Three specters that threaten baby's life: Cholera infantum, dysentery, diarrhoea. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry never fails to conquer them.

Coal Trade Improving.

There is said to be a decided and continued improvement in the anthracite coal trade. New orders are being received daily, and there seems to be a disposition on the part of the dealers to purchase coal at this time, as the belief is growing that there will be an advance from present figures at the beginning of next month. A letter received from a Philadelphia coal agent says there will be a marked improvement in the trade for September and October. The bituminous coal trade is in somewhat of a chaotic condition and prices are low. It is stated that a number of the large operators are laying in orders for fuel delivery, as there is considerable talk of adopting an agreement for the restriction of the output and the advancement and maintaining of prices.

TO PUSH THE CASES.

Executions to be Issued in Several Notorious Cases.

Application has been made to Justice Tompkins for executions in the suits instituted some time ago against several property owners for contributing to a sewerage outfall on West Centre street. The Justice gave judgment in favor of the borough for the fines and costs, but since that time Chief Burgess Tabor and Health Officer Conroy have been trying to have an amicable settlement made between all the parties concerned. In this they failed and the process for collection is now asked for. As a separate execution must be issued in each of the twenty-eight cases the costs will be considerably increased and it will take the Justice two or three days to get the latch in shape.
