Private Lowmiller, of Company I, died on the 28th inst, of typhoid fever. This makes a total of four deaths since our regiment was ordered out, and we haven't seen any fight

Corporal Hopkins, who is sick at the divi sion hospital, is improving nicely, much to the gratification of his comrades in arms. Elwood Jacoby, the efficient and obliging clerk at Gill's in Shemaudoah, paid us a visit on the 28th Inst. While here he called at the hospital to see Corporal Hopkins. The boys were delighted to see Elwood. He is the only person from Shenandoah we have seen since we are encamped here. We will be all right for visitors hereafter, when we reach Middletown.

and the Ex-Postmaster General. Philadelphia, Sept. L-Chairman Elkin, of the Republican state committee, in a statement issued last night answers, as the head of the state organization, the attacks on the party leaders made by ex-Postmaster General John Result of an Investigation Wanamaker and other members of the Business Men's League.

Mr. Elkin says the organization has endeavored to settle all differences in the party inside the party lines, and therefore has refrained heretofore from making public reply to the attacks made upon it. Now, however, when the utterances of Mr. Wanamaker can only be interpreted to mean that he has placed himself outside the Republican ranks, Mr. Elkin feels that the efforts to distrust and destroy the party in the state should be checked. He makes a general denial of Mr. Wanamaker's charges of extravagance in the admin-istration of the people's affairs, and flatly denies the assertion that the peo-ple are burdened by taxation. Refering to charges of corporate influence in politics.
