session adjourned it was stated that an agreement had been reached on the protocol.
All the demands of the United States are accepted by Spain, and now that an agreement on the protocol, embodying in formal diplomatic language the terms imposed by this government, peace commissioners will at once be appointed to meet in Paris and decide upon minor details. The terms accepted by Spain are as follows:

sovereignty over, or title to, the island of Cuba, and to immediately evacuate the island.

the island of Porto Rico and all the islands under Spanish sovereignty in the West Indies and to immediately evacuate the same.

hold the city, bay and harbor of Manila pending the conclusion of a treaty of peace which shall determine the control, disposition and government of the Philippines.

tions in their entirety, commissioners will be named by the United States to meet commissioners on the part of Spain for the purpose of concluding a treaty of peace on the basis above indicated.

camps will be moved to Northern points. An order to that effect will be issued in a day or two, and will include the troops now at Chickamauga, Camp Alger and Manassas, where the reports of sickness does not improve. The new camp will probably be located near Harrisburg.

Guantanamo Surrenders.

Special to EVENING HERALD.
Santiago, Aug. 10.—The final arrangements for the surrender of Guantanamo being completed, the Spanish regulars at that place gave up 6,000 rifles and 2,000,000 rounds of ammunition, and Gen. Ewers took formal possession as Military Governor. The insurgents are not permitted to enter the town until the Spanish soldiers leave. The Cuban flag waves over Fort Guantanamo.

Spanish soldiers sailed today for Spain on the steamer Alicante. The embarkation of other Spanish troops will continue as fast

Park having on board the Ninth regiment of Regulars.

TRAINMEN SCALDED.

Special to EVENING HERALD.
Tamaqua, Aug. 10.—A flue of an engine hauling a freight train on the Catawissa branch of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway, blew out this morning when the train was near Ringtown and two men were very seriously scalded.

One of the victims was William Soragone, fireman, married, aged 20 years, boards at Milton and lives at Tamaqua. Two-thirds of his body was scalded and his injuries are probably fatal. The other victim was Robert H. Seiwel, brakeman, 20 years old and lives at Tamaqua. About half of his body was scalded and his condition is considered dangerous. Both men were removed to the Miners' hospital.

The engineer was in his cab at the time and escaped injury. It appears that when the flue burst the steam got vent through the frebox and the fireman and brakeman received the full force of it.

A Burglary.
Burglars broke into the clothing store of Sam Block, corner of Main and Cherry streets, between two and three o'clock this morning and stole about fifty dollars worth of clothing. The burglars gained entrance by smashing the glass of a show window next to the main entrance of the store. Mr.
Block was awakened by the noise of the falling glass and got down to the store in time to see two men with bundles under their arms run south on Cherry street and across the Lehigh Valley railroad. It was raining hard at the time. Mr. Block remained on guard at the store until daylight.

The last excursion to Southern New Jersey sea shore points, via Pennsylvania railroad, Thursday, August 12th, will no doubt be well patronized. The rates are extremely liberal, considering the accommodations offered.

War Notes.
Jacob Gillespie, the genial conductor of the Lakoskie Railway, highly prizes a piece of the armor of the new battleship Kearsage, recently launched.
James Kallbach, the North Main street tobaccoist, has received from his cousin a one-pound projectile used on one of the battleships.

SPANISH ROUTED

Americans in Manila At- tacked at Night.

ELEVEN AMERICANS KILLED.

Brave Tenth Pennsylvania Men Under a Withering Fire.

BATTLE IN A RAGING TYPHOON.

Spanish Rage at the Arrival of Fresh Reinforcements Led Them to Attack the American Trenches Between Cavite and Manila—Insurgents Took No Hand.
Americans Now Occupy the Trenches Formerly Held by the Insurgents.

Cavite, Manila Bay, Aug. 4, via Hong Kong, Aug. 10.—The first shedding of American blood on Philippine soil took place Sunday night, when 11 were killed and 44 wounded during a skirmish at the Malate trenches, between Cavite and Manila.

General Greene's force, numbering 4,000 men, had been advancing and entrenching. The arrival of the third expedition filled the Spaniards with rage, and they determined to give battle before Camp Dewey could be reinforced.
The trenches extended from the beach, 300 yards to the left flank of the insurgents.

Sunday was the insurgent feast day, and their left flank withdrew, leaving the American right flank exposed.
Companies A and E of the Tenth Pennsylvania and the Utah battery were ordered to reinforce the right flank. In the midst of a raging typhoon, with a tremendous downpour of rain, the enemy's force, estimated at 3,000 men, attempted to surprise the camp. Our pickets were driven in and the trenches were assaulted.

The brave Pennsylvania men never flinched, but stood their ground under a withering fire. The alarm spread, and the First California regiment, with two companies of the Third artillery, who fight with rifles, were sent to reinforce the Pennsylvanians. The enemy were on top of the trenches when these reinforcements arrived, and never was the discipline of the regulars better demonstrated than by the work of the Third artillery under Captain O'Hara. Nothing could be seen but flashes of Mauser rifles. Men ran right up to the attacking Spaniards and mowed them down with regular volleys.

The Utah battery covered itself with glory. The men pulled their guns through mud and axle deep. Two guns were sent around in flank and poured in a destructive enfilading fire. The enemy was repulsed and retreated in disorder. Our infantry had exhausted its ammunition and did not follow the enemy. Not an inch of ground was lost, but the scene in the trenches was one never to be forgotten.

During flashes of lightning the dead and wounded could be seen lying in blood red water, but neither the elements of Heaven nor the destructive power of man could bring a cry of protest from the wounded. They encouraged their comrades to fight and handed over their cartridge belts.

On the night of Aug. 1 the fight was renewed, but the enemy had been taught a lesson, and made the attack at long range with heavy artillery. The Utah battery replied, and the artillery duel lasted an hour. On the night of Aug. 2 the artillery duel was renewed.

In Sunday night's skirmish the following were killed: Corporal W. E.
Brown, of the Tenth Pennsylvania; Private Brady, of the Tenth Pennsylvania; Private Bowker, of the First Wyoming; Privates Hull, Noss and Stilwell, all understood to be of the Tenth Pennsylvania; First Sergeant Morris Just, of the First California; Private Dawson, Battery K, Third artillery; Private McKelroin, Battery A, Third artillery; Private Winfield, Battery H, Third artillery.

On Monday night Private Springstead, of the First Colorado, was killed.
Last night (Tuesday) the following were killed: Private William Lewis Roddy, of the Twenty-third infantry; Private R. Bowers, of the signal corps; Private Fred Buckland, of the Thirtieth Minnesota.

Some of the wounded in Sunday night's skirmish were struck by shrapnel.

The American dead were buried next day in the Convent of Miraculous. No attack has yet been made on the Spanish line, but the Americans now occupy the trenches formerly held by the insurgents.

Although the engagement scarcely attained the importance of a battle, it thoroughly tested the quality of the United States troops and had an excellent effect, stimulating their real and enthusiasm, and inspiring them with confidence.

The Spaniards, whose losses in the engagement are not known, are adopting tactics intended to irritate the Americans. Every night they maintain an annoying fire. They have now got the true range of the earthworks, and their shell and shrapnel fire is very accurate.
General MacArthur's brigade, which arrived Sunday, is landing today through the heavy surf. Nothing more serious than a thorough wetting has occurred as yet, although the operation is not without considerable danger. Hardly any cases of sickness are reported.

The insurgents rendered no assistance, but retreated on the first shot.
It is believed that General Aguinaldo, aware of the Spanish intentions, moved his men away. On Aug. 1 the Spaniards made two weak attacks, but were easily repulsed. On Aug. 2 they made another attack, when one was killed and 11 wounded. On the third there was a cannonade all day.

PRaise FOR AMERICANS.

An English Correspondent Compliments Our Troops on Their Demeanor.

London, Aug. 10.—The correspondent of The Times at Cavite, under date of Aug. 1, says: "Yesterday I visited Camp Dewey and the American intrenchments before Malate. Captain Grant and Captain Young, of the Utah artillery, were busily throwing up advanced breastworks for guns, under protection of the Nebraska volunteers.
From the upper floor of a European house, facing the alignment of the earthworks, I was observing the Spanish positions, when a Nebraska sharpshooter beside me fired the first shot discharged by the Americans upon the Spaniards, who were crouching into the forward trench.
"This was contrary to General Mor-rill's orders. He had forbidden an aggressive attitude unless the Spaniards advanced. The insurgents, now at force lines, also opened fire, the Spaniards replying briskly with quick firing guns and rifles, but their shooting was high and their shots fell half a mile behind the entrenchments, where a Colorado volunteer picket was hit by a Mauser bullet.
"Personally, I was impressed by the nonchalant demeanor of the Americans in the fighting line. They were like high spirited youths out on a picnic, while groups of them, now at ease, were playing cards. Had the Spaniards who were unaccountably non-aggressive during the American landing and advance, dropped shrapnel from Ma-late fort they would have wrought terrible havoc, one house forming a conspicuous mark, being within easy gun range.
"The return to camp was exciting, but was effected without mishap. The natives follow the American advance, occupying the houses within the fighting line. General Aguinaldo's guerrilla troops caused the Americans considerable trouble. While I was in camp information was received that a party of California volunteers, engaged in felling timber, had been arrested by the insurgents.
"Colonel Smith, under General Greene's instructions, ordered out an armed detachment, which released the prisoners and brought the insurgents into Camp Dewey. General Greene sent a message to General Aguinaldo saying that if the Americans were further harassed he would disarm the whole Philippines.
"The Spaniards have not opened fire since Sunday's engagement. An order has been issued creating a Second division of the Eighth army corps, under the command of General Anderson, which will join the forces at Camp Dewey. The First brigade, under General MacArthur, consists of two battalions of the Twenty-third regular infantry, one battalion of the Fourteenth regular infantry, the Thirteenth Minnesota volunteers, two battalions each of the First North Dakota and the First Idaho, one battalion of the first Wyoming and the Astor battery. The second brigade, General Greene, consists of two battalions of the Eighteenth regular infantry, one battalion of the Third regular artillery, acting as infantry, Company A, of the regular engineers, Batteries A and B of the Utah light volunteer artillery, the First California volunteers, the First Colorado volunteers and the First Nebraska volunteers and the Tenth Pen-sylvania volunteers. The garrison at Cavite consists of the Second Oregon volunteers and a detachment of California heavy artillery."

Electrocuted by Telephone Wire.
Shamokin, Pa., Aug. 10.—While leaning from a window of the Shamokin Jennie Allison, aged 15 years, was electrocuted by her nose coming in contact with a telephone wire that had been crossed by a live wire and thus charged with 1,200 volts of electrical fluid. She had her feet resting on a coil of steam heating pipes at the time and must have received the full shock as she fell into the building and expired instantly.
