Midnight Assault.

While John Burdess, of Brownsville, was walking along West Coal street late Saturday night, on his way home, he was set upon by George Rubolis. James Brennan, of Glover's Hill, was slightly in advance and went back to rescue Burdess. A fourth man assisted Rubolis, and Bordess and Brennan were teribly beaten. A blackjack was used on Bur-less and Dr. Church attended both victims. Rubolis was arrested late just night by Police nen Butler and Matz. He was given a hear ing before Justice Shoemaker and committed in default of $500 bail. The fourth man escaped arrest, but will no doubt be taken into custody. No reason is assigned for the assault. HIS BROTHER

Desperate Fight.

KILLED BY

of the Forehead, Causing Instant Death-It Was a Struggle to the Death Between the

One of the most sad, as well as remarkable tragedles in the history of this region occurred at Rappahannock yesterday afternoon. Michael Thompson was the victim. Whitley, Cortis Donaldson, Joseph Green. He was shot four times by his younger Benjamin Thomas, of Girardville; Albert and brother, Thomas, and the fourth shot was the fatal ove, causing death almost instantly.

While the shooting, seconding to the statements of prisoner and the witnesses, was deliberate, it is peculiarly and strikingly a case in which the survivor was put upon his defense; and, although brother against brother, one or the other had to die. It is doubtful that there is a parallel case on record. The tragedy was really the culmination of a duel following the interference of a son for the protection of his mother, shom an insune brother was about to kill.

Mrs. Bridget Thompson is a widow of about 70 years of age. Her husband's name was Authony. Mrs. Thompson is reputed to be comfortably provided for, financially, but keeps a boarding house. She has kept one for years. She had three sons and three daughters. One of the latter is married. All the children are grown up. The sons were Michael, Thomas and John. Michael was the victim of the tragedy. He was 50 years old and for the past twenty years had been of unsound mind. At times he was throughly insane, and not unfrequently the affliction took a violent form. He was re-leased from the Harrisburg asylum for the insans about eight years ago. His mother wanted him home, where he could have that care which a mother's love, and not strangers, can provide. About once a year or so Michael would give signs of violence, but they would wear off. Recently the violent stage commenced and manifested Itself, and yesterday morning the advisability of having the man sent to the asylum at Schuylkill Haven was under consideration in the

The excursion was under the supervision of Frank Bauscher and C. I. Walendam.

of Frank Bauscher and C. J. Wickersham traveling passenger agents for the Philadelphia & Reading Railway Company, and that they acquitted themselves with credit to all concerned there is no doubt.

The party left Reading at 8 o'clock on a special train of four cars drawn by engine No. 1032 of the Atlantic City routs. A stop was made at Palo Alto and the train then ran over the short line to Frackyille, where the tourists viewed the plane and haisting engines and luncheon was served. The run to town was made via Bear Run Junction and Mahanoy Plane. It was 10:55 when the train stopped at the Shenandoah City colliery. The receiving party was made up of Distric Superintendent Boyd, Mine Inspector Will ium Stein, Outside Foreman Marshal Baugh Assistant Andrew Kennedy, Inside Foremer Fred, Carl and John W. Morgan, Fire Besses Richard Reese, John Gashner, Thomas Stack and Michael Beyrant, James Dougherty and several other employes of the colliery. Also George B. Hadesty, of the Ashland civil engineering corps.
