Santiago de Cuba, Sept. 24.-To the residents of Santiago Thursday was the most important day since the capitulation, as it was the occasion of the first visit of General Calixto Garcia to Santiago since he left there in a bad temper on July 17. At 9 o'clock in the morning General Wood, with a portion of General Lawton's staff and several American officers, met General Garcia outside the city limits and escorted him into the town. Garcia was ac-companied by his staff and his son, Colonel Calixto Garcia, by many Cuban officers who have recently come to

WINNIE DAVIS' FUNERAL The Question That Agitates Republis

'Daughter of the Confederacy" Buried With Imposing Honors

VENERABLE MOTHER'S ANGUISH.

Old Soldiers Wept as They Witnessed the Grief of the Stricken Mother. Sorrowing Thousands Lined the Line of March to the Grave.

Anne Jefferson Davis, "The daughter of the Confederacy," sleeps her last sleep In the bosom of the land she loved so well. Her remains arrived here at 8:40 o'clock yesterday morning, and were met at the depot by Lee Camp, Confederate Voterans, of which she was a member, and delegates from L. Hobson and Dr. George Ross and their wives received Mrs. Davis and those of her immediate party who were on the train. The casket was borne to the hearse from the funeral car by the gentlemen selected for active pall barers, and the guard of honor and the veteran escort followed in column of fours. There were four beautiful white horses attached to the hearse, each one being led by a colored man.

The casket was placed in the lecture room of St. Paul's church, and Colonel Laughton dismissed the escort. Two members of the guard of honor remained constantly on duty, being re-fleved every half hour. Upon being deposited in the lecture room, the cas-ket was surrounded by floral tributes from Georgia, Virginia, South Carolina and other states. To the left of the asket was the furled flag of the Confederacy, St. Paul's church, in which the funeral services were conducted, and of which Rev. Dr. Hartley Carmichael is the rector, was the church in which Mr. Dayls was confirmed and was sented when he received, on April 3, 1865, the message from General Lee which necessitated the evacuation of Richmond by the Confederate troops.

It was 3:30 o'clock as the procession entered the church, the organ playing the "Jefferson Davis Funeral March." First came the veterans of Lee camp, then the Sons of Veterans and the veterans of Pickett camp. The min-lsters of the various churches of the city occupied seats to the right of the chancel. Following the Pickett camp veterans were the veterans representing camps in other states, and behind them, and immediately in front of the casket, came the honorary palibearers Following them came the guard of honor which had charge of the casket during the day, and next came the casket. Mrs. Davis followed close be-hind the casket, leaning on the arm of Colonel Archer Anderson. She walked with bowed head, and very feebly, leaning very heavily on her cane. Mrs. Hayes and other relatives and near friends followed, and immediately be hind came about 300 veterans. As the impressive services concluded Mrs. Davis was prostrated, and it was several minutes before the grief stricken mother could rise. The scene was deeply affecting, and many an old soldier wept freely as he witnessed the grief of the aged lady.

The crowd about the church when the casket was taken out and placed to the hearse was of immense propor-tions. Amid the tolling of belis of many churches the procession started toward Hollywood cemetery, marching between dense lines of humanity the entire distance. The procession was nearly a mile in length, though the carriages were driven two abreast.

The services at the grave were simpte, but deeply impressive. After the casket had been placed on the supporters the face section was removed for a moment and Mrs. Davis and her daughter, Mrs. Hayes, kissed the deceased. Mrs. Davis sat in an arm hair pear the grave during the service and Mrs. Hayes knelt by her side. The Centenlary Methodist church choir sang "Sleep Thy Last Sleep." The commital prayers were read by Dr. Carmichael, and then the vast and sorrowing crowd dispersed.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cared me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at A. Wasley's Drug Store. Regular size 30c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Albany, Sept. 24.—The supporters of Governor Black have exposed their hand, which has been responsible for their great confidence in their ability to defeat Colonel Rosseveit for the gubernatorial nomination and which, they say, makes the nomination of the colonel an impossibility. Colonel Roosevolt, they say, is 'indigible' to run as a candidate for governor in this state at this time. When Colonel Roosevelt was sworn in as assistant secretary of the navy he swore to his residence as Washington, D. C. It is Richmond, Va., Sept. 24,-Varina claimed that further evidence of his ineligibility is afforded in the fact that when he was assessed for personal property in the town of Oyster Bay he later appeared before the tax commissioners and swore off the assessment, upon the ground that he was not a resident of Oyster Bay, but was a resident of Washington.

Chairman R. E. Odell, Jr., of the Republican state committee, was inter-viewed at the Fifth Avenue hotel, New York, in reference to the alleged in-eligibility of Colonel Roosevelt.

"We knew all about the affidavits signed by Colonel Roosevelt," said Mr. Odell, "and we are not in the least worried. The best lawyers and the best fudges in the city have had this under consideration all day and they are unanimously of the opinion that there is nothing in these documents which will prevent the nomination and election of Colonel Roosevelt."
