> Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 26.—The defense in the Wireback murder trial occupied yesterday with the examination of expert witnesses, whose testimony was sponsible at the time of the commission of the crime, and had been so for menths prior thereto. Among the dis-tingulahed adjentsts examined were Dr. C. K. Mills, of Philadelphia: J. Z. Gerhard, of the insune asylum at Harrisburg; Theodore Diller, of Pittsburg, together with a number of local physiclans, who testified their opinion that Wireback was the victim of delusional insanity. The commonwealth opened in rebuttal by calling a number of witnesses who had business dealings with the prisoner for many years, and had never detected any signs of mental unsoundness in his conduct or conversation. It is expected that the case will be given to the jury today.
