PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Louisa Roberts, of North White street, is on the sick list. Michael Manley, of Locust Gap, was a business visitor to town this afternoon. The child of Robert Fritz, of North Gilbert street, has recovered from diphtheria. W. M. Brewer has returned from New York, where he spent several days on business. Mrs. Carby Egan, of East Lloyd street, has gone to Philadelphia to spend a week with relatives and friends. The Roberts family has moved from the Manning property on East Centre street to the McLaren property on the same street. Mrs. S. L. Brown yesterday shipped her household goods to Philadelphia and will join her husband in that city to-morrow. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Martin have returned from their two weeks trip West, during which they visited the exposition at Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. M. Mellet, Mrs. Patrick Ormsby, Mrs. Patrick Coury and Mrs. Mary Mellet went to Philadelphia this morning to attend the funeral of a relative. Miss Ida Williams, of West Oak street, will leave for a seminary near Harrisburg in a few days to take a course preparatory to entering the Eastern Conservatory of Music. Misses Agnes McManus, Katie Close, Mary McDermott and Margaret O'Hara, of town, attended the anniversary banquet of the Father Matthew Pioneer Corps at Mahanoy City last night.

Deaths and Funerals. Mrs. Benjamin Kelper died at her home in Brooklyn, N. Y., after a brief illness, of consumption. Her maiden name was Gatschall, and she was one of Ashland's most estimable young women.

John Keating, aged 17 years, died at the state hospital at Harrisburg yesterday. He was injured about the head in the mines several years ago, and became demented shortly afterwards. His remains arrived at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Keating, in Mahanoy City today. Mary, the one year old daughter of James Bevan, of Park Place, died yesterday after a brief illness. The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon.

The funeral of Michael Killeen, who was struck by a trolley car at Coles on Saturday night and died Sunday morning, will take place from his late home in Gilbert street to-morrow morning, interment at Resurrection. William Derr, the West Centre street barber, has received word of the death of his brother, Valentine, which occurred in Philadelphia yesterday after a lingering illness from liver trouble. The deceased was 38 years old and leaves a wife and four children. Fifteen years ago he left Shenandoah, leaving in Philadelphia, as was employed in Camp's pharmacy. The funeral will take place to-morrow.

Waldron's Big Special Horse Sale at Mahanoy City. Waldron will hold a special horse sale at Mahanoy City on Friday, the 14th inst. This will be the banner sale of them all. Every horse was selected by Waldron personally and that in itself is enough to assure the public of an exceptionally fine lot of horses. Lay everything aside and attend this big sale. If you are not in want of horses go any way and look at the finest lot of horses ever shipped to this region. It will do your eyes good. Every horse to be shown in harness. Remember it is Mahanoy City, Friday, at O'Hara's stables. Come one, come all. It

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup prevents consumption. One-fifth of the deaths in cities is from consumption, caused by neglected colds. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup always cures colds.

A Big Republican Rally. A big Republican rally took place at Pottsville last night on the occasion of the visit of the Republican state candidates. Colonel Stone, candidate for Governor, addressed the voters and other speakers elucidated the issues of the campaign. The address of Col. Stone was well received, and he took occasion to reassert that he will veto all vicious measures, such as padded pay rolls, "pinch" bills, or other unwholesome measures that demand his approval. The attendance and enthusiasm was in direct contrast to the meeting addressed by Brumm at the opening of the campaign.

Bickert's Cafe. Saut pork, pork and mashed potatoes to-night. Backwater cakes and sausage to-morrow morning.

Home For a Rest. George B. Lowrey arrived in town today from Lancaster, where he closed a successful season with the Welsh Bros. circus. His partner, Harry Jenkins, has gone to Philadelphia to spend a few days with his family. Messrs. Lowrey and Jenkins will rest here for two or three weeks, and then rejoin the Welsh Bros. to play comedy parts with their "Southern Life" company, which was very successful last season.

Soldier Murdered. One day last week we noted the death of Rudolph Goodman, a volunteer soldier, which occurred in Texas, but at that time the particulars were not known. The young man arrived from Germany about two years ago, and at the time of enlistment was employed at Schmidt's brewery in Shamokin. It is stated that the young soldier entered a saloon near where he was stationed and got into a dispute. Revolvers were drawn with the result that Goodman was instantly killed, a bullet entering a vital part of his body.

Teachers' Institute. A meeting of the local Teachers' Institute was held last evening, in the High school building. The order of business was of a routine character. The principal discussions were on penmanship and the reading table.

Changes in Depot Positions. Christ. Ferguson has resigned from the position of baggage-master at the Lehigh Valley depot and is succeeded by William Watson, whose place in the freight depot has been taken by Edward Keiter.

A Hit for Coughs and Colds. What? Pan-Fina, 35c. At Grubler Bros., drug store.

Ambly Sprained. While engaged in taking car number at the Reading freight station this morning, Joseph Schauf jumped from a pile of lumber and sustained a severe sprain of the ankle. It was necessary to remove him to his home in a wagon.

Officers Installed. District Deputy Thomas Bellis, of Shenandoah Tribe, No. 155, Improved Order of Red Men, installed the officers of Powhatan Tribe, No. 151 at Mahanoy City last evening. Next week Mr. Bellis will install the officers of the local lodge.

Preparing For Winter. A new boiler for steam heating purposes was placed in the Dougherty building, corner of Centre and Jardin streets, this afternoon.

There Never Was a Better Cure Than Pan-Fina for coughs, 35c. At Grubler Bros., drug store.

VICTIMS OF THE RIOT.

It is Believed That All of Them Will Recover.

COLLINS' SIGHT MAY BE SAVED!

He Has Been Removed to a Philadelphia Eye Hospital—The Condition of Carr and Mary Pinkey is Improved and Recovery is Looked For.

The excitement attending the pay day riot at Central is subsiding, since it has been determined that the condition of the respective victims is such that their chances for recovery is good. The feeling among some of the people of the town is still very bitter, however, especially among the friends of the injured, as only one of those hurt took a hand in the fracas that led up to the riot. The others were victims of the reckless shooting and stone throwing upon the street from the windows of the house in which the affair originated.

It was anticipated that a large number of arrests would be made, but they are limited to four men, who are charged with being the ringleaders, and no other arrests will be made. Yesterday Jacob Micholofski, the proprietor of the saloon in which the fight started, William Younsavage, Thomas Jacob and William Savage were placed under arrest and arraigned before Justice John J. Laughlin, at Central. After hearing the witnesses the Justice discharged Savage, as there was not sufficient evidence against him. The others were held in $500 bail, each, for trial at court.

This morning Aleck Rusko was taken into custody and put under $500 bail by Justice Laughlin. Rusko is the last of the men to be arrested. He has been identified as the one who beat Cornelius Carr in the saloon with the base ball bat, badly fracturing the victim's skull.

The attendants at the Miners' hospital say that Carr is better to-day, but his condition is still critical. His chances for recovery, however, are pretty fair. Thomas Collins, the young man who was shot in the eye during the riot, was to-day sent to the White Eye Hospital at Philadelphia. He was taken there by his brother. The surgeons at the Miners' hospital found that the bird shot from Micholofski's gun had entered Collins' right eye to the depth of about an inch and a half. It was supposed at first that the sight of the eye had been entirely destroyed, but more careful examination served to change the opinion and the surgeons said that if Collins should receive the treatment of specialists there was a chance for saving the sight. It was upon this that Collins' removal to Philadelphia was made.

Mary Pinkey, the little girl who was struck on the top of the head by a piece of brick, is being treated at the home of her parents in Central. Her condition is much improved and it is now believed that she will recover. George Shouffler, the man who received the charge of bird shot in the back, suffers little inconvenience.

The "Home" Dedicated. A special meeting of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., was held at Shamokin last evening. It was for the benefit of Past Grand and special and full instructions were given of the Scarlet degree. Members of the order from the different parts of the region were in attendance. The grand officers to-day attended the dedication of the Old Soldiers' Orphan Home, near Lehigh, Pa. This institution is supported by the lodges of ten counties, including Schuylkill. Shenandoah is represented in the association. The dedication was witnessed by many people and proved one of the greatest events in the history of the county. It is a fine and noble work. The following distinguished persons were among those who participated: Grand Master Samuel McKeever; Deputy Grand Master, Eben Lummis; Grand Warden, Wm. H. Rose; Grand Secretary, James B. Nicholson; Grand Marshal, James S. Montgomery; Grand Chaplain, Rev. Charles Koons and the Grand High Priest of the encampment.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has superior merit. Try it for a cough or cold and be convinced. There are many cough remedies on the market but Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is the best.

Pioneer Corps Anniversary. The Father Matthew Pioneer Corps of Mahanoy City celebrated its eighteenth anniversary last evening with an entertainment, followed by a banquet. The address of welcome was delivered by President James P. Collins in his usual eloquent and program and banquet, the guests prepared to the dance hall, where several pleasant hours were spent.

Johnson's Cafe, 36 East Centre Street. Leading oyster cafe in town. Oysters served in all styles and to your own taste.

A Large Family. It is not every mother who can blow the dinner horn and summon nineteen children, her husband, two sons-in-law, one daughter-in-law and two grand children, nor is it usual that a fortunate mother is but 40 years old. Such a remarkable mother, however, is Mrs. Samuel P. Swartwood, of Mountain Top, Luzerne county. She married at the age of fourteen years.

Danville to Darkness. The company furnishing electric street lights notified the town council of Danville Saturday night that the price was advanced. The councilmen will not accept the advance in rates and as a consequence the town will be in darkness until the matter is adjusted.

Still at Large. The officials of the Schuylkill Haven almshouse have secured no trace of Michael Chatelino, the Italian who escaped from the insane department of the institution early yesterday morning, although vigilance in that direction is being exercised.

Soldier Ill. William Thomas of North Market street, is confined to his home by illness. He is home on a furlough from Plattburg, N. Y. Thomas enlisted in the regular army here under Lieut. Siviter.

Waldron's Big Order. The Mt. Carmel Brewing Company has placed an order for eleven horses with P. G. Waldron, the Canadian horse dealer. Among them will be several fine nated teams. Mr. Waldron has sustained a wide reputation throughout this vicinity as a reliable horse-dealer.

At Payne's nursery, Girardville, you will find the largest stock ever seen in the county.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR CONCLAVE.

Brilliant Displays of Electric Lights Welcome Pittsburgh's Visitors.

Pittsburg, Oct. 11.—With the brilliancy of incandescence, emanating from nearly a half million electric lights, the convolve of the Knights Templar fairly glared last night, and today close upon 50,000 pilgrims are reveling in each other's hospitality. Except a few stragglers, every commandery which was expected to be represented has now a delegation on the ground. Souvenirs of all shapes, sizes and designs are in abundant evidence, and most of the knights are bedecked with decorations.

The sights in the streets have never been equaled in this city as far as the crowds are concerned. Street car traffic is at a standstill and vehicles of all descriptions are banished from downtown thoroughfares, while every inch of ground is monopolized by tens of thousands of pedestrians. The brilliancy of the city's street decorations marks an epoch in the history of electric illumination. Within a radius of four blocks from the heart of the city 400,000 incandescent lamps burn brightly. Huge electric crosses and other emblems of feudalism are suspended on the sides and fronts of the city's tallest buildings, and from nearly every store or shop in the downtown district.

Electioneering for the honor of holding the next convolve is in active progress. In this respect the Louisville people are apparently in the lead. They are very active, and confidently assert they will win. Yesterday afternoon the members from the Minnesota commanderies virtually gave up the contest they had expected to make in favor of St. Paul. Northern New York delegations are "plugging" for all they are worth to have the next convolve held at Niagara Falls in 1901. However, it is as yet difficult to tell what the outcome will be, because a decision will not be reached until Thursday morning.

Kendrick House Free Lunch. Grand Army bean soup will be served, free, to all patrons to-night.

The Theatres. Dan Sully and Robert Mantell were counter attractions before the theatre-going people of this town and Mahanoy City last night and, notwithstanding the fact that Sully's appearance here was in connection with a benefit for the Ancient Order of Hibernians, fully 100 people travelled over to Mahanoy City to see Mantell in "The Secret Warning." It was on this account that the audience at Ferguson's theatre last night was not as large as anticipated. Still the audience was a good sized one, and it is understood there was a good advance sale not shown by the previous night. Mr. Sully appeared in his new play "Uncle Bob" and gave one of the prettiest performances witnessed at the theatre for some time. The play differs materially from those in which Mr. Sully has heretofore appeared, but it is none the less effective. The story of the play is an impressive one, entirely devoid of the sensationalism that is so generally worked into comedy dramas. It is a simple story of the power of truth and fidelity skillfully and effectively unfolded by an excellent company. The singing by the quartette and Misses Jennie Lissenden and Daisy Chaplin was a pleasing feature. The people who witnessed Mantell's performance at Kaiser's were also well pleased.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a very efficient remedy. For coughs and colds it has no equal. It is good for adults and children. For croup and whooping-cough it is invaluable.

Monday's Motion Picture. In the case of Morris Heekman vs. Martin Heisenberger, of Shenandoah, the court directed the judgment to be stricken from the record for reasons assigned and agreement of counsel.

M. M. Burke filed petition for the appointment of Thomas E. Kelly as minor league inspector for the Third ward, Shenandoah.

Wm. Willanthus was discharged from prison under the insolvent laws; the conviction was for selling liquor without license.

Wm. Hobbs, of Mahanoy City, was also discharged under the insolvent laws, having been in prison over three months for conviction on f. and h.

Lawyer Ramsey, of Mahanoy City, asked for a subpoena divorce in the case of Emma Sneddon vs. Alex. Sneddon, and reasons were assigned.

Estate of Francis Bedford, deceased. Court order a citation to issue on J. Claude Bedford, administrator of John W. Bedford, who was the administrator of Francis Bedford, deceased, to file an account within thirty days.

TABOR TO BE OUSTED.

The Accused Contract Surgeon Must Leave the Army.

VERY WEAK CASE AGAINST HIM.

The Soldier Whom He Was Charged With Neglecting Practically Committed Suicide—But Surgeon General Sternberg Says the Officer Must Go.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The board of inquiry appointed to investigate the charges against Contract Surgeon Tabor, growing out of the death at Camp Wikoff of Private Hugh Parrett, of the Eighth infantry (regulars), has submitted its report to Secretary Alger. The board presents simply the testimony taken in the course of the inquiry, making no recommendations. The charges against Dr. Tabor, in brief, that he neglected to attend and prescribe for Private Parrett, and that the soldier's death was due directly to the negligence or incompetence of the surgeon. The evidence taken by the board shows that Dr. Tabor did prescribe for Parrett, and that he attended him twice on the day of his death. Not 15 minutes before the man died Dr. Tabor was talking to him in front of his tent. The man was then suffering from a case of acute pneumonia, superinduced by a bath which he had taken in the surf only a short time before.

Parrett had been ordered by one of the sergeants of his company to take a bath, and to go to the cook's tent to get warm water in which to bathe. For some reason Parrett did not get a bath, and to go to the beach and plunged into the cold water on his system, which was much reduced by fever and other disease, was so great that pneumonia instantly developed and he died in a short time.

The evidence further shows that Dr. Tabor was very cross, that Parrett and that he spoke to him sharply. This was accounted for in the testimony by the fact that Dr. Tabor was himself nearly ill from the effects of the hard work he had been doing, and was nervous and unstrung.

The report of the board of inquiry was referred to Judge Advocate General Leiber and by him returned to the secretary of war, with the opinion that charges against Dr. Tabor would not lie under the testimony.

Surgeon General Sternberg decided that in the circumstances, the best course to pursue would be to relieve Dr. Tabor from duty by cancelling his contract as an army surgeon. The necessary steps to this end will be taken at once.

$2.00 For a Carcase. Don't allow people to tell you that the Ashland Fertilizing Company has gone out of business. It is false, they are doing more than ever. Telephone or telegraph to them when you have a dead horse, cow or mule, and receive some reward. 10-1-11

Sixteen-Year-Old Girl Murdered. Sellersville, Pa., Oct. 11.—Daisy Smith, aged 16 years, a daughter of Henry Smith, a wealthy farmer of Sellersville, never here, was found murdered yesterday in a field near her home. The discovery was made by the girl's father, who had sent Daisy to gather some herbs which he was to compound for treatment for a sick horse. Her throat had been cut from ear to ear, which had left a hole in her head, as well as her back. William Krissinger, an ex-convict, was arrested on suspicion of being the assassin. It is thought the assassin attempted to assault her, and meeting with resistance he killed her.

Gathering of Catholic Prelates. Washington, Oct. 11.—The Catholic archbishops of the United States and a number of the prominent prelates are here to attend the annual meetings of the board of trustees of the Catholic university and the archbishops this week. That of the trustees of the university, of which Cardinal Gibbons is president, commenced today. There are no questions to come up likely to lead to long discussion. Following the disposition of the work of the trustees will be the meeting of the archbishops. There are 15 of these dignitaries in the church of the United States at this time, the archbishopric of Santa Fe being vacant, and nearly all are expected to be present.

Fitz Sues For Damages. New York, Oct. 11.—Robert Fitzsimmons filed a suit yesterday against the Gilsey House for $5,000 damages. J. H. Breslin, the proprietor, refused to serve the boxer with a meal a few days ago, and he takes exception to such treatment.

Charlatan March (Sousa's latest) at Brumm's.

The Widow Gets the "Leaving." From Pottsville Chronicle. Brumm has shaken the plum tree in Minersville, and Mrs. Smith's daughter has got a place in the postoffice in that town, at about $3.00 per week. Will this soothe the man who demanded the recognition of the widow of a patriotic husband, and the mother of a patriotic son, both of whom sacrificed their lives for their country?

Fingers Mashed. Michael Masufski had the index finger of his right hand mashed last night while spragging a car at the Kohinor colliery. George Rakus had the middle finger of his left hand mashed between a piece of coal and the frame of a car at the Maple Hill colliery yesterday afternoon. Dr. Stein attended both victims.

Dancing school in Dougherty's hall Tuesday night, cor. Jardin and Centre Sts.

Embezzlement Charged. George T. Llewellyn, the Mahanoy City insurance agent, last night appeared before Justice Toomey as complainant against John Lawlor, formerly an agent in his employ, who was charged with misappropriating $39.44 collected as premiums. The accused furnished $500 bail for trial.

Foot Injured. Thomas Cummings, employed at the West Shenandoah colliery, received a bad sprain of the left foot yesterday by laying it caught between a sill and a car. He was attended by Dr. Stein.
