TWO LONELY RECRUITS GO.

No More Infantry Men Will Be Sent From Town. ARTILLERY RECRUITS ARE SCARCE. Many Applicants Rejected—The Recruiting Officer Goes to Philadelphia to Report—The Local Statutes May Close To-Night. Hazleton Next Place.

The recruiting of men in town for service in Uncle Sam's Army is on the wane since the enlisting of recruits for the infantry has been discontinued and only applications for the heavy artillery are received. Many of the men who were willing to go into the infantry hesitate in making application for admission to the artillery because they do not exactly understand the difference between the two services. But this is not the sole cause for the falling off. Most of the men who applied yesterday for admission as recruits in the artillery were rejected, owing to deficiency as to educational qualifications. All applicants must be able to speak the English language fluently, read and write and have a knowledge of arithmetic. At the present time there do not appear to be a superfluity of applicants with these qualifications.

None of the artillery recruits will leave before to-morrow. They will go direct to Fortress Monroe, Va. It is not known how many will go. Eight have been sworn in and six are awaiting final examination. Eight men were rejected this morning because they did not stand up to the educational qualifications. Lieut. Siviter, the recruiting officer, left for Philadelphia this morning under instructions by telegram to report in person at headquarters. He will return this evening and it is quite likely that he will prepare to move. It is possible that the squad of artillery recruits to leave to-morrow will be the last to be sent from the station. At least this was the Lieutenant's impression before he left. When the station here is closed one will be opened at Hazleton, but for artillery recruits only.

Striking Pay Dirt. The following clipping from a Butte City, Montana, newspaper, has reference to Charles Thaler, a former resident of town and brother of Mrs. James Hutton, of West Lloyd street: "The ground around the old Chondren smelter has been leased by Charles Thaler, recently of Nubart, and the results of his work are quite satisfactory. He has found considerable pay in the old slag dump, finding a great deal of pure bullion lead and silver. He will be through with the work in about six weeks, and will ship six or eight cars of the gleanings. He employs four men. He is digging up the surface earth about the old roasting furnaces with good remunerative results." Scarp Injured. Charles Smalevski, of Wm. Penn, sustained severe laceration of the scalp by a fall of rock in the Wm. Penn mine yesterday. He was able to walk home with assistance.
