CHARGES BAD FAITH.

Cuban Leader Declares That General Shafter Violated a Pledge Made to General Garcia.

New York, Aug. 24.—Brigadier General Joaquin Castillo, who accompanied General Shafter to Cuba as a representative of the Cuban army and the Cuban civil government, has just returned to this city. He was at the Cuban junta here yesterday, and when asked as to the charges against General Shafter and the Cuban army, he said that the matter had been grossly exaggerated, and that so far as the Cubans are concerned they have the utmost faith in the American government and are confident that the pledges made in their behalf will be carried out. "While deeply grateful," he said, "for what the Americans have done for us, we are desirous of disproving the charges that have been brought against us as a people. Personally I must say that General Shafter has always treated me with the greatest courtesy. His misunderstanding with General Garcia was occasioned by the fact that specified promises had been made to the latter which General Shafter either would not or could not carry out. Before the American forces landed General Shafter and Admiral Sampson met General Garcia at Amersfoort for a conference, at which I was present. General Shafter there, of his own accord, promised Garcia that on the surrender of the city it would be turned over to him. So late as the day before the surrender General Shafter told me that the Spanish prisoners would be marched out of the city and the Cubans would be allowed to enter."

An Enjoyable Evening.

School Teacher Elected.

The School Board of Mahanoy City met last evening in special session to elect a successor to Miss Minnie Dipper, who resigned as a teacher of grammar school No. 2. There was a spirited contest for the position between ex-Postmaster T. C. O'Connor and Miss Rebecca Linton, and the latter was successful by a close vote.

OVERBEARING GARCIA

His Arbitrary Demands on the Merchants of Gibara.

REPORT THAT HE HAS RESIGNED.

The Commander of the United States Gunboat Nashville gave notice that he would not allow the inhabitants to be ill treated.

Havana, Aug. 24.—The Spanish cruiser Infanta Isabel left Havana on the 19th inst. and arrived in the vicinity of Gibara on the 19th. Before entering the port she hoisted a flag of truce. The United States gunboat Nashville, which was in port, inquired if she carried documents for the American ship. The Infanta Isabel answered in the negative, and signified that the peace protocol had been signed. The news was received aboard the Nashville enthusiastically, the crew cheering and shouting. The Infanta Isabel's crew responded with vivas for the King. When the Infanta Isabel entered the port an American officer boarded her and informed her commander that the town was in the hands of General Calixto Garcia.

At 5 o'clock on the morning of the 17th inst. a number of Spanish and American officers went ashore together. They were met at the landing by Colonel Alfredo Arango, General Garcia's adjutant, who with three men escorted them to Auras, where the insurgent escort remained, while the American and Spanish officers proceeded to Aguas Claras to deliver documents to General Luque.

At 3 a. m. on Aug. 18 there arrived at Gibara from Key West an American transport, with provisions for the American troops.

General Luque, upon abandoning Gibara, proceeded with his troops by way of Mayari to Holguin.

It is reported that General Calixto Garcia, after entering Gibara, assaulted the custom-house administrator, slapping his face, and afterward ordered a negro to beat him with a machete. It is also said that General Garcia demanded money from the Gibara merchants. The merchants refused to comply with the demand, whereupon he ordered that they should pay double the amount of his first exaction. General Garcia also ordered the arrest of over 100 Spanish residents who were liberated before the arrival of the Infanta Isabel. The commander of the Nashville said he had no troops ashore, but that he would not allow the inhabitants to be ill treated.

It is reported that General Garcia resigned on the 19th inst., and that his command was taken over by the leader, Luis Perdomo. A person who is in a position to be well informed says he believes the report, but insurgent sympathizers deny it. Lack of means of communication prevents an authoritative confirmation or denial of the report being obtained.

Advises from the authorities at Nueva Paz and neighboring places have been published in Havana local papers denying the reports of recent outrages.

A band of insurgents under General Alejandro Riera a flag of truce, recently entered the towns of Pinar and Puerto Golpe to obtain supplies. They paid for what they bought and retired in an orderly manner.

Monday the troops at Mariano detained an insurgent sergeant named Robustiano Maquela, but later set him at liberty, under orders from General Blanco.

General Blanco has ordered the liberation of 144 prisoners, of both sexes, from the Isle of Pines.

There was a rumor on the streets today that a special meeting of Council would be held this evening to take further action in the matter, but up to the time of going to press no cards had been issued, and there will probably be no meeting until after the action of the taxpayers is known. The members of the Borough Council should encourage, rather than hinder public expression on the question. There is no better way of securing the sentiments of their constituents (taxpayers) are elected to legislate in the interest of the people at large, and if the taxpayers favor the erection of an additional storage reservoir, to cost probably not less than $50,000, Council will not only be justified in proceeding with the work, but in forcing its completion as soon as possible.

On the other hand, should the men who pay the taxes and bear the burden of the local government, deem it unwise expenditure to Councilmen will be justified in voting to proceed further with the work. It will not do to say that a few malcontents or men with "axes to grind" are at the head of the movement to oppose the construction of the dam, for such is not the case. Some of the most public-spirited citizens, who are warm friends of the borough works, are the prime movers, and the meeting to-morrow evening will no doubt develop this fact. It is not a question as to the desires of the individual members of Council, but rather what are the wishes of the taxpayers.

It is to be hoped that there will be a large turnout at the meeting to-morrow evening, and that those present will come prepared to give public expression to their views on the subject. Should that expression be unfavorable to the erection of the dam, the members of Council, in justice to themselves and the people they represent, can do nothing else but rescind their former action. To refuse to do that would place them in a position which we are confident none of them would encourage.

Bear in mind that the public meeting will be held to-morrow night, at 8 o'clock, in Robbins' opera house, and let there be a full and free discussion.

DIED AT THE HOSPITAL.

Patrick Scully, of Girardville, Died From Injuries Received.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

Girardville, Aug. 24.—This morning Patrick Scully, a former resident of this place but now located at Philadelphia, died at the Miners' hospital at Fountain Springs, from injuries received during a quarrel with George Quinn at Girardville on Saturday night.

Scully is 30 years old and was formerly a resident of this place. He has a sister residing here who has been going with young Quinn, and Scully objected to the intimacy and warned the young man to desist in his attentions. He saw them together Saturday evening, and in a war of words Scully struck Quinn and knocked him down. Later in the evening the men met and the quarrel renewed, resulting in Quinn striking Scully on the temple with a large rock. The latter fell unconscious, and from the effects of this wound he died this morning.

Quinn is 30 years old, and was arrested shortly after the fracas, and placed in jail without bail. He will now have to answer to the charge of murder.

There is another story which has just been made public as to the cause of the trouble. It is said Scully and Quinn visited Shamokin some time ago, and while there the former got into trouble and a Shamokin man went his bail. The latter received an anonymous letter from Philadelphia saying that Scully was not behaving himself and was likely to jump his bail. Scully charged Quinn with writing the letter and demanded that he write another letter in order to compare the handwriting. The two men and Miss Scully agreed to meet at Ashland Saturday night for that purpose, but Quinn was the only one to put in an appearance, and meeting Miss Scully and her brother later chided them about not keeping their appointment. The result was a quarrel and Scully receiving the fatal blow on the head.

THE PUBLIC MEETING.

It Will be Held To-morrow Evening in Robbins' Opera House.

Circulars have been issued calling for a meeting of the taxpayers of the borough to be held in Robbins' opera house to-morrow evening, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of taking action on the proposed reservoir to be erected at the pumping station at Brandonville. The question has been discussed pretty thoroughly since the last meeting of Council, when it was decided to build the reservoir on "force account," the capacity to be 30,000,000 gallons.

There was a rumor on the streets today that a special meeting of Council would be held this evening to take further action in the matter, but up to the time of going to press no cards had been issued, and there will probably be no meeting until after the action of the taxpayers is known. The members of the Borough Council should encourage, rather than hinder public expression on the question. CAMP ALGER; PORTO RICO

Two Interesting Letters From Shenandoah Boys in Camp.

SHENANDOAH BOYS TO GO TO CUBA.

It is Likely That the Eleventh Regiment Will Not be Mustered Out But Will be Detailed For Garrison Duty.

News From Porto Rico.

Dunn Loring, Aug. 23.—From present indications we are to go to Cuba some time in the fall. If the boys have a chance to volunteer on this there will be none that will not go; some on account of business reasons and others because they were disappointed and could not go to the front. This brigade, consisting of the 8th, 12th and 13th Regiments, is recommended for garrison and guard duty, and I am led to believe will be selected for garrison duty. I do not think they will give the boys a chance to say yes, or no. There would be too many who would refuse. There is not much chance of us moving from here soon, as the lumber for tent foot and care of time to be used around the camp. Our boys are losing hope of ever getting to Middletown.

The show company has taken its tent down and left for pastures new. They did not do much business lately.

Quite a number of patients at the division hospital have received a furlough of 30 days to give them a chance to recuperate at their homes.

Mr. Weeks, who was connected with the Y. M. C. A. tent here, delivered his farewell address Sunday evening. He left for his home in Harrisburg yesterday morning. He was liked by all the boys.

Private Howard Reichelderfer had the honor of being selected as one of the orderlies for the Colonel on Sunday morning. This is the first for Co. F since we have been in Virginia. Get a move on, boys, and see if we cannot have another soon.

Capt. Danks had charge of the battalion yesterday morning, in Major Holmes' place. There are several foot ball teams in our regiment now and we have a game almost every evening.

Baker James Manley is here awaiting orders.

Our cook, George, is certainly a fine singer and the boys like to hear him.

Private Grant Troutman was on guard yesterday.

Corporal Louis Hopkins visited one of the villages near here and attended church and Sunday school.

John Baker is afraid we will be mustered out before our two years are up. Don't worry, John, this will not occur.

Private William Manley says he is ready for Havana at any time.

Bennie Jenkins, formerly of Turkey Run and a member of Co. E, is as happy as a bird, no matter when you see him.

Harry Gwynn, of H Co., 13th Regt., has had the honor of being ordered twice since we have been here.

Private William D. Williams takes great delight in reading.

Private George Scheilly, of B Co., enjoys his smoke and you seldom see him without it.

Privates Lindenmuth and Fogel occupy the same tent.

For one we get a good cigar, for two a good coconut and for three a half mango. We get a dozen sweet corn for a dozen hard-tacks. If we had money we would get two Spanish dollars for an American one. But you see, we have not, and don't know when we will get any. We are as well off without it. They say there are 16,000 Spanish soldiers on this island, but we have failed to see them yet. Yesterday afternoon the 4th Ohio and 3rd Illinois went up the ocean from here about four miles and had a hot scrap with the Spanish. They killed four Spaniards and five of our people were wounded, but not badly. The Spaniards are poor marksmen. Last night our regiment was taken up there, and it is there yet. We had to stay in camp with only two companies guard. I wanted our captain to take me along, but he said he wanted the two cooks to stay and guard the tents and sleep in his tent; so when he came back I am going to quit cooking and take my gun. If he don't like it he can send me home. I won't be a cook soldier and stay back. Our colonel told me when he was down to camp that our company would be back for supper. It is now nine o'clock here and ten o'clock at home, but I don't care to go company yet. The latrine (Cincinnati) is about two miles off the camp and about a quarter of a mile out in the ocean, throwing his search light all around, hunting and trying to locate the Spaniards. When she strikes our camp it is as light as day. They have only thrown it on the camp once, but I guess they didn't know we were lying here, or they would not have turned it on us. That would be bad for us if the Spaniards are up in the hills, for we are just between the mountains and the battleship. She keeps the light on the town above us, and up and down the ocean, and over the mountains. The people here are very dark and don't know anything but Spanish and Porto Rican. There are some few half Spanish people here. You ought to see their one-story houses. But talk about handsome yards, plants, cactus trees and streets. We have large cactus plants in our tents in camp. There are five bottlesville boys in the hospital here, but half of it is laziness and cowardice. They are no more sick than I am. Just think of it! We are cut off from the world! There is no telegraph or cable here, and the only way to communicate is the way I am doing and wait for some ship to come and take it. This is the first time I have ever been cut off from the world. There was a sad occurrence when we landed here. A young man from Lancaster and a member of our regiment was attacked by fever. He was sick all the way during the voyage and died five hours before we landed. They waited until we had landed and the funeral took place on shore as they call it. They marched up the beach about 200 yards, then waded out and dug a hole down under water, about two feet for a grave. One of the men of our company, while wading, pulled up his gun and shot a cow. The bullet entered at the cow's nose, passed through into its shoulder, clean through its body, out at the rump and through the tail, making six holes in all. We are going out on picket duty to-night for twenty-four hours. The Spaniards are in the hills and we expect an attack at any time. The regulars are coming down from Miles' camp until we go to take the city of San Juan.

PORTO RICO LETTER.

A Communication Delayed, But None the Less Interesting.

The HERALD to-day gives to its readers a letter from a townsmen in the volunteer service in Porto Rico. While the protocol serves to rob the communication of the freshness which would otherwise attach to it, nevertheless it will no doubt prove interesting reading to many. It is written by Meade Peters, for several years a caterer in town, and whose wife and son still continue to live here. Mr. Peters enlisted in Co. F, 4th Regt., P. V., U. S. A. The letter is dated Aug. 6th, but it was several days later before the writer succeeded in getting it in the mails and the post mark is "Brooklyn, Aug. 20th." The letter then passed into the hands of a relative, and was then given for publication. It is as follows:

"I suppose you think I am lost, but I am not. The reason I did not write before is that I was busy cooking on board ship for the company, and every time I started to write there would be some body wanting something, so I thought I would wait until we got home (Guayama, Porto Rico) and then I would write you. I am in excellent health and did not have a sick minute while on the ship. Almost every one was awfully seasick. We had an awful storm at sea the first night. We had our cabin windows out and it was a beautiful moonlight night. Just as we got outside of the bay and on to the Atlantic Ocean the storm struck us. The huge ship, the Seneca, commenced to rock and pitch and the rain and waves rushed in on our hammocks. By the time we had our windows shut down we were wet through. I have not seen a sick day since I left 'Home, Sweet Home.' Every once in a while we hear a boy sing it, but soon gets shut up. This is a queer place. Everything is so funny, but the air is so good! I don't think it has been hotter than 80 in the sun. The fruit is grand. We have coconut trees in camp and there are from 10 to 40 coconuts on each tree. We get every day. Then there are bananas, lemons and a fruit the natives call mangos. Cantaloupes are fine and the lemons and times nice. Sugar is issued every day and we have lemonade every night, and sometimes all day, for the cooks. There is plenty corn. The natives eat corn also. When the ship unloads the hard tack a box is dropped on purpose, and then you should see the natives go for them. They are just crazy after them. We can get anything for hard-
