MINE ACCIDENTS.

Several Serious Accidents That Occurred About the Mines To-day.

A shocking accident occurred at the Bast colliery, near Ashland, shortly after starting time this morning. The victim is August Fiddler, aged 16 years, who resides at Germantown, near that place. He was employed in the breaker and while performing his duties, came in contact with the cog wheels and was drawn in. His right arm was terribly lacerated and amputation at the shoulder will be necessary. The entire right side of the body was also lacerated and 8 00 bruised

BOY CRUSHED TO DEATH.

His Body Found in Jigger Machinery at Buck Mountain.

John R. Morgan, 15 year old son of William Morgan, of Buck Mountain, and employed as a state picker at the Buck Mountain col-liery, met death in the breaker at eleven clock this morning.

As extra duty the boy watched one of the jiggers. While thus engaged this morning he he was joking with others em-ployed about the place. A few-minutes later one of the employes who was some distance away turned to see what Morgan was doing and discovered that the boy was not at his place. A search re-vealed his lifeless form in the jigs. How the accident happened no one knows. The body was found fast beneath a wheel of the jigs.

ALMSHOUSE TROUBLES.

With Bribery.

Yesterday afternoon Gardon Reed, Schuylkill Haven, and Issac Hay, of the ame town, were arrested, charged with bribery. Mr. Reed was steward at the almshouse in 1897, and is at present a caudidate for the Republican Legislative nomination in As we have only a few more left and always believe in house at the slinshouse. Both men furnished bail in the sum of $500 and waived a hearing. The warrant was sworn out on Wednesday before Justice Toomey by Detective John J. Toole. The information charges Reed and Poor, in 1897 and 1898. It was stated last evening that, if the two men had stood for a bearing, Ehrensfield and Dietrich would have been the witnesses. It is said these arhave been the witnesses. It is said these arrests will again open up all the old almshouse scandals. It is not known who Detective Toole represents.
