SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1909.

This has been a week of conventions, so far as the Republicans are concerned.

Col. Stork, the Republican candidate for Governor, is at Media today, and it is safe to wager that the venerable reformer, Thomas V. Cooper, will have business elsewhere at that particular time.

Admiral Sampson is fortunate in more ways than one, so far as the war with Spain is concerned.

The Porto Ricans are becoming Americanized. A camp of the Patriotic Order Sons of America has been organized at Boonville on that island.

Evidently typhoid fever is no respecter of person or rank in the regular army.

Dr. Swallow informed the people of Scranton that the total vote in November would be about 800,000.

The nomination of David M. Graham as the Republican candidate for Senator in this district meets with general satisfaction.

Not satisfied with being chairman of two political conventions within one week, the friends of Hon. Elias Davis are urging him for the position of county chairman.

The politicians of the Columbia-Montour judicial district are not by any means partial to the policy of a non-partisan judiciary.

It may be true, as a contemporary claims, that the Congressman from this district "located the whereabouts of Private Smith."

Twenty-five state Senators will be elected this year. Of those whose terms expire twenty are Republicans and five Democrats.

PROBING A MURDER MYSTERY.

Remembered Body Found in Connecticut Has Been Identified.

Bridgeport, Conn., Sept. 17.—As a result of yesterday's developments there seems to be almost no doubt that the woman's body found in the Yellow mill pond was Miss Grace Marian Perkins, of Middleboro, Mass.

Additional information has also come from Massachusetts to the effect that Miss Perkins left that place three weeks ago, presumably with one Charles Bourne, a young man of the town and state who died in the race of that has been lost.

Further evidence are not wanting that the police, despite their repeated denials, are exceedingly eager to ascertain the whereabouts of "Dr." Nancy Guilford, the midwife and alleged abortionist.

At the New Haven county jail, where not long ago Dr. Gill, now serving a state prison sentence upon conviction of malpractice, was a prisoner awaiting trial in the superior court.
