A CAMP LETTER.

Furloughs Have Been Dispensed With at Camp Dixon Loring.

Dunn Loring, Aug. 11.—We are still in camp here and have had plenty rain the last two days and nights. It is awful muddy and some of the drills are suspended.

The boys who were home on a furlough are to get their rations money this week. It amounts to 25 cents a day.

Orders have been received stopping all furloughs except in cases of urgent necessity. All passes are stopped and none is allowed outside the camp limits.

Major Holmes who was home on a furlough, has returned to camp and assumed charge of his battalion. He has announced himself as a candidate for the Legislature in his district at home.

It is rumored that we are to move to Thoroughfare Gap next Monday, but they have not been confirmed yet.

By all appearances we are going to have another rainy day in camp. The boys do not mind it so much, and they do not need to drill, but it makes it very disagreeable around the camp.

In passing on review Monday evening our company had the dust line in the regiment.

Concerning the mustering out of soldiers at Fort, ex-Warden Brewer is a down town boarder and Mrs. Brewer still holds the culinary department, but in a few days the affair will be settled.

Charles W. Johnson, of Ashland, comes out in a card announcing himself a candidate for the Legislature in the Second district, subject to the rules of Republican party.

Judge Koch arrived home from a visit to Nebraska and other western states. During his absence, however, his friends have been active in his behalf.

The Republicans should be careful and avoid the cry of "Two men, Buttrick" in naming their county ticket.

The Tower City Echo says: "Hon. S. A. Loach, now Senator and coal operator, is the shrewdest politician in this county, and his enemies as well as friends, say he is honest and sticks to his friends."

Private Brennan received a letter on Monday stating that his sister was dead. He was grieved a furlough of five days.

Great Troutman takes an active interest in the Y. M. C. A. meetings every night and will be in camp most of the time.

Ferd. Gibson is all smiles this week. The letter that he longed for came at last. He writes a letter almost every day.

Corporal Hopkins is full of fruit and has some almost every day. The boys of Co. F wish he had command, as they would then get to the front.

Private William D. Williams was on furlough yesterday.

John H. Fogle comes to tent No. 4 every day, looking for the EVENING HERALD.

Steve Lindenberg is still working in the kitchen, and he fills the bill O. K.

John Katz enjoys his smoke every day. He has not captured any snakes lately.

John Baker, of Co. H, paid us a visit yesterday.

Private William G. Hess and Harry Gwynn, of Co. H, 24th Reg. came over to see us often and inquire for the EVENING HERALD.

The following are on furlough duty to-day: James, Gibbons, James, Humes, Kissinger and Hessel.

Sergeant Gravin has had his picture taken. They are all after his now.

David Thomas visited Washington yesterday and had a good time.

Private Thomas Rose returned to camp last evening, his furlough having expired.

Butler's headquarters. He started in to-day. Our regimental hospital corps is to be done away with and Private Louis Hammer is to be returned to our company for duty.

Our army corps emblem is a four leaf clover. The color is red. It is of a felt nature and every man has been presented with one, which must be worn on the left side of the hat.

Services were conducted in the Y. M. C. A. hall Sunday morning by Rev. Deo, of Harrisburg, who preached a grand sermon to the boys.

Karl's Clover Root Tea is a pleasant laxative. Regulates the bowels, purifies the blood. Clears the complexion. Easy to make and pleasant to take. 25 cts. Sold by P. D. Kirila and a guarantee.

Red Steamer Delayed. The steamer chartered by the Associate Society of the Red Cross, has broken its propeller. This will delay its departure until Wednesday or Thursday of next week.

POLITICAL POINTS.

The Miners' Journal says the vote in the Republican conventions this year is much smaller than that of last year. In the county convention there will be 200 votes, or 100 necessary to a choice.

In the 30th Senatorial district convention there will be 147 votes, and 74 will be necessary to a choice. In the Legislature district conventions the vote will be as follows: First district, 40 votes, 20 necessary to a choice; Second district, 44 votes, necessary 22; Third district, 30 votes, necessary 15; Fourth district, 117 votes, necessary 59.

While the 30th Senatorial district has 147 votes, the 30th has only 113. All voters, according to law, must pay their own taxes to enable them to vote.

Senator Quay left yesterday after an interview with Dave Martin in Philadelphia, for a trip to Canada. He will return in two weeks to conclude the harmony deal.

Why Mr. Brunson should have been under the necessity of announcing in the newspapers his candidacy for the Congressional nomination, as he did this morning, is somewhat of a mystery.

No one ever believed Brunson would not be a candidate, for so long as the vote in the Republican ticket to be filled by him will not voluntarily retire from politics.—Evening Chronicle.

The Warden fight is still on. Levon holds the fort, ex-Warden Brewer is a down town boarder and Mrs. Brewer still holds the culinary department, but in a few days the affair will be settled.

The town to-day is filled with sports from all parts of the region anxious for the start of the Salmon-Rogers 100-yard foot race.

A stone fight among foreigners was a pay day incident at Gilberton yesterday. A widow of Dr. Bowman's drug store was smashed and several people were bruised and cut by the stones thrown.

William Rees, the boy who was run over by a coal train here yesterday morning, died at the Miners' hospital last evening.

Mrs. Thomas Ethington, wife of the inside foreman at the Tunnel Ridge colliery, died this morning after an illness of several weeks. She was 53 years old and is survived by her husband and eight children.

The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon, in interment at St. Clair.

John Johann and others interested in the Schuylkill Traction and Lakeside electric lines inspected them to-day.

P. P. Sweet, of New York, who sells ink and directories, left D. J. Thomas' hotel without settling for his board after breakfast last Thursday. He was arrested at Pottsville and settled by paying the bill and costs.

Fountain pens, from 25c to $2.50 at F. J. Portz's.

Sho Fears No Man. A man yelling for assistance started the neighborhood on West Coal street, between Jardin and Main, at about 11.30 o'clock last night. A lady seated in front of a saloon was approached by the individual referred to above who began to address her in a vile language. The woman retaliated by seizing a stick nearby and pounding him until he reached Jardin street, when he was lost in the darkness.

Tax on Judgment Sales. Prothonotary Dugan says that all judgment notes containing the power of attorney to confess judgment must have a 25 cent stamp affixed, and all notes of $100 or fractional part thereof must have a two cent stamp affixed, and an additional stamp must be affixed for each additional one hundred dollars.

Held for Trial. George Karata was arrested by Policemen Matz and Foyle last night for drunkenness and carrying concealed deadly weapons. He was put under $300 bail for trial at court.

Narrow Escape From Drowning. Yesterday afternoon Miss Bertha Veith, daughter of Supt. John Veith, of the P. & E. C. & L. Co., was at Tumbling Run, and in stepping from the platform to enter a boat the young lady stepped into the water eight feet deep. Not for timely assistance another drowning at that resort would have been recorded.
