A Croup Cure

is what many a mother is looking for; something absolutely safe and reliable, that will disarm her terror of that dread rattling, strangling cough, so fearful to the mother, so fatal to the child. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a croup cure that can be relied on. Thousands say so.

Mrs. W. J. Dickson ("Stanford Evelett") writes from Truro, N.S.:—"That terror of mothers, the startling, croupy cough, never alarmed me so long as I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house."

"We have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in our family for years. Once when our boy had a severe attack of croup, we thought that he would die. But we broke up the attack by using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."

MRS. SHERMAN STRICKEN.

The Wife of the Ex-Premier a Victim of Paralysis.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Sherman, wife of former Secretary of State John Sherman, suffered a stroke of paralysis yesterday and now lies at her K street home in a very critical condition. As has been her custom for many years Mrs. Sherman rose early yesterday morning. A few minutes afterwards, while undressed in the bath room, she was stricken with paralysis and fell to the floor unconscious. Mr. Sherman, who was in an adjoining apartment, heard her fall, and immediately summoned the servants. Dr. W. W. Johnston and Dr. Frank Hyatt responded to the call for physicians and have remained with Mrs. Sherman most of the time since. The stroke has affected her entire right side, and even in brief periods of consciousness she is unable to speak. She recovers consciousness at times, but has not spoken a word since she was stricken. At one time last night she evidently recognized Mr. Sherman, who had been constantly at her bedside during the day. Mrs. Sherman's health always had been exceptionally good, and while she is well advanced in years, her physicians hold out the hope that she may recover from the present attack, although they realize that the chance is small.

THE PRESIDENT AT ST. LOUIS.

In a Speech in Iowa He Favours Acquisition of Territory.

St. Louis, Oct. 14.—President McKinley and his party reached this city at 9:30 this morning, and were met at the railway station by a monster crowd. The police had great difficulty in escorting the party to carriages in waiting, and the route from the station to the hotel was lined by a dense mass of cheering citizens, and the president was accorded a continuous ovation as he passed along, bowing right and left to the enthusiastic greetings.

Yesterday was a day of speechmaking for the chief executive. At every station where the train stopped he spoke to the assembled multitudes. At Charleston, Ia., the president's remarks were particularly significant. He said: "We have been very fortunate as a nation in the last six months. We have made much progress in a very little while. We have almost lost sight of the fact, in talking about our war, that we have made some very substantial gains without resort to arms. We have the people of Hawaii, that came to us free and independent and asked to be annexed to the United States. And, my fellow citizens, wherever our flag flies, wherever we raise that standard of liberty, it is always for the sake of humanity and the advancement of civilization. Territory sometimes comes to us when we go to war in a holy cause, and whenever it does, the banner of liberty will float over it and bring, I trust, blessings and benefits to all of the people."

THE lessons of the late war are many. Not the least of them is that the American is invincible. Just as Uncle Sam is without a peer in the sombre theatre of war so The Mammoth Clothing House [L. Goldin, Prop.] is without a rival in the field of Clothing. Here are a few of our "trade inducers": Fine Blue and Black Overcoats are going at $5, none better in the market for $8.50. French Clay suits, $5.85, can't be duplicated by any other house for less than $8.50. We have a big stock of other goods at equally low prices. Our big business justifies us in reducing prices to meet the wants of the people. The greater our business grows, the lower our prices become. Besides this our expenses are very small. We don't pay high rents and we are not dependent altogether on the clothing business for our living. That is the reason we can undersell any other clothing house in the county. We don't need to multiply words. Everybody knows that Goldin carries the largest and finest stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's Overcoats. All we ask of the public is to call and look over our line of goods. Our garments are marked. We don't ask ten different prices for each piece. All are marked in plain figures, and we allow 10 per cent. off besides. Don't be afraid that you overpay for clothing in our store. If we don't sell 20 per cent. cheaper than any other house in Schuylkill county we give you ten days in which to return the goods, and will return your money. Remember the Big Store.
