Surely with this ahead of the producers they ought to make every effort to hold prices at the list and not let them drift away therefrom at any time during the remainder of the year 1898.

Neither the Anthracite Association or the A. C. O. A. has yet developed anything which will tend to the benefit of this important industry, the interests of which they are supposed to have at heart. The first is fighting under the old idea that some good can come to this interest on the interest of this interest of the commerce act, while the interest of commerce act, while the latter is only interested so far as fighting for a greater percentage of the tide water price is concerned.

The Anthracite industry must grow at places short of tide, where the present rates obtained are seemingly high as compared with other commodities. If the financial interests will look into this matter they will readily see a market for more coal, and that at places on lines where tally and that at places on lines where tally are also interested as common carriers. On some of these lines the trade is insignificant because the trade is looking up a little. There is some reason for rejoicing in the fact that inquiries have improved quite unterially within the past few days. They do not amount to a general desire to buy coal, but they at least indicate that every one has not yet bought at little continue and that some trade remains for the fall. A large tonnage, but prices not much higher, seems to be the outlook for Bituminous coal in this market. Concerning the large tonnage there can be little doubt. Other lines of industry are experiencing the same conditions that prevail in coal, namely a large tontinge but very close prices.

Seaboard soft coal trade continues to be reported as in quiet condition. particularly so far as the New England branch is concerned and prices are low eyen for good quality coal. It is expected that with the release of many of the auxiliary floet which has beer ricke government service, they will once more get into commercial lines and that there will be an increased business done in this direction. This will call for the consumption of Bituminous coal beyond what has been the case for this purpose during the past four months. For some reason or other the producers of Bituminous coal in a certain district of West Virginia deny that they are filling contracts for the account of the Pittsburg operators and the latter seem to acquiesce in the statement. In any event, there is considerable coal that is produced at mines along the lines of the three roads in West Virginia, and on the Kanawha river, that is going beyond the state to fill trade, which was had 21, and will be good for return passage leavlast year, and something new that has ing Indianapolis August 23 to 30. bear Sir :—Sometime ago Council appropriated the sum of twenty thousand $20,000) is dollars to be used in improving our streets or to provide means of giving us a better supply of water. The right of Council to so expend the family derived from general taxes for water purposes has been questioned. By virtue of the authority voted by the people of this borough we now assess a tax of five mills for water purposes, the same being reserved for the payment of interest on the water bonds and a certain specified part of the principal each year. We also have a certain and fixed water rate collected by the Water Superintendent and by means of which we meet the actual running expenses of the plant. The Water Committee have recommended the building of a storage reservoir to be day quantity of water sufficient to carry us over the dry season of each year and prevent a shortage; but the right of Council to to so expend the funds appropriated by them has been disputed and we now call upon you to decide for us in a written opinion whether we have not the same right to use these funds for the improvement of our water system as we have for the improvement of our streets.

Rattle-make poison is a good deal quicker than bile poison but the latter will do just as deadly work if it keeps on accumulating in the system. Probably two-thirds of the cases that end in consumption begin with "liver complaint" and indigestion. These troubles would never get as far as consumption if Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was used before the bile poisoning got fairly under way. This remarkable "Discovery" invigorates the torpid liver and gives it power to filler the poisons out of the system rapidly and thoroughly.
