

INTENSE SUFFERING.

From Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble.

Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured By Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery, But Not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable cure of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered for many years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create acid and gases in the stomach; he had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night.

I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured.

There was no more acidity or sour watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing nothing but vegetable and fruit essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal.

Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach however slight or severe.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made by the Stuart Co. of Marshall, Mich., and sold by druggists everywhere at fifty cents per package.

AN AWFUL EXPLOSION.

It Results in the Wreck of Three Philadelphia Buildings.

PROBABLY A DOZEN KILLED.

After the Recovery of Four Bodies the Search Was Suspended Temporarily. The Disaster Was Caused by an Explosion of Gasoline.

Philadelphia, Sept. 12.—By the explosion of 40 gallons of gasoline in the cellar of a grocery store at 1444 South street last night surely four and possibly a dozen more lives were lost. As an immediate consequence of the explosion the building where it occurred, and those adjoining it on either side collapsed. Four bodies have thus far been recovered from the ruins, and three of these identified, as follows: Samuel Schattstein, keeper of the grocery store; his 18-year-old son, Abraham; a 12-month-old child named Goldberger. The fourth body was that of a girl about 10 years old.

How the explosion occurred is yet unknown. The front of 1444 was immediately blown out, and this was followed by the collapse of that structure and Nos. 1442, occupied by Morris Goldberg's furniture store, and 1446, Louis Salomon's shoe store. The west wall of 1440, occupied by L. Wanger's clothing store, was also blown out. All the buildings were of brick, three stories in height.

In the confusion and excitement following the disaster, it is as yet impossible to secure anything like an accurate census of the occupants, but it is generally stated that the upper floors were crowded with families, huddled together in tenement fashion. Coming as it did at the supper hour, it is feared the loss of life was heavy. The list of injured will be long. They were taken to all the hospitals within a radius of a mile.

After the recovery of the four bodies the authorities decided to postpone the search for additional victims until today, thus obviating the dangers and delays of working upon the mass of debris and wreckage in the darkness. The corpses of Schattstein and his son were picked up on the steps of No. 1444. The unidentified 10-year-old girl was found pinned by a mass of timbers in the rear of the same building, and the Goldberger child died while being taken to a hospital.

The injured at the Howard hospital Alexander Schattstein, aged 6 years, broken nose and laceration of scalp; Alexander Schattstein, aged 6 years, lacerated scalp, condition serious; Mary Healy, aged 65 years, fractured leg; Annie McPherson, 40 years, contusion of ankle; Harry Rothelme, 12 years, lacerated scalp; Maggie Goldberger, 23 years, lacerated scalp; Sarah Goldberger, 14 years, lacerated scalp and contused ankle.

At the Jefferson hospital are A. P. Fish, 23 years, a fireman, lacerated wound of scalp, and Yetta Goldberger, 9 years, contusion of leg and back and lacerated wound of scalp.

Estimates of the number of missing vary from six to 15. The accepted theory of the accident is that Schattstein went into the cellar with a lighted lamp, which ignited the fumes of the gasoline. From the position of his body and that of his son, on the front steps, it is thought they were emerging from the house when caught by the falling walls.

The collapse of the buildings occurred within two minutes of the explosion, and the occupants had little time or chance to escape. Mrs. Goldberger snatched up her 18-month-old child in her arms and rushed for an exit, but the child was so badly injured that it died while being borne to a hospital. Strangely enough, the mother escaped with only trifling injuries.

At 6:45 o'clock last night a sergeant of police was talking to one of his men on the opposite side of the street when, without a moment's warning, there was a terrific explosion, which, almost before they could turn their heads, was followed by a thunderous crash. Mingled with this were the cries of human beings. Without loss of time one of the policemen struck the fire alarm at a box near by, while the other rang for ambulances. The engines and six of the hospital wagons were there within 20 minutes, and a large force of policemen, also summoned to the scene, had the street roped off from corner to corner.

The work of rescue was begun forthwith, but was temporarily abandoned later when twilight had deepened into night. All of the dead and injured were in the buildings across the street from the disaster, and as the walls collapsed almost at a perpendicular direction, no passerby were injured by flying debris.

The force of the explosion was so great, however, that all the windows in the neighborhood were broken by the concussion.

GEN. OTIS' ULTIMATUM.

Insurgents Must Withdraw From the Suburbs of Manila.

INSURGENTS' ABSURD DEMANDS.

Their Successes Since Americans Silenced the Spanish Guns Have Led the Followers of Aguinaldo to Believe That They Are the Conquerors.

London, Sept. 12.—The Manila correspondent of The Times telegraphs as follows: The insurgent conquest of the Island of Luzon is rapidly approaching completion. Recent authentic reports announce the capture of successive Spanish positions, and at present the rebels control every foot of the island except Manila, Cavite and a small portion of the province of Albay. They hold over 3,000 Spanish prisoners and have recently captured several thousand rifles, some cannon, a large quantity of ammunition and several small armed steamers. The Spaniards held out valorously, but were fighting against the inevitable.

It is undeniable that the action of the insurgents in pursuing the campaign after the armistice was declared has caused much useless suffering and destruction of property, and has annihilated their every claim to be considered in any respects as the allies of the Americans. Their motive has been twofold. First, an implacable hatred of the Spanish, with an innate racial thirst for revenge; and, secondly, their ambition to place themselves on record before the world as a successful revolutionary government and as complete masters of the Luzon provinces and as many adjacent islands as they may have time to occupy before the Philippine question has been settled by the Paris commission.

They are now free to withdraw their troops, to make an expedition against Panay and capture Iloilo. By continuing the campaign now, regardless of the atrocities they are committing in the wrong with everybody, just as by crowding into the suburbs of Manila and refusing to vacate the same unless compelled by superior force they have put themselves in the wrong with the Americans.

Their action is doubtless due partly to a disorganization of their forces, which, by their own confession, consists of a congregation of independent units, with chiefs, each ambitious of power and distinction and all struggling for positions which will secure for them booty or otherwise bring real fortune. This disorganization, which naturally effects the irresponsible individual soldier, has been constantly fomenting the irritation resulting from the dull occupation in the suburbs of Manila. The situation has been impossible from the beginning, and conflicts have been avoided only by great tact and the extraordinary patience of the American troops, who loyally observe their duty of preserving the peace of the town.

The policy of permitting the insurgents to occupy the Spanish positions has been fruitful in many difficulties, not the least of which is the stimulus given to the conceit of the natives, who consider themselves the conquerors of Manila, although they captured not a single position when the town was taken.

General Otis has attacked the complicated questions he inherited from General Merritt, his predecessor, with remarkable energy and decision and is rapidly establishing order in every department where comparative chaos ruled before.

Aguinaldo has persistently demanded, in terms not too polite, various impossible concessions, for example, an occupation of the governor general's palace and other palaces, a written assurance that the insurgents will be permitted to occupy permanently their military positions around Manila, and protection for the insurgent vessels by the American fleet, with many other claims, including an innocent demand for a share of the booty in captured by the Americans at Manila.

After a careful review of the situation General Otis arrived at the logical conclusion that the insurgents have no right to occupy the suburbs of Manila, and that Aguinaldo's claims have the support of neither equity nor reason. He has, therefore, categorically refused to consider Aguinaldo's demands, and last Friday sent him an ultimatum, in terms plainly comprehensive and authoritative, that he must withdraw his troops from the suburbs before the 15th or suffer the consequences of refusal.

The answer will probably be that Aguinaldo himself is only too willing to obey the order, but cannot explain to his troops the reasons why they cannot remain at Manila. This temporizing excuse, although now stale from too frequent use, conceals much truth. It is an undoubted fact that Aguinaldo has but a feeble hand on the organization. His power is fast waning, and the insurgents are threatened with disintegration into opposing factions unless some leaders are soon discovered who are able to harmonize the conflicting personal interests.

It is reported that the presidency of the revolutionary government will be conferred on General Arzobispo at a congress at Malolos on Sept. 15. Arzobispo is a lawyer of excellent repute—the one man among the Filipinos who is universally respected. Hitherto he has consistently avoided politics, and it is doubtful whether he will undertake the task of steering a rudderless ship.

Whatever may happen at the congress, there is no possible assurance that the natives are capable of self-government. The educated class neither desire or hope for complete independence and will welcome any protection which secures the people good government without a tinge of Spanish methods. The masses of the revolutionists, on the other hand, are bitterly opposed to any solution of the rapidly which does not promise unqualified independence.

In the present exaltation of a fictitious victory, believing themselves capable of ruling the whole archipelago without advice or assistance from any other source, they are bent upon returning to the Americans the chief elements of success which they now boast. This blind conceit is a racial defect.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Five physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at A. Waeley's drug store.

MORTALITY AMONG SPANIARDS.

Distressing Condition of the Prisoners En Route From Guantanamo.

Santiago de Cuba, Sept. 12.—Colonel Day, who returned from Guantanamo Saturday, reports the embarkation of all the Spaniards save about 50 under General Parejada. The American authorities are awaiting the arrival of the San Juan with about 2,000 Spanish troops from Sagua de Tanamo and Havana. The steamer is expected on Wednesday. The Spaniards will be re-embarked here at the San Augustin and the San Francisco for Spain.

Today the hose and two other vessels left for Barcelona and San de Tanamo, carrying supplies for the Americans. Cubans and Spaniards there. The condition of the Spanish at Guantanamo prior to their departure for Spain was, Colonel Day says, most distressing. The death rate was over 100 per day, and Colonel Day believes that more than half will die on the passage. Seventy died on the night of the day the San Ignacio was loaded, and there is yellow fever among those who remain behind.

Sunday was observed yesterday, for the first time since the war terminated, as a day of rest and merriment. All the military and civil offices were closed, as were also the shops, and the city's appearance was unusually quiet. Religious services were held at the palace and General Lawton, General Wood and other American officers attended.

Yesterday afternoon this correspondent visited the wrecks of the Spanish cruisers. The work of floating the Infanta Maria Teresa is nearly complete, but the Almirante Oquendo is not worth the cost of saving.

Pastor in Colorado. Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 12.—Fusion between the Democrats, Populists and the Teller branch of the Silver Republicans is an accomplished fact. After a national meeting 36 hours ago, the conference committee of the three parties an agreement was reached Saturday by which the officers were apportioned between the parties. The trouble in division arose over the reluctance of each party to relinquish claim to the governorship, but while all persistently demanded the best of the ticket, the Democrats got the governorship and one university regent.

Porto Rico Honors to Parade. New York, Sept. 12.—Military Quartermaster Colonel Kimball yesterday received an order from General Miles, setting forth that a parade of the returning Porto Rican troops will take place in this city on Saturday next.

Colonel Kimball was instructed to prepare a suitable camp for the men, who are now on their way from Ponce in the government transports. As soon as Colonel Kimball received the order he communicated with Governor Voorhees of New Jersey, to consent as to the establishing of a temporary camp at Sea Girt.
