EARLY MORNING FIRE.

Mahanoy Plane Families Routed Out of Bed by Flames.
At 2:30 o'clock this morning fire started in a shanty at the rear of a three-story double dwelling at Mahanoy Plane and the flames spread rapidly. The building is owned by the Shaeffer estate and occupied by the families of George Harris, John Donahoe and John Leary.
Fortunately the occupants received timely warning. All escaped without injury and saved all their household effects. The building was about half destroyed. The Shaeffer Estate had it insured.
The Mahanoy Plane fire company was notified by the Gilbertson company in fighting the flames, and both did good work, but they were handicapped for a while by a short supply of water.

Birthday Parties.

Katie, the bright and interesting young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Purcell, of East Centre street, celebrated her birthday in a very appropriate manner last evening by inviting about twenty five of her little friends. Prof. Elmer Wilde's juvenile mandolin and guitar club, of which Miss Katie is a member, was in attendance and rendered several selections. The little hostess was presented with numerous presents by her friends. Refreshments were served, and the young folks departed well pleased with the evening's enjoyment.

A party was held at the home of Mrs. Annie A. J. Smith, at her home on West Coal street, in celebration of the thirtieth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Annie. Games were played, vocal and instrumental music furnished, and a luncheon was served. Miss Annie received a number of presents. Among the young folks in attendance were: Martha and Julia Miller, Elmin Kline, Annie Marlin, Mary and Lizette Lewler, Annie and Lizzie Cooney, Julia McCarthy, Katie Kennedy, Bertha Cummings, Emma Spears, Jeanette Broxton, Lizzie Sharrocks, Maggie Whalen, Nellie Cullen, Katie Cannon, Mary and Sarah Purcell, Owen and Lillian Reese, Florence Bolin, Mamie Snel, Annie and Maggie Coogan, Nellie Babin, Nellie Shortall, Sallie Daily, of Pottsville, Katie Snel, Mrs. Shortall, Patrick Brennan, John Bolin, Albert and James Shortall, Patrick Hilbert, Patrick McLaughlin, William Murphy, Lawrence Cullen, Joseph Smith, Daniel Holba, Michael Bolin, Patrick Purcell, William Smith, Richard, John and Thomas Coogan, Benj. Broxton.

SERIOUS RUNAWAY.

A Cow Charges Upon and Stomped a Horse.

Mrs. Mary McGuire, an aged resident of Mahanoy City, was painfully injured yesterday while driving through the Louest Valley with her son. A cow rushed from the woods at the side of the road, and with lowered horns, dashed towards the horse hitched to Mrs. McGuire's carriage. The horse plunged aside, upsetting the carriage and throwing out the occupants, and then ran away. Mrs. McGuire sustained a fracture of the right wrist and severe lacerations on the forehead and chin. Her son was severely bruised about the body. The carriage was broken into kindling wood and strewn along the road for a distance of about a mile.

Waldron's Great Horse Sale!

Application For Joyce's Pardon.

The State Board of Pardons met in Harrisburg this afternoon, when Controller Charles A. Snyder made a plea for the pardon of Thomas J. Joyce, editor of the Mahanoy City Black Diamond, who is now in the penitentiary. Many petitions, signed by hundreds of citizens of the county and many letters from prominent men have been presented to the pardon board. The people believe that the sentence imposed upon Mr. Joyce in the Dauphin county court was entirely too severe and he has served a sufficient time for his offense. No word had been received at a late hour this afternoon as to the result of the Board's deliberations.

ROOSEVELT NOMINATED

On the First Ballot by New York Republicans.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC CONVENTION.

Every Reference to Both Roosevelt and Black Was Generously Applauded, But the Vote on Nomination Was: Roosevelt, 753; Black, 218.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 28.—The Republican state convention nominated the following ticket yesterday: For governor, Theodore Roosevelt of Oyster Bay; lieutenant-governor, Timothy L. Woodruff of Kings; comptroller, William J. Morgan of Erie; secretary of state, John T. McDonough of Albany; state treasurer, John B. Jaekel of Cayuga; state engineer, Edward A. Bond of Jefferson; attorney general, John C. Davies of Oneida.
The convention was a most enthusiastic one throughout. The opening session was confined to the naming of committees. Congressman Seneca E. Payne, as temporary chairman, evoked the cheers of the delegates by his references to President McKinley and the conduct of the war.
The delegates were slow in reassembling after recess. At 3:45 the officers of the convention had all returned, but the delegates were still in confusion. As soon, however, as the gavel fell the committee on permanent organization reported the permanent officers of the convention, including Senator Horace White, of Syracuse, for chairman. The committee on credentials reported that for the first time in years there were no duties to perform in the committee, there being no contests.
Senator White, on taking the chair, made an able address, in the course of which he paid a glowing tribute to the administration of Governor Black.
The mention of Governor Black's name by Chairman White was the occasion of a reported applause, which was followed by three cheers. The speaker was interrupted for fully two minutes. He was about to recommence when a voice in the gallery shouted, "We will have Black or no man," which expression called forth another round of applause. Reference to the services of Senator Platt at Washington was also the occasion of an outburst.
At another period of his speech he was interrupted by a voice in the rear of the hall shouting: "We must have

COL. THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Black." The various war horses came in for their share of the approbation of the convention when reference was made to them. A mention of the charge of the rough riders at San Juan Hill brought the convention to its feet with a great outburst of demonstrative expression. The delegates stood in groups and cheered. Senator Platt joined the other delegates.
The report of the committee on resolutions was called for, but General Woodruff, chairman of that committee, was not present to present it, the original draft of the platform having been amended at the meeting of the committee.
The convention decided to proceed with the nominations, and J. Rider Cady, of Hudson, who nominated Governor Black two years ago, took the platform to perform the same service. Mr. Cady was frequently interrupted with applause. Judge Cady finished amid tremendous applause, his closing remark about Governor Black's faithfulness to the ticket calling forth the enthusiasm of the audience.
At 4:55 o'clock Chauncey M. Depew took the platform to nominate Theodore Roosevelt. For some minutes Mr. Depew could not begin his speech for the applause that ensued. Those portions of his speech relating to President McKinley were received with much applause, and there was a vigorous reception of the tribute to Governor Black. When Mr. Depew told of the famous charge of the rough riders and mentioned Colonel Roosevelt the audience went almost crazy. Every man was on his feet and vociferously cheering.
When Mr. Depew had reached the point in his speech where he alluded to the non-effect of Mauser bullets on Colonel Roosevelt two or three men rushed down the aisle bearing a big portrait of Roosevelt in rough rider uniform. There was a three minute interruption, and the picture was taken to the stage and set up.
Mr. Depew finished at 5:25, amid applause that was almost pandemonium. Then followed speeches according to the nominations, and Elihu Root, who had been substituted as a delegate in the convention, was called to the platform by the chairman, and made a statement as to the eligibility of Mr. Roosevelt to hold office. He said that Mr. Roosevelt had always voted in Oyster Bay and had merely removed personal property to Washington. He had always paid taxes in Oyster Bay and had merely refused to pay taxes on property he was using in Washington, and by his affidavit he merely said that he was not a resident of New York.
At 7:15 Secretary of State Palmer moved a roll call, and the motion was adopted. At 7:41 the roll call was completed, and the vote was announced as follows: Roosevelt, 753; Black, 218. Then the auditors and the delegates rose in

TWO MEN INJURED!

Thomas Shure and Samuel Gradwell Were the Sufferers.

BOTH IN A CRITICAL CONDITION!

Gradwell's Injuries Are Probably Fatal, as His Spine Was Fractured by Falling Coal—Shure Suffered From a Squeeze Between Car and Timber.

Two mine employes of town were injured this morning and both had narrow escapes from instant death. In one of the cases the victim is in a critical condition and it will take a day or two to decide what the probable outcome will be.
This victim is Thomas Shure, a popular young man of town residing with his parents at the corner of Coal and Gilbert streets. He is 21 years old and was employed as car inspector at the Turkey Run colliery.
Shure had just stepped upon a gondola when he was crushed against one of the large timbers that support the chutes. The result was such a fearful one that it created hemorrhages. The young man fell helpless upon the car, but was speedily assisted and carried to the colliery office. It was feared he would succumb to the shock before he could be removed home, but after receiving temporary treatment at the office from Dr. J. F. Burke he was rallied sufficient to permit his removal. At the house Dr. D. J. Langton was called into consultation.
The victim suffered most about the hips, but was also severely squeezed about the shoulders. These parts of his body and his face were very much discolored.
The second victim was Samuel Gradwell. His injuries are of such a character that, if they do not prove fatal, the victim will be paralyzed for life.
Gradwell is thirty years of age and has a wife and three children. He was working in a chute in the West Shenandoah colliery and was in the act of dressing down the coal after firing a shot when a "slip" fell and struck him on the back.
The injured man was removed to his home at the corner of Oak and Bowers streets. He received attendance from Drs. G. M. Hamilton and S. J. Fetzer. After a consultation it was decided that the patient had better be removed to the miners' hospital. This was done at noon. After making a careful examination of the patient the officials at the hospital found that there was a dislocated fracture of the spine. Gradwell may not survive the injury two weeks, and may live several years. In the latter event, however, he will be paralyzed.

SEPTEMBER BRIDES.

The Coughlin-Fitzgerald Nuptials and Several Others Solemnized To-day.

This afternoon, at 3 o'clock, at the altar of the Annunciation church, the holy bonds of matrimony were declared between Miss Mary Verania, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coughlin, of West Coal street, and John J. Fitzgerald, of town. The nuptial knot was tied by the pastor, Rev. H. F. O'Reilly, in the presence of many friends of the contracting parties, who were supported by Miss Annie Fenley, of town, and Joseph O'Reilly, of Pottsville. A wedding reception followed at the residence of the bride, which was enjoyed by about seventy guests, many of them being from Girardville, Pottsville, Shamokin, Haven, Run and Reading. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald received many presents which will adorn their newly furnished residence, corner Centre and Catherine streets.
Miss Annie Leckie, of East Centre street, and John Oliver, of South Dakota, were married this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents. They will make their home in the far West.
Francis J. Duffly and Miss Mary Bourke, both of Pottsville, were married yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. J. McGovern. Miss Maize McCarthy was bridesmaid and J. J. Devine best man.
Harry B. Haessler, of the firm of Haessler & Son, and Miss Jennie, eldest daughter of Thomas B. Zolick, both of Orwigsburg, will be married on Thursday, October 1st. Miss Emily Leitenberger, daughter of Constable John Leitenberger, of Mahanoy City, and Harry H. Crumm, of Bendersville, Pa., were married at the residence of the bride's parents at the former place this afternoon. Miss Cecile Haines, of Leroy, Pa., was the flower girl and only attendant. Rev. H. A. Keiser, of the Reformed church, officiated.
Johnson's Cafe, 36 East Centre street. Leading oyster cafe in town. Served in all styles and to your own taste.

A Good Grab.

Stiney Matulewicz was arrested by Watchman Creary last night on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Victoria Rice, who alleges that the accused stole $150 from a bureau in her home. Matulewicz spent the night in the lockup and after a hearing before Justice Shoemaker this morning was committed for trial in default of $100 bail.

Brewery Robbed.

At an early hour this morning three unknown men entered the offices of the Heale Brewing Company, at Hazleton, bound and gagged the watchman, and then robbed the safe. They secured $100 in cash, all the money that was in the safe. There is no clue to the identity of the robbers.

Daughters of America.

The State Council of the Daughters of America opened its annual convention in Tanawaga yesterday to continue until Thursday afternoon. The order was organized in 1895 as an auxiliary to the Junior Order United American Mechanics. E. H. Bambo, of Philadelphia, is State Councilor. The Shenandoah Council is represented.

Almost a Total Wreck.

The southern extremity of St. Patrick's church, Ashland, still continues to depress, and the once beautiful edifice is now almost a total wreck. The chances are that nothing in the way of repairing the building will be done before Spring, if at all. Most of the parishioners are in favor of erecting a new church.

Mr. Conroy to Leave.

Ex-Sheriff Andrew Conroy has sold his residence at Mahanoy City to E. P. Swank, Esq., for $4,500. It is understood Mr. Conroy contemplates locating on his farm at Nowville, near Carlisle.

Short of Cars.

All the P. & E. collieries in the Ashland and Locust trap districts were idle to-day on account of having no empty cars.

BLUNDER BY ROBBERS.

They Overlooked a Century Plant in Their Booty.

While two Hungarians of Wm. Penn named Paulack and Sokav were attending a wedding last Saturday night robbers entered their homes and about $100 in cash, two silver watches and other booty was taken from both places. To be exact, $499 in cash was carried off, but through a blunder on the part of the thieves $100 has been recovered. They took with them a cigar box which was full of receipts for money paid by the owner of the box. After getting some distance from the place of the robbery the box was opened and hurriedly examined. The thieves thought the box contained nothing but the receipts and threw it into a mine breach. The box was found yesterday by the owner, and, with much satisfaction, he found a $100 bill where he had placed it, under the papers.

Charlatan March (Sousa's latest at Brunum's).

Difficult Surgery.

In the presence of a number of visiting physicians, Dr. J. C. Biddle, superintendent of the Miners' hospital, performed a number of delicate operations in his usual skillful manner. After the clinic a collation was served. The first patient operated on was Jonathan Leidy, of Palo Alto, suffering with inflammation of the large nerve on the back of the leg and was bound down by adhesion. Dr. Biddle cut down the leg and stretched the nerve. Michael McDonald, of Conover's patch, aged 54 years, had his upper lip cut a year ago and cancer developed. The doctor cut away the whole left side of the face and removed the cancer, a very delicate operation. Louis Culbertson, the expert pool player, formerly of this town, was injured at Mahanoy City last month, a piece of timber falling on his leg, crushing it badly, and causing an ulcer. Dr. Biddle took 51 small pieces of skin from the man's leg above the knee and grafted them over the part of the limb which had been injured. All the patients were doing nicely to-day and each operation was successful.

Kendrick House Free Lunch.

Purce of pea soup will be served, free, to all patrons to-night.

Centralia's Obstreperous Directors.

The petition of the citizens of Centralia praying for the removal of their deadlocked School Board was presented to court at Bloomsburg on Monday, and the court ordered that a citation be issued against all the directors to show cause why their seats should not be declared vacant, and others be appointed in their stead. It is made returnable on Thursday, October 6th.

At Coslett's This Week.

Fine assortment of York state pears and an excellent fine stock of peaches for preserving and table purposes. Fresh lima beans, 3 cents per quart. Fine Jersey sweet potatoes, 30 cents per bush. Nice onions for pickling. York state celery. Oysters received daily direct from the beds. At John Coslett's, 36 S. Main St. 9-27-98

More Resignations.

Two more conductors have resigned from the employ of the Schuylkill Traction line. They are "Jack" Groody and James Lewis. They were employed on the Shenandoah-Girardville branch. Groody entered the service when the line was first put in operation.

Hickert's Cafe.

Bean soup, free, to-night. Rice and tomato soup to-morrow morning.

Suit Settled.

Policeman Hurley and Watchman Creary spent several hours yesterday looking for Steve Petrik, charged with nuisance and threats to kill, on each of Thomas Polycysek. After the officers succeeded in making the arrest the case was settled by the accused paying the costs.

Geraniums, fuchsias, pansies, daisies, roses, etc., for spring planting at Payne's nurseries, Girardville. Tubercase and gladiolus bulbs.

Another Soldier Dead.

Walter N. Williams, a private in Co. H, 5th Penna. Vols., died yesterday at Philadelphia, in St. Joseph's hospital, of typhoid fever. His home was in Pottsville, where his body was taken for burial. His brother, Frank, is seriously ill with the fever at Fort Meyer.
