A LETTER FROM VAN WERT

He Answers the "Seen and Heard" Article in Doyle's Daily of Friday.

EDWIN EVERTS HERBERT. Dear Sir:—Through a friend in Shenandoah, and I have reason to believe that I have many of them there, I have received a copy of the article which appeared in M. E. Doyle's Daily on Friday evening, August 12th.

Mr. Doyle has never had any occasion for treating me thus in the columns of his paper, but from his grand production concerning my whereabouts, which I have never endeavored to conceal, I take it that he believes me a fraud and not capable of teaching shorthand.

I am pleased to learn that Shenandoah has a person with the protective disposition that the "Seen and Heard" man knows that I do not understand the first principles connected with photography?

It is true that Van conducted a daily paper in Bangor, Pa., and it is also true that the daily did not pay, and it was discontinued.

Charles Edwards, a negro prisoner, hanged himself in the Washington county jail.
