Congressman Brumm's Defy to the People of Minersville.

The appointment of Josiah Laubenstein as postmaster at Minersville, in direct opposition to the people of that place, has caused much opposition to Congressman Brumm. The Free Press says Brumm "at first favored Robert F. Potter, a first Defender in '01, but later he turned around and he is 'deaf, dumb and blind'; then he was going to appoint John Miller, an old soldier, and went so far as to write out his endorsement, and even sent Mr. Miller to the present postmaster to find out about the allowance for clerk hire, etc., and gave him to understand that if the man just selected the clerk for him, then he was said to have sent for Laubenstein and asked him to accept the office."

"It was at this time," continued the Free Press, "that Mrs. Smith lost her husband and son, and a committee waited on the Congressman in the last belief." He told a gentleman "he would select the clerk for him, then he was said to have sent for Laubenstein and asked him to accept the office."
