POLITICAL POINTS.

We have had seven years, from '91 to '98. Time and time again the tide has been to rise and then dammed by one circumstance and another.

An exchange remarks that the Democratic county conventions in Pennsylvania show unusual spirit this year.

The term of the Sub-Treasurer at Philadelphia will expire to-morrow a week, when it is expected that McKinley will name his successor.

Chief Butler, presiding over a naturalization court at West Chester the other day, announced a firm determination to enter the rights of citizenship upon no applicants in the future who are not familiar with the provisions of the national Constitution.

Those who are making much noise about "dark-lantern" politics, were like so many clams when Brannan was elected with and induced Charlie Schindler to become a candidate for Controller, and sent emissaries throughout the county to secure candidates for Poor Director and Coroner.

Chairman Elkin calling upon John Wammanaker has created a sensation among the small-fry politicians.

Up to the time of going to press Chairman Shay had not surrendered his position to the Miners' Journal.

Mr. Brown, emphatically declared to at least three prominent Republicans last week that he was not a candidate, statements to the contrary notwithstanding.

The political announcement of Dr. H. G. Ritzel, of Mahanoy City, appears in this issue of the HERALD. He is a candidate for the Legislature in the First district, subject to Republican rules.

Spanish politicians have been engaged in the lunatic trade so long that they must not blame us if we require an affidavit that their offer is honest this time.

Mahanoy City has another candidate for the Legislative nomination in the person of Sylvester Weil.

W. F. Shepherd, Esq., of Pottsville, has been honored as a member of the committee to notify the Democratic state candidates of their nomination.

Mother lose their dread for "that terrible second issue" when they have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the house.

A National Circuit Meet. All eyes are now on Mahanoy City, the mecca of bicycle enthusiasts.

The County Commissioners, it is said, have decided to use drastic measures to compel delinquent Tax Collectors to settle their duplicates.
