ANARCHY IN CANDIA.

Fighting Between British and Mussulmans Several Soldiers Killed. Candia, Island of Crete, Sept. 7.—Can Ha is in a state of anarchy. A collision between the Mussulmans, who were demonstrating against European control, and the British authorities, who have been installing Christians as revenue officials, culminated yesterday in bloody fighting between the Mussul-mans and the British troops.

ship stationed in the harbor began fir-ing shells, with the result that a portion of the city was destroyed by flames. The greatest confusion and uproar prevails, and it is feared that there will be further billage and destruction. The trouble began with the attempt and the further fact that the party of the British military authorities to voters are in favor of a non-partisan install Christian officials. They had appointed a council of internal control to administer the tithe revenues, and a detachment of soldiers was stationed outside the office as a precaution. A crowd of unarmed Musaulmans who had been demonstrating against the Christians attempted to force an entrance into the office. The British soldlers fired and wounded several. The Mussulmans ran for their arms, and on returning attacked the soldiers. Other dussulmane spread rapidly through the Christian quarter, shooting into windows and setting many houses and ships on fire. It is reported that sev-eral soldiers had been killed.

NEXT YEAR'S YACHT RACE.

The International Contest Will Take Pince in October. New York, Sept. 5.—The committee of the New York Yacht ciub, in announcing the conclusion of the negotiations for next year's international yacht race, wish to particularly draw public attention to the act of congress passed in 1856 under which the United Chat. States government has power to formu-late and enforce regulations for the purpose of ensuring a clear course, and the safety of both the spectators and the contestants, and the committee contestants are those who may attend the race to assist the authorition by strictly carrying out such regutations. The growing popularity of the rare and the consequent increase in the number of spectators renders it absolutely essential, in their interest and in the interest of both contestants, that all regulations the authorities may publish shall be strictly adhered to,

The conditions agreed upon for the races are: Match to be decided by best three out of five races, Courses—Starting from Sandy Hook lightship. First race, to windward or leeward and return, second race, equilateral triangle; third race, similar to first race; fourth race, similar to second; fifth race, similar to first race. "Saved Her Life."

JOHN WALLET, of Jefferson, Vis. than whom none is more highly absend or widely known, writes. In 1 " limits severe attack of LaGrippe and artheend of four months, in spite of all retainer, friends and good nursing could o completely wrecked, my life was de-paired of, my friends giving me up. I could mly sleep by the use of eplates. My lungs and heart pained me terribly and my cough was most aggravating. I could not lie in one position but a short time and not on my left side at all. My husband brought me Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure and I began taking them. When I had taken a half bottle of each I was much better and contin tles and was completely restored to health to the surprise of all." Dr. Miles' Remeilles
