THE BURGESS HUSTLING.

Property Owners in Arms Against Him About Payments.

Chief Burgess Taylor is in hot water, but it is only because he is performing his duties upon the spur applied by the Borough Council. Yesterday he placed orders with Glen & O'Hara to lay pavements in front of thirty properties located on West Coal, South Main, East and West Centre and East and West Lloyd streets. The pavements will be laid at the borough's expense. After the work is completed report will be made to the Borough Council with the cost and the Borough Solicitor will be instructed to file liens against the respective properties.

The Burgess says that when making his rounds today the property owners against whom he has proceeded heaped abuse upon him. He adds that he cannot be blamed in the matter, because he served notices on the parties last year, and again this year, but they were ignored, and to place himself properly in the eyes of Council he was obliged to resort to the extreme measures.
He served thirty additional notices to-day and if they are not promptly complied with, the same steps will be taken in the latter cases as he took in the others yesterday.

Mr. Taylor also served a notice on J. J.
Francy today, requiring him to put Plum alley in a safe condition. The roadway has been disturbed by the excavation that was made some time ago for the proposed new electric light station.

TWO MINERS BURNED.

Explosion of Gas Blew Them Down the Shaft.

Frank Humes and Thomas Phillips, miners employed at Tunnel colliery, near Mahanoy City, were severely burned about their heads, faces and hands at about 4:15 p. m. yesterday, by an explosion of gas.
They were working in a chute with safety lamps. Humes was just touching a squib when the gas ignited and exploded with great force. It was blown twelve feet down the chute. Phillips was blown down into the ganway. Humes was the first to regain his feet and he assisted Phillips, although he was worst burned of the two. Others in the mines gave prompt assistance to both and they were removed to their homes.

Mr. Francy may sell.

J. J. Francy today started men at work removing the bay window from its property at the northwest corner of Main and Lloyd streets. The windows were the subject of a lawsuit some months ago, the court granting an injunction restraining Mr.
Francy from completing their construction and ordering him to remove them. Today Mr. Francy made an offer of part of the property to the Merchants' National Bank, stating that he would sell so much of the property as the bank might require for its business. The bank has the offer under consideration.

Infant Class Entertained.

A merry gathering of little folks enlivened the parsonage of the Presbyterian church, on West Oak street, yesterday afternoon.
The infant class was being entertained by the pastor, Rev. Harvey Koehler, and wife and the number of little folks present was about fifty. During the evening the little guests were served with refreshments which all greatly enjoyed. They were much pleased with the kind treatment received from their pastor, and to-day many of them wish for a repetition of the event.

THE ASHES
OF COLUMBUS

Removed From the Niche in the Cathedral at Havana.

HAD RESTED OVER A CENTURY.

Arrangements Had Been Perfected For Erecting a Fitting Monument and Mausoleum in Havana, Which Will Now Probably Be Placed in Spain.

Havana, Sept. 27.—The remains of Christopher Columbus, which yesterday were removed from their niche in the cathedral preparatory to their shipment to Spain, had laid in their last resting place since Jan. 17, 1796, when they were brought from Santo Domingo, that island having been ceded to France by Spain.

Since the date mentioned the remains had laid in an open niche in the wall of the presbytery of the cathedral, a yard and a half above the ground. In 1892 there was placed in front of the niche a slab of doubtful artistic taste, representing on relief a bust of the great admiral and bearing this inscription in Spanish:

"May the remains and image of the great Columbus lie a thousand centuries preserved in this urn and in the remembrance of our nation."

After the 40th anniversary of the discovery of the new world by Columbus the Spanish cortes included in the Cuban budget large sums for the purpose of erecting a fitting monument symbolizing the travels of the discoverer, to be placed in the most conspicuous place in Havana, and the construction of a mausoleum to hold his ashes. This mausoleum, the work of the Spanish sculptor Melida, was brought to Havana and placed upon a base erected in the center aisle of the cathedral, close to the main door.

The monument, the work on which was entrusted to the sculptor Susilla, has not yet been completed. It was paid for, an appropriation never will be made for it. It was to have been paid for in the budget of the island, but circumstances have overturned the plans, and it is probable that both the monument and the mausoleum will be placed in a fitting place in Spain.

The ashes were deposited in a zinc case, which was placed in the sacristy of the cathedral, and a permanent guard was established to watch them.
Public religious services will be held Monday.

hotel, where he and his household will

Robert P. Porter had a conference yesterday with the most prominent tobacco manufacturers in the city. The manufacturers argued that the import duties on leaf tobacco ought to be increased and the export duties lessened so as to favor the island's tobacco industry, and Mr. Porter answered by stating that a minimum tariff would be established at Havana, as had been done at Santiago.

Put Poison in the Coffee.

McKeesport, Pa., Sept. 27.—A wholesale poisoning of colored people at Mrs. Belle Robinson's boarding house yesterday may result in the death of three victims. Shortly after dinner all who drank coffee at the meal were taken violently ill, and three of those poisoned are in a critical condition.
They are Belle Robinson, Mrs. Hattie Williams and William Palpus, the last named being taken to the hospital. The other three victims, who will recover, are John Wilkins and two children, William West, a young negro who is said to have been jealous of Mrs. Robinson, is accused of the crime of putting some powerful poison in the coffee.

Colonel Bryan Ill With Fever.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Colonel William Jennings Bryan, of the Third Infantry regiment, was unable to leave Washington yesterday for Jacksonville.
"I have a touch of malaria," he said last evening, "and my physician told me today that I would have to remain here for two or three days." Colonel Bryan was in bed, where he passed most of the day. His face was flushed with fever. While he is disposed to look upon his illness as trifling, it is not at all improbable that he will have to remain in Washington longer than he has been calculating to enable the fever to run its course.

Preparing for Institute.

teachers of that town have received similar requests.

A TROUBLESOME CHECK.

It Bobbed Up After a Disappearance of Over Five Years.

William Kimmel is defendant in a civil suit brought at Pottsville in which the Edison General Electric Company is plaintiff. The trial will involve the attendance of several prominent residents of town as witnesses, among them P. J. Gaughan, P. J.
Ferguson, E. B. Hunter, T. J. Higgins and others. S. G. M. Hulloper represents the plaintiff and M. M. Burke the defendant.

The facts of the case are apparently very much complicated. It appears that seven years ago, when the construction of electric railways in town was first projected, Mr.
Kimmel became interested with John F.
Finney and several other residents of town in promoting the undertaking. Certificates of stock were issued and negotiations were opened with the Edison Company. On these negotiations Mr. Kimmel was induced to give the company his check as an evidence of good faith. Subsequently the late Judge Stiller, of Carlisle, became interested in the project, but would not take hold of it until the certificates were already issued, whereupon Mr. Kimmel was not opposed to this, but wanted to know who would take care of the check he had given the Edison Company. He could not get it back, and under the new project, with the certificates of course, he would have no fault but his own in paying the check. Mr. Kimmel says Mr. Finney assured him that the check would be cared for in such a manner that there would be no personal responsibility on the former's shoulders, and Mr. Kimmel proceeded to recall the certificates of stock and return the money he had paid on them. Nothing more was thought of the check. In fact, Mr. Kimmel gave it no more attention after the change was made than he would have done had he personally torn up the check and cast the pieces to the winds. But to his great surprise, over five years later the Edison company produced the check and made demand for payment of it upon Mr. Kimmel. He was most astounded at the Spanish Admiral at Manila when he viewed his fleet after Dewey got through with it. Mr. Kimmel, of course, declined to meet the check and the suit followed. A jury is now to say whether or not the check shall be paid. The case was called this morning, but owing to the absence of Mr. Finney, went over until the next term of court.

New System of Gathering Mail.

All postmasters, including the local office, on Saturday received notification that the method of gathering mail for delivery to house to house system of gathering mail has been adopted by the government and will be established in all free delivery towns in the United States. All that is required is the placing of a small box on the door or side of the house. The government officials have been experimenting with various designs, and have decided upon six, any of which may be chosen by the property owners and citizens generally. These boxes are supplied with an arrangement or device which will indicate to the carrier, while delivering mail, that there is a letter within the box. This will consume considerable time, and will have to be done without extra carriers. The regular system of collecting from the mail boxes, stationed at the intersection of streets, will not be done away with. The boxes will be sold at a price within the reach of all.

The Coal Trade.

The anthracite coal trade is presenting a somewhat improved outlook. The cooler weather of the past week has stimulated the demand for coal, and this has prompted more liberal purchases from the producing companies. The line and city trade is consequently better, while there is a larger movement of coal eastward and more vessels are being chartered. This is expected now to be the case throughout the remainder of the season. It is, however, a considerable shipment of anthracite westward by Mrs.
Robert Hillhouse, of Park Place, whose husband went to Johannesburg several months ago.

Matthew Reilly, of the state of Montana, who has been visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity for the past four months to regain his health, leaves to-morrow for uncle of Dr. John D. Reilly, of Mahanoy City, and his many friends hope that the change of climate may prove beneficial.

ELECTRIC
EXTENSION

A Railway Line to St. Nicholas Asked For.

SOME STRONG ARGUMENTS MADE.

The Route Proposed is Through Ellangowan and Maple Hill—Mine Workers Requiring Accommodations are the Investigators of the Movement.

A petition is being circulated for an electric railway extension to St. Nicholas and it will no doubt be a formidable document, as the people of this town and residents of the places through which it is proposed to run the extension are united in the matter.

The paper sets forth that a line is very much needed between this town and St.
Nicholas, via Ellangowan and Maple Hill, there being no means of conveyance between those points. There is situated in this territory four large collieries which employ about 3,500 men, who are obliged to walk to and from work. There are also about 1,500 people residing in this territory referred to who would be patrons of the road and a means of profit to the line.

The movement will receive strong backing, as such a line would result in great benefit to the business people of this town, who are deprived of a fair field on which to compete with the business people of Mahanoy City for the trade at Ellangowan, Maple Hill and St.
Nicholas.

Ellangowan's relation to this town is a singular one. Its location is no more distant than Yatesville and it has the benefit of the free postal delivery system of this town, and yet the place is really a large source of revenue to the merchants of Mahanoy City, and practically of no benefit to this town.
The people of the place say that this is due principally to the fact that they have no direct railway connection with this town. It is true they have none with Mahanoy City, but St. Nicholas has; and St. Nicholas being only a short distance from Ellangowan makes it a good inlet for the Mahanoy City merchants. No doubt these merchants will put up stiff opposition to the petition, but the movement has much better fortune than the pecuniary view the business people of town take of it, and that is the accommodation that will be afforded the great number of men who work at Ellangowan and Maple Hill collieries and live in this town. They are the investigators of the project and their arguments in favor of it cannot be successfully refuted. A walk with them some winter's morning will convince the most skeptical that their plea is well made.

Aside from this the connecting link asked for would be a valuable one to the Schuylkill Traction Company itself, as it would serve to increase traffic between Ellangowan and St.
Nicholas to this town. The existing facilities for travel to the places named are by no means what they should be. They can be reached only at certain hours of the day by means of the steam railroads, or by traveling by trolley via Mahanoy City, a long journey which would be reduced to a minimum by a line running to St. Nicholas direct, as sought by the petition that is being circulated.

A MURDEROUS AFFRAY.

Stabbing and Clubbing on a Mahanoy City Street.

The first ward of Mahanoy City was the scene of a murderous assault at 10:15 o'clock last night, in which John Wack and his wife, Annie, were stabbed and Andrew Fitchick, their boarder, had his head badly beaten. Wack unbranded Fitchick for information and put him out of the house. He subsequently accepted a challenge and went out to the street, when Fitchick stabbed him three times in the head with a penknife.
Hearing her husband's cries, Mrs. Wack ran to the street and was stabbed in the right hand. Wack got hold of a poker and beat Fitchick terribly over the head until the latter escaped. He was found lying beside the railroad track, in an exhausted condition and with blood streaming from wounds on his head. He was examined to the Pottsville jail in default of bail on two charges of assault and battery with intent to kill.
Wack's hat showed that Fitchick had made at least a dozen lunges at his head with the penknife.

Squeezed by Cars.

John Shinnery, of Bowman's, near Mahanoy City, had his right knee squeezed between bumpers of cars at Park No. 2 colliery.

Thomas Burke, son of Councilman Burke, of Mahanoy City, and employed as driver at Tunnel Ridge colliery, had one of his legs squeezed between bumpers and a car.

Cut Rate Beer.

A representative of a Philadelphia brewing company has been in Mahanoy City for several days selling beer at 60 cents per barrel, or $1 less than the price asked by other brewers.
He says agencies will be established there and in other towns of the region. His cut has not been met thus far.

Hauling Awarded.

The contract for hauling between 400 and 500 tons of coal to the various school buildings has been awarded to the Honora H. & L. Company by the Heat and Fuel committee of the School Board. The contract price is 30 cents per ton.

a single man aged 22 years, returned to his home about midnight on Saturday night, and when he reached the top of high steps leading to his home he fell to the bottom and sustained injuries from which he died yesterday. It is thought that his neck was broken.

Young People's Society.

retary, Ida Dusto.

Assaulted on the Street.

While Matthew Whitaker, of East Cherry street, was on his way home at noon to-day he was assaulted by Simon Miller. Whitaker was knocked down, and his face was badly bruised. A warrant was issued for Miller's arrest, but up to four o'clock he could not be found.
