BROOKE AT SAN JUAN. Dr. Miles' Nervine THE DREYFUS MUDDLE. Headquarters Established in a Suburb of Porto Rico's Capital.

Dur Soldiers Exchanging ButtonsWith Spanish Troops Until Many Are Buttonless-General Brooke Occupies the Captain General's Suburban Abode.

San Juan de Porto Rico, Sept. 6 .-- Maor General John R. Brooke, his staff and escort, have completed their jour-ney across the island toward this city. The march has been like a march through a friendly territory. On Saturday General Brooke stopped at Cayey, Sunday he reached Caguas, 20 miles from here. Yesterday afternoon he entered Rio Piedras, one of the aristocratic suburbs of San Juan, where he will establish headquarters. General Brooke has accepted the hospitality of Captain General Macias, who graciously offered him the use of his private residence at Rio Piedras. The column, though small, is imposing, and is making a deep impression. General Brooke, with his chief of staff, rode at the head of the column. The natives, who had news of the coming of the Americans, lined the roads, their faces showing their pleasure, although there were demonstrations. At inter-vals along the way the Spanish soldiers of the Guarda Civil presented arms as our troops passed. At Cayey and Caguas the Spanish mmanders received General Brooke with marked courtesies, and the al-caldes paid official visits, extending velcomes to their towns.

At Caguas, where a thousand Span-lsh regulars are stationed under the command of Colonel Rodriguez, the ceremony was pretentious. The Spanish buglers gave the flourishes in honor of a major general upon our arrival. Houses had been set apart for the accommodation of General Brooke and his staff.

The infantry and cavalry companies camped in the outskirts of the town and were visited by the Spanish sol-diers. There was no display whatever of 60 feeting. Spaniards and Americans are buttonless.

Spanish flags flew at Cayey and Caguas, but as guests in an enemy's country we showed no colors save the cavalry guidons.

Our stalwart soldiers and massive horses caused censeless wonder to the natives, accustomed to men of small stature and nimble footed ponies. General Brooke arrived here in advance of the other American commissioners, who are expected tomorrow by the Seneca.

The City of Cadiz, of the Spanish Transatlantic line, arrived yesterday merning from Corunna, the first ship direct from Spain to reach here since the termination of hostilities. She car-ries the Spanish mails, is bound for Hayana and will then proceed to New York

The French steamer Notre Dame de Salut, which was to embark the first instalment of Spanish troops for Spain, onsisting of the sick in the hospitals and a few Spanish officers, went aground on entering the harbor yesterday.

In July 1891, I was stunned by a stroke of lightning striking the house, and became much worse. My limbs would all draw up, and my left arm and hand was in a cramped condition, and the chords in my neck would lie out prominently. One physician pronounced it a light stroke of paralysis. I would have throbbings in my chest that seemed unendurable. For three months I could not sleep, and for three weeks 1 did not close my eyes in sleep. I thought I could not stand it.
