

HAPPY LIVES.

Are Lives of Happy Living and thus 'tis Well that you Should Know How This Can be.

In Shenandoah there is many a happy home. Perhaps you know of some, or better still, it may be that you rest your head at night in one yourself. Then again, there is many an unhappy fellow creature in your midst. 'Tis not surprising that this should be the case, when one thinks of the burdens some backs are forced to bear. If yours is not the back that bears the burden still we think you would be glad to load a helping hand to lighten another. Let us show you how it can be done, and at the same time tell a story of Shiloh's life, that will prove this and can be easily given.

Mrs. Mary Kaulenbach, of 213 Emerick street, says: "I was very miserable from pains in my back accompanied by headaches and a terrible lameness over my kidneys. As I stooped there was sharp twinges of pain when I attempted to straighten up. I suffered from irregular action of the kidney secretions and had a sensation of weariness hanging about me all the time; I had become debilitated waiting on my husband during his last illness and as kidney disease caused the death of one of my parents I was very anxious to get cured. I became interested in Doan's Kidney Pills from reading the positive cures they had performed and I procured a box from Kirlin's drug store. I can now praise them as highly as others whose statements I read. On using them as directed they removed all the troubles and left me free from any annoyance from my kidneys. I conscientiously recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

LAST NIGHT OF THE WAR

Spaniards Made a Vigorous Defense in Porto Rico.

FURTHER FIGHTING PREVENTED

By Orders Received From Washington—Governor General Macias Ignored a Flag of Truce Sent by General Wilson.

Coamo, Porto Rico, Aug. 15.—General Wilson moved one Lancaster battery out to the front Friday afternoon for the purpose of shelling the Spanish position on the crest of the mountain at the head of the pass through which the road winds. The enemy occupied a position of great natural strength, protected by seven lines of entrenchments and a battery of two howitzers. The Spaniards were eager for the fray, and earlier in the day had fired upon Colonel Hiddle, of the engineer corps, who, with a platoon of Troop C, of New York, was reconnoitering on their right flank.

As our battery rounded a curve in the road 2,000 yards away the enemy opened an artillery and infantry fire. Four companies of the Third Wisconsin, which were posted on the bluffs to the right of the road, were not permitted to respond to the infantry fire. The guns advanced at a gallop in the face of a terrific fire, were unlimbered and were soon hurling common shell and shrapnel at the enemy at a lively rate, striking the emplacements, batteries and entrenchments with the rhythmic regularity of a trip hammer. The enemy soon abandoned one gun, but continued to serve the other at intervals for over an hour. They had our range, and their shrapnel burst repeatedly over our men. One shell burst, the fragments killing Corporal Swanson, of Company L, and seriously wounding Corporal Yanke and Private Stier, of Company F. Lee and Private Stier, of Company F, were wounded by Mauser bullets. In about two hours the enemy abandoned the other gun and began fleeing from the entrenchments toward a banana grove in the rear. Our guns shelled them as they ran.

One gun was now ordered to advance to a position a quarter of a mile further on. It had just reached the new position when Spanish infantry reinforcements filed into the trenches and fired down a deadly fire upon our men, compelling the battery to retreat at a gallop. Then both the enemy's howitzers reopened and shrapnel screamed and Mausers sang. Another gun galloped from the rear, but our ammunition was exhausted. Lieutenant Haines was shot in the body by a Mauser just before his gun retired, the ball following a rib.

The orders issued for two companies to advance were countermanded and the firing soon ceased. Colonel Bliss, of General Wilson's staff, went forward to the enemy's line with a flag of truce and explained that peace negotiations were almost concluded and that their position was untenable and demanded their surrender. The Spaniards have no communication with the outside world and the commander asked until Saturday morning in order that he might compare the terms with Governor General Macias at San Juan.

General Wilson and his staff viewed Friday's action from a hill at the right of the battery. The enemy's guns were fired from a high elevation with low velocity. The Spaniards had the ranges as accurately as they had at Santiago. Their position from the front was almost impregnable. Estimates of the strength of the enemy range from 500 to 1,000. Their position was five miles from Alibonito.

"The American general if he desires no further shedding of blood to remain where he is," this was the reply that the Spanish commander, Colonel Nuevitas, sent on Saturday morning to General Wilson's demand for the surrender of Alibonito.

A fight certainly has occurred, but our orders received from Washington on Saturday noon. The orders to advance issued to General Ernst's brigade were countermanded upon receipt of the president's order to suspend hostilities.

General Wilson sent a party with a flag of truce to notify the Spaniards of the suspension of hostilities, but the flag was not respected. This was by order of Governor General Macias. As General Macias has no communication with Madrid he may thus cut himself off from official notification of the situation, although natives have been sent through the Spanish lines to spread the news that a cessation of hostilities had been ordered.

The soldiers of the American army eagerly resolve the news of peace with a light although some are disappointed that there is to be no further fighting and many officers express regret at the suspension of hostilities in the midst of the campaign.

The peace news has stopped all forward movement of the American army in Porto Rico. General Corbin, at Coamo, and General Schwan, at Mayaguez, will remain at those places. General Henry, who is at Utado, will return to Adpatas, and General Brooke, who has advanced beyond Guayama, will return to that town. General Miles expects to do nothing pending the arrival at San Juan of the peace commissioners.

For broken surfaces, sores, insect bites, burns, skin diseases and especially piles there is one reliable remedy, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. When you call for DeWitt's Salve, be sure you get the right one. It will not be disappointed with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. C. H. Hagenbach.

JOHN VAN DENBURGH,

Milwaukee, Prominent for his Scholarly Contributions to Leading Magazines.

SUDDEN DEATHS from heart disease are frequent. Not a day passes but the daily press records the death of some well known citizen, cruelly shocking the community because it was unexpected. The victims friends thinking of him as in the enjoyment of perfect health. Yet death from heart disease is never without many warnings, given at frequent intervals in many cases for years. The trouble is the victims do not heed the warnings. The first indication or symptom of heart disease, although unmistakable, are so slight and the change to the next stage so gradual that they are scarcely noticeable, and even when once fully realized, one does not wish to alarm one's friends, and the suffering is borne in silence until stricken down. Not so with John Van Denburgh, of 3701 Mt. Vernon ave., Milwaukee, who writes under date of August 7 1896:

"For a number years I was a sufferer from neuralgia of the heart which became so severe that I was incapable of ordinary exercise. It commenced some years ago with darting pains from the region of the heart extending to left arm. These attacks grew more frequent and severe until, when attacked with one of these, if I did not stop immediately, I would fall to the ground. If I became excited or over-exerted myself in any way physically or mentally it produced spasms of the heart, and I would have to stop right in my tracks until the spell passed off. I had to sit up in bed at night for hours at a time on account of suffocating spells, and was incapable of taking proper exercise without the physical exhaustion. I was told by Dr. Miles' Heart Cure by contractor B. R. Hutchinson, of 71 18th street, whose son Clarence was cured by this wonderful remedy and I commenced taking it at once. Since using it I have been entirely relieved of these spasms and am now taking half-mile walks each day with much comfort."

One person in four has a weak or diseased heart. The deflection may be very slight at first, but disease unchecked never grows better of itself. Its course is always from bad to worse. The first symptoms neglected, disease soon becomes chronic. There is certain relief from heart pains, from shortness of breath, smothering, choking sensations, hungry weak spells, etc., in Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

This remarkable result of Dr. Miles' long research in treating heart and nervous diseases, has established itself as the one sure and certain cure for a weak or diseased heart.

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on heart and nerves sent free to all applicants by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

THE SORROWS OF SPAIN

Madrid Newspapers Discuss the Peace Conditions.

THE CHORUS OF OBJECTIONS.

Political Opponents of Sagasta's Government Find Fault With the Various Protocols and See Little of Hope For the Government of Spain.

Madrid, Aug. 15.—The city was patrolled by police last night, but perfect tranquility prevails. The publication of the protocol produced keen disappointment so far as where it refers to the Philippines, where it had been hoped Spain would preserve her sovereignty intact. Clause III of the protocol dispels this illusion. Echoing public feeling, the independent and opposition papers bitterly criticize the clause as affording pretext for curtailing Spanish sovereignty in an archipelago where control or interference of a foreign power would make the natives ungovernable.

El Heraldito wants to know how America proposes to make the Cuban and Philippine insurgents submit to a suspension of hostilities and keep them in leash until evacuation by the Spanish is completed.

El Nacional says: "We would rather lose the Philippines altogether than submit to American tutelage." The other papers discuss the probability of the abolition of the colonial office, declaring that the total loss of the Philippines would be preferable to American partnership or control.

El Imparcial, El Liberal and El Heraldito find fault with clause four because it limits the action of the inked commission to the West Indies, in reference to the details of evacuation, whereas most Spaniards expected that most of them would be decided upon before the sailing of the commissions.

All the adversaries of the present cabinet find fault with the protocol, because the fifth clause allows until October for the meeting of the peace commission, and stipulates that when a definite treaty is concluded it shall be ratified according to the constitutional rules of each country, thus furnishing Sagasta with a plausible pretext for adjourning the convocation of the cortes until he has a treaty of peace to put before them.

El Correo ministerial suggests that American herself, from motives of internal policy or international consideration, has not yet formed a definite conclusion on the Philippine question.

El Liberal says the article in the protocol relating to the Philippines does not indicate anything good for Spain will be fixed upon, and the question will not be settled favorably for her.

El Globo (ministerial) pines for peace between Spain and the United States, and says the communications on eastern questions which Day and Cambon have signed begin the first chapter in a new history of Europe.

El Tiempo (Conservative) says: "Peace is an accomplished fact. The bitterness of defeat does not prevent us from seeing with satisfaction the early end of the present war."

El Epoca says: "The peace is the saddest imposed since the treaty of Utrecht," and expresses doubt "if a government which has allowed itself to be dragged into war will acquit itself well by negotiating peace."

Public opinion attaches great importance to the Spanish commission in Paris making a resolute stand in defense of Spain's territorial rights in the Philippines. The government, therefore, wants to send a strong, competent body of delegates.

The governors general of Cuba and Porto Rico have acknowledged the receipt of the news of the suspension of hostilities between the United States and Spain and announced the carrying out of the orders.

General Blanco's telegrams that Havana is greatly agitated by the news of the signing of the protocol, and that much anxiety is manifested to learn the conditions, which have not yet been published. Some uneasiness is felt regarding the effect that the text of the protocol may have on the Spanish volunteers in Havana. Many newspapers express grief and despair that the men who brought disaster on Spain by lack of foresight, organization and ability should continue to govern the country.

Fatality Ends a Pleasure Trip. Boston, Aug. 15.—The steeple yacht Leona, with 17 men aboard, while anchored outside of Boston light, was run into by a barge in tow of the tug Housley, and five men were swept from the deck by the heavy towline. Two of the number, C. W. Sellman and Albert Nordell, were drowned, another, Augustus Casperson, was killed by being jammed between the towline and the deck, while the two others were rescued. The Leona left City Point late Saturday night with a fishing party from Cambridge and about 2 o'clock Sunday morning cast anchor. It was just after this that the accident occurred.

A RIVAL TO THE KLONDIKE.

Another Gold Discovery Which Has Created a Wild Rush.

Juneau, Alaska, Aug. 15.—What is regarded as a most important discovery of rich placer diggings has been reported to have been made in Pine Creek, a small stream emptying into Atlin Lake, a feeder of Lake Tazeh. The discovery is located in the northwest territory, Canada.

The news has caused a great stampede from Juneau and other northern eastern Alaskan points, and it is estimated that at least 1,000 prospectors have started for the locality. As reported here, the find was made two years ago by George Miller, of this city, about the time the Klondike was made. Miller allowed his discovery to remain dormant and went to the Klondike. Last June he returned, and taking a few friends into his confidence revisited the place and staked out claims. Walker Carter, who has just returned from here from the diggings, says:

"I saw four men shovel in 26 ounces in two days, one man from bedrock containing $1. Pine Creek is about 15 miles long and will average 70 feet in width. The current is very rapid. The diggings are what is known as 'bar diggings,' or summer placers. Diggings from 20 to 150 ounces. When I left 32 claims had been located, and the balance of the creek is reserved by the Canadian government."

The news has caused great excitement in Juneau, and every boat leaving here is crowded with prospectors. The gold brought in from the new diggings is like that from the Klondike, very coarse, but is said to be worth $2 an ounce more.

In older times mistaken enthusiasts used to inflict upon themselves all manner of painful and horrible tortures. Men scourged themselves with whips and hot irons, and rubbed vinegar into their wounds. They would not rest until their skin day and night. Nowadays such cruel torture is discontinued. Nevertheless, men and women go on uncleanly purging themselves, only in a different and more serious manner than of old. They neglect their health, and neglected health means physical torture of the most painful description. It means slow starvation. Because a man forces food into a weak and impaired stomach it does not follow that he feeds his body. The life-giving elements of the food taken into an impaired stomach are not assimilated into the blood. Instead, the impurities of the sluggish liver and bowels are taken up by the blood. The consequence is that the body is not only starved but poisoned. The immediate result is physical suffering from which the old time ecclat would have drawn back in horror. The final result is disease and death. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a scientific remedy that acts according to natural laws. It is not a violent spur to nature or a mere artificial appetizer. It gently, but surely and permanently, promotes the natural processes of secretion and excretion. It creates appetite, makes the assimilation of the food perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It builds up air, muscular flesh. It cures nervous exhaustion, debility, sleeplessness and all the evils that follow in their train. The life-giving elements of the food taken into an impaired stomach are not assimilated into the blood. Instead, the impurities of the sluggish liver and bowels are taken up by the blood. The consequence is that the body is not only starved but poisoned. The immediate result is physical suffering from which the old time ecclat would have drawn back in horror. The final result is disease and death. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a scientific remedy that acts according to natural laws. It is not a violent spur to nature or a mere artificial appetizer. It gently, but surely and permanently, promotes the natural processes of secretion and excretion. It creates appetite, makes the assimilation of the food perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It builds up air, muscular flesh. It cures nervous exhaustion, debility, sleeplessness and all the evils that follow in their train.
