THE WAR INVESTIGATORS.

Alger's Report Reveals Conflict of Authority Between Miles and Shafter. Washington, Oct. 14-After devoting yesterday afternoon to hearing the tes-timony of Dr. Goff. a chief surgeon of the Third army corps stationed at Camp Thomas, the war investigating commission gave the remainder of the day to the reading of papers submitted by Secretary Alger with his statement concerning the conduct of the war. The papers include orders for the movement of troops, communications to the secretary of war from the offi-cers in the field and from the secretary cets in the field and from the secretary to them, and various other documents bearing upon the subject of the in-vestigation. The documents reveal the fact that General Alles recommended

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 14 .-- General Nelson A. Miles was the central figure In the reception tendered to army heroes at the exposition yesterday. The crowd was by no means surgestive of the surging multitude of the day before, but it far exceeded that of ordinary occasions, Before 11 o'clock the auditorium was filled to the doors. General Miles entered the building a few minutes later, escorted by President Wattles and accompanied by his staff,

General Greely, several members of the diplomatic corps, Governor Holcomb and members of the local reception committee. President Wattles called the crowd to order, and Governor Holcomb welcomed the guests of the day. The gov-ernor alluded to General Miles as the hero of two wars, which incited a turmoil of cheers and handclapping, which did not subside until President Wattles escorted the distinguished soldier to the front of the platform, when the crowd arose and greeted him with three ringing cheers. An allusion to General Greely produced a similar demonstration, and it was repeated when Gen-eral Miles was introduced. He said:

"I am deeply gratified that the people of the west have set aside one day of this exposition in honor, of the army and navy of the United States. By the army and navy I mean each of the physical forces that has added to the strength, the perpetuity and the grandeur of the republic." The speaker contended for the neces-

The introduction of General A, W Greely was followed by another hearty demonstration. His sympathetic ref-erence to General Wheeler, who had been expected to speak at this time, but who was trying to do his duty in the face of his terrible bereavement, was heard with a silence that was an eloquent expression of the sympathy of the maladministration of the quarter-the audience. Senor Gonzales de Quesada received a greeting that carried all the hearty enthusiasm that had characterized those which had been extended to the previous speakers. He declared that the emotions that almost mastered him at this moment were sufficient proof that Cuba was not ungrateful. He eloquently plctured the desolation in Cuba, but declared that there is one flower that still blossoms, and this was the gratitude of the heroes of the three generations to the people who had fought side by side with them to give them liberty. The exercises were concluded with a short address by Senator Allen, who spoke in behalf of the veterans of the civil war.
