THE PEACE COMMISSION

Whitelaw Reid and Justice White Complete the List.

WHAT THEY WILL DEMAND. Spain Must Cede Luzon Island to Our Government.

DEMANDS WILL BE IMPERATIVE. Spain's Commissioners Will Be Notified That Discussion Will Only Be a Waste of Time.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Secretary Day, upon leaving the cabinet meeting yesterday afternoon, announced that Whitelaw Reid and Associate Justice White had been selected as peace commissioners. The full commission, therefore, is as follows: Secretary of State Day, Senator C. K. Davis, of Minnesota; Senator William P. Frye, of Maine; Whitelaw Reid, of New York; Edward D. White, of Louisiana.

The following attaches of the peace commission have been selected and will be appointed by the president: John Moore, of Massachusetts, now assistant secretary of state, to be secretary of the commission, and J. R. MacArthur, of New York, to be assistant secretary. The secretary has already shipped to Canton a number of his personal effects, in anticipation of his early retirement from the state department.

Assistant Secretary Moore last night admitted his selection as secretary of the commission. He said he had not decided when he would resign his post as assistant secretary of state, but that it probably would be within a fortnight. He had a long conference with the president yesterday afternoon, at which some of the plans of the commission were discussed.

The personnel of the American commission is regarded as particularly strong among public men. The views of all the commissioners are pretty well known. Secretary Day does not favor the United States holding all the Philippines.

Mr. Reid, judging from the editorials in his paper, considers it impossible for Spain to exercise control of any portion of the Philippines, and thinks that the interests would be better subserved by the United States maintaining control over the entire group.

Secretary Day does not favor the United States holding all the Philippines. He would be satisfied with Mexico and Manila bay. Senator Frye would be satisfied with Luzon Island.

Mr. Reid, judging from the editorials in his paper, considers it impossible for Spain to exercise control of any portion of the Philippines, and thinks that the interests would be better subserved by the United States maintaining control over the entire group.

It is believed the commissioners will make a straightforward demand for the Luzon Island, in accordance with suggestions supposed to have been received from Admiral Dewey. Their demands will be stated briefly, but in emphatic terms.

The American commissioners apparently are not going to Paris to demand the entire group of the Philippine Islands, but to contend only for the occupation of Luzon Island. This was strongly developed at a conference at the White House between the president, Secretary Day and Senators Davis and Frye, a majority of the members of the commission.

ROUGH RIDER RETURNS.

Pennsylvania's Only Representative Arrived in Town Last Night.

Headed by the Patriotic drum corps, a delegation of the Sons of Veterans and a large assemblage of friends marched to the Pennsylvania station last evening to await the arrival of John J. Beisel from Montauk Point, Long Island, who is now at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Beisel, at 412 West Oak street.

Mr. Beisel is a member of "Teddy" Roosevelt's Rough Riders and a private of Troop G. He has been granted a furlough of 30 days. When the train steamed into the depot a hearty applause from the large crowd welcomed the young man, and was continued along the entire line of march until the residence of his parents was reached. Here a number of friends had prepared a feast which was enjoyed by the young man's many acquaintances.

In an interview with a HERALD reporter Mr. Beisel related the following interesting conversation: "I left town in June, 1898, and journeyed to Pittsburgh, and remained there but a short time when I extended my travels to Denver, Col. Not content with my new location I went on to Elko, Colo., where I engaged in gold mining. After six months of mining I began the 'penching' of cows, generally termed a cow-boy, of which I had my first experience in New Mexico. This was last year. When the war with Spain was in progress I inherited a desire to become a fighter for the Stars and Stripes. Hearing of 'Teddy' Roosevelt, I made application to enlist. I was mustered in Troop G, at Santa Fe, New Mexico, on May 8, and was among its first members."

Two weeks ago we set sail for Montauk Point, L. I., where they are now encamped with 300 men and as many horses. Many of the men are in the detention hospital, (where I myself was), who have been suffering more or less from starvation."

Proving for Coal. What promises to be an important development of anthracite was on Thursday begun in a five mile tract two miles west of Shippington, adjoining the Cross Creek Coal Co. mines at Oneida belonging to Cox & Bro. & Co. The new field is owned by Dull & Co., the firm comprising Mr. Dull, of Harrisburg, E. S. Stillman, of Mahanoy City, and Daniel Shepp, of Tamaqua. A force of about twenty men under the supervision of John Skene, a Division Superintendent of the Coal & Iron Company at Mahanoy City, began the work of proving and sinking here holes. The tract is said to give promise of an abundant yield, and no effort will be spared in the direction of locating the veins and in the subsequent building of slopes.

Schuykill's sick soldiers. Among the sick soldiers brought from Camp Alger to Philadelphia on the hospital train were the following from Schuykill county: S. Kiaski and John P. Long, Company F, Girardville; Merton Davis, Company K, Port Carbon; David Hughes, Company H; John Clandy, George MacNeal, Will Yachist, Oliver Wakes, Company G, Pinegrove.

BOARD OF HEALTH!

Regular Meeting Held Last Night With Small Attendance.

THE FIRST WARD NUISANCE AGAIN. The Filling Up of the Creek in the First Ward Considered a Nuisance and Will be Abated—Prosecutions Against Property Owners.

The first regular meeting of the Board of Health since its re-organization was held in the Council chamber last evening. The members in attendance were Messrs. Spalding, Malone and Morrison and Health Officer Conroy.

Secretary Curtin's report was then read containing the following: 40 deaths were reported during the month and two still births. A total of 51 burial permits were issued, 12 being non-residents while 42 were local, of which number 20 were interred in town and taken to outside places. The epidemic committee report announced 5 cases of communicable diseases, all being scarlet fever. Two fatalities were also reported.

President Spalding then announced the appointment of the following committees for the ensuing year: RULES AND REGULATIONS—Malone, Holman and Schmidt.

PREVENTIVES—Malone, Holman and Morrison. SURVEILLANCE—Spalding, Schmidt and Malone.

Mr. Malone, as a member of the committee on nuisances, stated that many of the cellars in the houses on the north side of Centre street and east from Bridge street were in very bad shape, many of them being filled with water from 8 to 10 inches in depth. The cause of the filling up is that the bed of the creek is higher than the level of the sewer, and that the only remedy, for this trouble was to lower the bed of the creek. His remarks were substantiated by Solicitor Burke who had accompanied the committee to the seat of the nuisance. In a few short remarks the Solicitor expounded his views on the matter by saying that the filling up of the stream was not only attributable to the P. & R. C. & I. Company and the Thomas Coal Company, but also to the borough, as the bed of the stream contained much natural soil composed of sand which had been washed there through the sewers that empty into it.

The report of the Health Officer contained a list of 15 nuisances which were abated. Health Officer Conroy then lodged a complaint against George Leitze for continuing the occupation of scavenger in the borough, without receiving his license. By motion of the Board Mr. Conroy was instructed to institute criminal proceedings against Leitze for violating the rules and regulations of the Board of Health and also the borough ordinances.

A lengthy discussion then followed on the West Centre street sewer middle, which was participated in by all the members present. It terminated by the Health Officer receiving instructions to push the executions which have already been issued against the property owners.

Under the head of new business President Spalding referred to the vaccination of school children as the school term will shortly open. He also suggested that all the parochial schools and other private institutions be compelled to have their scholars vaccinated. A motion to that effect was passed and the secretary was instructed to notify all the superintendents to enforce the rules. Dr. Spalding was then unanimously elected vaccine physician for the ensuing term.

An Up-to-date Show. The Towanda Daily News of a recent date has the following to say of Welsh Bros. No. 2 Railroad show: "Welsh Bros.' show is playing a two days engagement in Towanda, is one of the cleanest and most up-to-date tented shows traveling. Everything is neat and clean and orderly, really being a 25 cent show for 10 cents—really by the way is just a good crowd as both afternoon and evening performances yesterday. The show remains to-day and will give two entertainments." This high class show will exhibit at Shenandoah for two days, Friday and Saturday, September 2 and 3.

Kendrick House Free Lunch. Call for liver and potato salad will be served, free, to all patrons to-night.

The Prison Wardenship. Judge Pershing yesterday filed his opinion in the celebrated county prison wardenship contest. The opinion is adverse to the complainants in the equity suit, Warden and Matron Brower, as the court dismisses the bill for want of jurisdiction. The court further states that the proper course to pursue should be by quo warranto proceedings. The case attracted much interest. Capt. James H. Levas, the new Warden, will retain his position unless Brower institutes further proceedings.

Come and see our chinaware, cup and saucer, 5 cents, at F. J. Portz.

Lou Culbertson Hurt. Louis Culbertson, the young Virginian, popularly known as the pool champion, and who formerly resided here, was severely injured at Mahanoy City while unloading timber yesterday. A log rolled upon him, mashing the right calf to such an extent that the muscles protruded. He was removed to the Miners' hospital.

The luxuries of a trip to the sea shore can be fully realized at a minimum cost by taking the Pennsylvania railroad excursion, Thursday, September 1st. Atlantic City is the most accessible point, as it can be reached without transfer through Philadelphia by purchasing tickets via the Delaware River Bridge Route, the only all rail line from points in Philadelphia.
