SPANISH GENERAL AGREES TO EXCHANGE

Shafter Says Hobson and His Men Will Soon be Free—Spain's Populace Demands Peace.

CERVERA BOUND NORTH ON THE ST. LOUIS.

Washington, July 6, 2 p. m.—General Shafter wires the department here that General Toral, the commander of the forces at Santiago, has agreed to exchange Assistant Naval Constructor Richard P. Hobson and his men to-day.

OUR TROOPS IN GOOD CONDITION.

Foreign Consuls Urging the Spaniards to Surrender.

THEY WILL FIGHT TO THE LAST

In the Opinion of War Officials at Washington—General Shafter's Losses in Killed and Wounded is Now Known to Have Reached Seventeen Hundred—Fugitives From Santiago Landed by British and Austrian Warships at Kingston, Jamaica—A Resolution in Congress Which Recognizes Commodore Schley as the Real Hero of the Destruction of Cervera's Fleet.

SPAIN'S PEOPLE CRY FOR PEACE.

Washington, July 6.—Last night was a comparatively quiet one at both the war and navy departments. Several dispatches were received by Adjutant General Corbin from General Shafter, but their contents were not given to the public.

ADMIRAL CERVERA NORTHWARD BOUND.

Washington, July 6, 2 p. m.—A despatch just received from Admiral Sampson states that Admiral Cervera and the rest of the Spanish prisoners taken last Sunday left Santiago to-day on the United States auxiliary cruiser St. Louis. They will be taken to Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

ATTACK ON SANTIAGO PREVENTED BY STORM.

Washington, July 6.—General Greeley, chief of the signal corps and weather bureau, says a big storm is raging at Santiago and it has probably delayed the expected bombardment of Santiago.

CADIZ FLEET NOT ALLOWED TO COAL.

Suez, July 6.—The Spanish fleet from Cadiz has arrived here. The government has notified Admiral Camara that the fleet must leave within 24 hours, and without coaling.

Cervera Talks Freely.

Washington, July 6.—Admiral Cervera is deeply touched by the treatment he is receiving at the hands of his captors. It appears that Cervera received orders twice from Madrid to leave Santiago and if possible to make his way to Havana to assist in the defenses of that city.

Spanish Loss Was Heavy.

Kingston, Jamaica, July 6.—Reports received here say the hospitals at Santiago are crowded with wounded and sick soldiers. It is estimated that the Spanish loss in the fight on July 1, at the San Juan hill was 800 killed, Gen. Vara del Rey and all his staff and more than a thousand men are reported to have been killed at El Caney. Gen. Escario, with 4,000 Spanish troops from Manzanillo, entered the city on Saturday. The town of El Cobre was burned by the Spaniards before they evacuated it.

Another Spanish Leader Shot.

Washington, July 6.—It is unofficially reported that Gen. Garcia, with a small force of 3,000 Cubans, gave battle to Gen. Pando in an effort to prevent the latter from reaching Santiago, but the superior force of the Spaniards compelled Garcia to retire, although he checked the 7,000 Spaniards for a time. During the engagement Gen. Pando was seriously wounded in the arm, and is now being cared for in the hospital at Santiago.

SIX HUNDRED PEOPLE DROWNED AT SEA.

Halifax, N. S., July 6.—The French steamship La Bourgogne collided off this coast with an unknown vessel and sank almost immediately.

There were eight hundred persons on board the ship and only two hundred were saved. The La Bourgogne sailed from New York last Saturday for Havre, France.

All the officers of the vessel, except the purser and three engineers, were drowned, and only one woman was saved.

Of the persons saved 170 were passengers and the other 30 were members of the crew. Senior Dubois, who was identified with the Spanish spy system in Canada, was on the passenger list, but it is not known whether he perished.

Refuses to Surrender.

London, July 6.—A Kingston, Jamaica, despatch says the Archbishop of Santiago has appealed to General Linares to surrender rather than to submit to bombardment. The Spanish commander, although in great pain from his wounded arm, refused to comply with the request, and said he would burn the city rather than to surrender to the Americans. The Spanish troops are much depressed and if they had their way would willingly surrender.

Watson to Sail Soon.

Washington, July 6.—Naval officials have positive information that Camara's fleet, with the exception of the torpedo boats, have passed through the Suez canal, and final arrangements are now being made to send Commodore Watson to destroy Camara's fleet. It is believed Watson will be on his way by the latter part of this or the first of next week.

Minors to Be Discharged.

Washington, July 6.—The war department has issued an order that those less than 18 and more than 45 years of age, who enlisted in the volunteer army, shall be discharged at once and sent to their homes.

Bound for Manila.

Port Said, July 6.—Camara's fleet has passed through the Suez canal, on its way to the Philippines. The three torpedo-boat destroyers left port yesterday afternoon, bound for Cadiz. The ships that entered the canal are one battleship, one armored cruiser, four troop ships, one ammunition ship and colliers.

May Save Several Ships.

Washington, July 6.—In reply to Secretary Long a telegram was received from Admiral Sampson saying that it may be practicable to raise the Cristobal Colon and possibly one or two other Spanish ships. Wrecking crews will be sent to Santiago at once.

Americans in Spain Celebrate.

Madrid, July 6.—The Americans in Barcelona celebrated Independence Day by holding a banquet last evening. They were not molested by the Spaniards.

Venezuelans Rejoice.

Caracas, Venezuela, July 6.—Throughout this city the greatest satisfaction is expressed over the destruction of Cervera's fleet by the American ships.

Bismarck Neutral.

Berlin, July 6.—Gossip ascribes to Prince Bismarck the lack of sympathy with either the Americans or Spaniards, but he considers the latter to be inferior. He is only interested to the extent of Germany's policy, which he believes ought to be one of the most rigorous neutrality.

A Musical Attraction.

At Pooler's saloon, 118 East Centre street, all lovers of music are cordially invited to hear "Larry Fennell," the variety musician. This gentleman plays a variety of musical instruments and novelties, and can entertain musical critics as well as ordinary talent. Don't fail to hear him nightly. The bar is stocked with the choicest brands of beer, porter, ale, liquors and cigars. 7-6 1/2.

Increased Working Days.

The allotment for July has been fixed at 3,000,000 tons, as against 2,500,000 tons last month, and means four days a week. The colliers will work three days this week but beginning with next week they will likely work four days a week during the remainder of the month. There has been no official statement to that effect, but among mine officials it is generally believed the working time will be increased.

Died at the Almshouse.

Word was received here to-day that Dominick Zabwickicz, of town, died at the almshouse. Friends of the deceased were notified and they took charge of the body.

POLITICS IN THE COUNTY

Review of the Democratic Side of the Field.

STILL IN A CHAOTIC CONDITION!

The Gold Democrats Enthusiastic and Contented. But the Silverites Are Still Banging—An Independent Candidate For Congress May Enter the Arena.

Special Herald Correspondence.

Pottsville, July 6.—The political situation, so far as the Democrats are concerned, still remains in a chaotic condition, and the result of the state convention has only added fuel to the fire. The gold standard Democrats are greatly encouraged and confidently predict that the result of the Altoona gathering means the formation of a platform similar in character to the county convention next Monday. A draft of the platform to be submitted to the convention is already being formed by those opposed to the Bryan theories, and it will deal with state issues and questions bearing upon the administration of county affairs. The Republican board of County Commissioners and the administration of the almshouse will receive much attention, but there will be no financial plank if "Lilly" Metz and his friends can prevent it.

THE SILVERITES.

It is true that the admirers of Bryan returned from Altoona with much less enthusiasm than they displayed when they left home for the convention, nevertheless they are prepared to renew the fight in the county convention. They have not surrendered, by any means. In fact, such men as Ulrich, Lawler, Wilburn, the two Tooles and others are sanguine that the majority of the delegates to be elected next Saturday will demand an endorsement of Bryan and the Chicago platform by the convention, and openly assert that the candidate who fails to openly declare in favor of that plank will not be nominated. Their defeat at Altoona has intensified the feeling of the Bryanites, and they are out for blood—and blue blood, at that.

Many open threats are made, in the event of another turnout of the silverites. Should the county convention take the same position the state convention did, it is a safe prediction to say that there will be an INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE for Congress, nominated upon a silver platform. This prediction also embraces the Senatorial and Legislative conventions. The gold standard leaders laugh when questioned about the threats of the Silverites, and say the latter would not dare place themselves outside the regular party organization in this county, and that the men now making the threats of nominating independent candidates are doing so for effect, with the object of frightening those opposed to their dogmas into their way of thinking.

The judicial contest is an open fight between George J. Wallinger and W. A. Marr, Esq. The friends of both have been active for many weeks. Wallinger is looked upon by many as the leading member of the Schrykill Bar, who is deservingly much on the hands of his party, while Marr is a Democratic war-horse of many battles. The latter is looked upon as the candidate of the corporations, and this may be a source of weakness in the present contest. Wallinger has developed much strength in the closing stages of the contest, and in localities where his opponent was supposed to be impregnable.

For Congress there are three pronounced candidates—Murtha P. Quinn, James B. Kelly and James W. Ryan. The latter is a pronounced silverite and has made his fight on that issue. The other two are opposed to the 16 to 1 idea, and it is doubtful whether Quinn would accept the nomination on a silver platform. James B. Kelly, of course, is after the office, and would hardly refuse a nomination on any platform. While it may appear ridiculous to relate, nevertheless it is a fact that KELLY AND BRUMM are in a deal to secure the Congressional nomination from their respective parties. Each has an idea that he can defeat the other, and is therefore anxious to have his name, which has already become an eyesore to the people generally, appear upon their respective party tickets. Brumm's closest political friends are working to secure Kelly's nomination by the Democrats, and are deceiving themselves with the belief that their favorite could defeat his old antagonist. Shrewd politicians of both parties admit that Kelly would be the strongest candidate for the Democrats, should Brumm be the Republican nominee, but the latter, who is credited with very little political sagacity, thinks otherwise. Kelly will do everything in his power to secure the nomination of Brumm by the Republicans, knowing his weakness. In fact, all the Democratic candidates are anxious to see Brumm nominated.

THE CONTROVERSY. The greatest interest is centered in the big fight now going on between the three popular and well known candidates from your town, who are anxious to succeed Constable Saylor. Both Muldoon and Bradigan are actively at work to secure the nomination from Shenandoah, while Master appears to be confining himself to other localities. In the opinion of many this is looked as a shrewd move, and may result in his nomination. I am told that he will receive the support of his opponents should either one drop out of the race after the first battle, and it is reasonable to suppose that Muldoon and Bradigan would go to Master rather than Bradigan, and vice versa.

The contest in Shenandoah, from what I can glean from the friends of both sides, appears to be more of a local factional fight for supremacy rather than anything else, with the odds in favor of the faction led by Muldoon. However, it will be a battle royal, and neither side will have a large majority.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

The three deputies under District Attorney Reichtel are candidates to succeed their superior officer, while "Ben" Cummings, with lots of cash to back him up, is also a candidate for the District Attorneyship. If I were asked to pick the strongest candidate before the people I should certainly choose M. P. McLaughlin. He is popular, efficient and fully equipped for the position. As District Attorney there is no one who could use him or his office to hide the political tricks of politicians. His best friends could not persuade him to do a dishonorable act. His nomination, however, depends much upon the complexion of the ticket when this office is reached. It will not do to have the green displayed too extensively this fall.
