Mr. Sherman has been saying some very unkind things about Secretary Alger and the latter's Mich. management of the war department.

These newspaper attacks, whether they be based upon facts or not, will New York, Sept. 6.—Jimmy Michael roofs formed a scene of the wildest create a most unfavorable impression demonstrated his superiority over his enthusiasm, everybody shouting and in Europe, and they have also given the Democratic leaders material for caustic resolutions at the expense of the Republican party, and those the Republican party, and those opposed to the administration will not be slow to take advantage of the situation. We believe that a rigid investigation will show that most of the charges are baseless and have been made because of some ulterior motive on the part of the accusers. motive on the part of the accusers.

The Democratic press has freely circulated these reports of alleged mismanagement on the part of the war department, especially the interviews of the ex-Secretary of State. Mr. Sherman doesn't like Secretary Alger. The fend between them started at the National Republican convention at Chicago in 1888. Mr. Beware of Ointnents for Catarrh that con Sherman was then an avowed candidate for the Presidency. It was his last stand for the nomination. Gen. Alger was also a candidate, had the backing of the Michigan delegation, and picked up a number of delegates from other sections of the country.

Many of these delegates came from the Southern states, and a large percentage had been instructed for Mr. Sherman, and others were supposed to be for him because he was their New York, Sept. 6.—General Miles is natural choice. In his book it will be expected to arrive in New York on the to be for him because he was their remembered that Mr. Sherman made a peppery allusion to the capers of Gen. The Alger had taken too many delegates soldiers will be taken off the away from Sherman at Chicago. But this difference was patched up, and apparently they had determined to forgive and forget.

Mr. Sherman's bitter attack upon the War Department, and his demand tablet. that there should be a rigid investigation of officials responsible for the alleged mismanagement of affairs at Santiago, and at various camps in the reported attempt made by a private the country, is believed to be due of the First Mississippi volunteers the country, is believed to be due largely to the feeling that he thinks Gen. Miles has a grievance against Secretary Alger. Gen. Miles married a niece of Sherman. She is a daughter of the late Judge Sherman, of Cleveland, and sister to Mrs. Don! Cameron.

This affair the reported serious difference between the commanding General of the army and the Secretary of War has created more of a stir than any personal controversy since the trouble with Spain began. In justice to the Secretary it must be said that he is waiting to ascertain definitely whether Gen. Miles said the things contained in the alleged interview with a correspondent of a tain utterances said to have been mind Kansas City newspaper. "The statement made semi-officially from Washington that Major General Miles was not in command of the San-lingo expedition up to the time it left Tampa is not borne out by the official records of the war department. These records prove that Miles not only conducted the preliminaries with General Garcia, but was then recognized by the war department as general command-ing even of General Shafter's army. "The details of General Shafter's actual equipment and method of movement were naturally left to Shaf ter, but a general plan was devised b General Miles and directions were after leaving Tampa, the latter entirely ignored. General Shafter left Tampa with the full knowledge that he was subject to orders from General Miles and up to that time the war depurtment recognised this state of affairs, which is provided for in the federal statutes organizing the army of the United States."

Cure It!

Contagious blood poison is absolutely beyond the skill of the doctors. They may dose a patient for years on their mercurial and potash remedies, but he will never be rid of the disease; on the other hand, his condition will grow stendily worse. S. S. S. is the only cure for this terrible affliction, because it is the only remedy which goes direct to the cause of the disease and forces it.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

A REMEDY FOR THE Effects of Tobacco.

all Percessive use of tobacco, especialis 17 young men is always injurious and undoubtedly elections life materially. Mr. Ed. C. Elsen, compositor on the Contra-Costa News, Martinez, Cal., writes; "I have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Norvino and re-coived much benefit from it. I was troubled with nerveusness, dizzy spells and sleepless-ness, caused by the use of tobacco and stim-ulants. I took Dr. Miles' Nervine with marvelously good results, allaying the dizzlaess, quieting the nerves, and enabling me to sleep and rest, proving in my case a very seneficial remedy." Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is especially adapted to restoring the nervous system to its normal condition under such circumstances. It soothes, heal
