo boat destroyer Terror off the harbor of San Juan Porto Rico, and being regarded so by the crew, the account of it occupies the first place on the first page. Charleston, S. C., July 2.-Alongo Rogers, Israel McEnight, H. S. Stokes, Moultrie Epps, Henry Godwin, N. V. Wood and W. Webster were arraigned before United States Commissioner Smith, in this city, yesterday on the charge of murdering Frazer B. Baker, the negro postmaster who was lynched at Lake City last February. It will be remembered that Baker's house was set on fire and when he and his family dried to escape from it they were fired on by the mob. Baker and a child were killed and several members of the famlly were wounded. Rewards for the lynchers were offered by the state and the national government. A short time ago J. P. Newham turned state's evidence, implicating the men who were arraigned here yesterday, with others. Baker's wife and Newham were on the stand, and both gave graphic descriptions of the trag-edy. Commissioner Smith sent the prisoners back to jail, and the case will go up to the district court.

New York, July 2.-Ben Jordan, of England, after fighting 25 hard rounds with George Dixon, the colored champlon, was awarded the honors by Referee Charley White last night at the Lenox Athletic club. Both boys fought well, and there was little to choose between them. If anything Dixon seemed to have somewhat the better of the bout, and was decidedly stronger and more effective than when he met Eddie Santry, of Chicago, a few weeks ago in the same ring. Jordan had a shade the better of his opponent in re-gard to height and reach, and it was announced that he weighed 122 pounds, while Dixon turned the scales at 117%.
