DEATH FROM APOPLEXY.

H. L. Talley, President of the Home Friendly Society, the Victim. Bernard L. Talley, Sr., president of the Home Friendly Society, of Baltimore, Md., who came here a few days ago with his wife and two youngest children to spend a week with his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McKernan, died suddenly shortly after midnight Saturday from apoplexy. The announcement of the death was a shock to the many friends of the deceased and the family has the deepest sympathy of the community.

Shortly after seven o'clock Saturday night Mr. Talley entered the stationery store of Michel Mellet on East Centre street. He took a seat and engaged in conversation with Mr. Mellet, being apparently in good health and spirits. Suddenly he seemed to stagger and immediately fell prostrate on the floor. Mr. Talley was about to vomit. The former hurriedly procured a vessel and the victim vomited freely two or three times, with short intervals. Mr. Mellet offered to call a physician, but to this Mr. Talley objected. He also appeared to procure a bottle of medicine, which he proceeded to take. He soon after he lapsed into unconsciousness, and then the cab of the Hotel Franey was procured and the victim was removed to Mr. McKernan's home on North White street.

Upon arrival at the home it became apparent that Mr. Talley's condition was very serious and hasty calls were sent out for physicians. Drs. S. C. Spalding, J. Pierce Roberts, D. J. Langston and C. E. Shoemaker, the latter a visitor to town from Baltimore, responded and the case was pronounced one of apoplexy. Mr. Talley lingered until 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning, when he expired without having regained consciousness. Mrs. Talley was almost prostrated by the shock.

Mr. Talley was 59 years of age and is survived by three children, B. L. Talley, Jr., a son by his first marriage and who is vice president of the Society of which the deceased was president, and Gerald and Della, children by the second marriage and aged 4 and 2 years, respectively. The deceased was a man of marked business tact and ability. When the Knights of Labor were in a prosperous condition in this region Mr. Talley was one of the most active and influential of their members. He subsequently founded the People's M. A. Life Insurance Company in this town and after successfully conducting it for some time he disposed of his interest in it and went to Baltimore, Md., where he reorganized the Home Friendly Society of that city. About a year later he opened negotiations by which the insurance company was founded here was absorbed by the Baltimore company. His management of the company was so successful that he amassed a fortune in the past ten years and was preparing to retire when he would be enabled to enjoy the fruits of his labors. The company has a magnificent building of its own on one of the principal business thoroughfares of Baltimore and Mr. Talley recently had a palatial residence erected for his family on the suburbs of the city, but had not taken possession of it, as it was not quite ready.

During his residence in Baltimore Mr. Talley became prominent in all public movements in the city and was influential in financial and social circles. He was past president of the Holy Name Society connected with St. Gregory's church, past president of St. Pius Council No. 29, Catholic Benevolent League, and a member of the Knights of Columbus, all of Baltimore. It is expected a number of the prominent citizens of that city will attend the funeral. Telegrams announcing the death were sent to Baltimore on Sunday morning and on Monday morning B. L. Talley, Jr., accompanied by George A. Chase, secretary of the Home Friendly Society, and Mrs. George A. Chase, arrived.

Arrangements have been made to have the funeral take place from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McKernan, on North White street, at nine o'clock Wednesday morning. Requiem High mass will be celebrated by Rev. H. P. O'Reilly in the Church of the Annunciation, on West Cherry street, and the remains will be interred in the Annunciation cemetery.

Accidentally Killed. Fatal Result of a Hunting Expedition Near Ashland. Peter McDonald, aged 24 years, was accidentally shot and instantly killed by one of his two companions while on a hunting expedition near Ashland yesterday.

Return of Thanks. To the Officers of the Home Friendly Society of Baltimore, Md., Mr. George A. Chase, Secretary: I desire to return my sincere thanks to the officers of your company for the promptness with which the claim of two hundred and thirty-seven dollars ($27.00) paid to me for my beloved son, John Lawlor, was met. Your superintendent, William T. Evans, and agent, Lewis Hughes, paid the claim in full within twenty-four hours after it became due. I heartily recommend your company to the consideration of any of my friends who may contemplate life insurance.

THE HUNT FRUITLESS.

Officers Phillips and Creary Travel to Hazleton. They Failed to Find the Missing Murderer of Constable Dando, But Found the Former's Son at the Address They Had Received Secretly.

An unsuccessful chase after Wojczyk Blasecki, the fugitive murderer of Constable Dando, closed at Hazleton today. Last night Constable Phillips received an anonymous note telling him that Blasecki was in hiding at a Polish saloon at No. 199 Wyoming street, Hazleton, and that the fugitive's son, William Blasecki, left town last night to go to Hazleton and give his father assistance to get away from that place. Phillips and Watchman Creary left here after nine o'clock last night. As they failed to return, or send any message here up to noon today, Justice Shoemaker became fearful that the two officers might have met with an accident. This afternoon the HERALD opened telephone communication with Chief of Police Ferry, of Hazleton, through the courtesy of the Hazleton Standard.

Chief Ferry stated that Phillips and Creary arrived at Hazleton between three and four o'clock this morning. About an hour later they found William Blasecki in the saloon at 199 Wyoming street, but could get no trace of the father. William was placed under arrest and Chief Ferry found $35 in the man's clothes. The son protested that, instead of traveling to Hazleton to aid his father, he had made the journey to help the police get some tidings of the fugitive. He was asked what he intended doing with the money found on his person, and he said he took it with him to pay a butcher bill at Freeport.

This morning Watchman Creary left Hazleton in company with William Blasecki to go to Freeport and investigate the latter's story about the butcher bill. Constable Phillips remained in Hazleton to await the return of the pair, and at the same time keep watch on several places in Hazleton.

Chief Ferry said that Phillips and Creary would start for home late this afternoon and William Blasecki would probably accompany them. Umbrellas all prices. Also umbrellas recovered while you wait. At Brumm's.

The following officers were elected: President, Rev. R. Abbin, pastor; secretary, Miss Mattie Price; organist, Miss Nellie Davies. The next meeting will be held on Friday, 25th inst.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup always cures coughs and colds. It is a poor economy to neglect a cold when a bottle of this reliable remedy will relieve and cure it at once. Price only 25c. Badly Scalded. The Shenandoah Fertilizing plant, near the Cambridge colliery, was the scene of a painful accident at 5 o'clock this morning. James Foltz, employed on the night shift, residing at 21 East Cherry street, put a full head of steam into one of the vats, and when he took off the lid the water boiled over the top and over Foltz, scalding his back, the right side of his body, his arm, face and head. Foltz was removed to his home and put under treatment of Dr. J. C. Church, who says the injuries are not dangerous.

Collector Scanlan's Bond. Messrs. T. J. Higgins, T. J. Attorney J. R. Coyne has arranged with Borough Solicitor M. M. Burke to take testimony on the rule this week. The duplicate of 1894 has been settled by the Borough Council, but the bondsmen were not released pending the settlement of the other duplicates.

CONSTABLE DANDO BURIED

The Funeral One of the Largest in the Town's History. The funeral of Constable John Dando, who was shot and killed by Wojczyk Blasecki, took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence on West Cherry street and the attendance was one of the largest ever seen at a funeral in the town. All the borough officials, a large percentage of all prominent people in the town, and many from the towns of Watersport and Hazleton were present to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory of the victim. A number of beautiful floral offerings were placed upon the casket. The assemblage was so large that hundreds of people were unable to get near the residence to follow the funeral service, which was in progress. It was conducted by Rev. James Moore, pastor of the Primitive Methodist church. J. P. Williams & Son were the funeral directors.

The deceased was buried with full military honors. The cortege was headed by the residential band of the funeral service, G. A. R., of which the deceased was an esteemed member, and Henry Horncastle Camp No. 49, Sons of Veterans, were in line. The pall bearers were selected from those who served in the same company with the deceased during the civil war. They were John Williams and James Welch, of Severn Post No. 110, G. A. R., of Mahanoy City; Thomas H. May, Benjamin Becher, Fred. H. Hopkins, Sr., and John Grady, members of Watkin Waters Post. The remains were interred in the Old Fellows' cemetery and the parting salute was fired by the firing squad of the Sons of Veterans. Several members of the 4th and 8th Regts. Pa. Vol., were also in attendance at the funeral.

The inquest. Saturday night the inquest on Dando's death was held by Deputy Coroner Manley and a jury. The examination was conducted by Deputy District Attorney Moran and the evidence was taken by Court Reporter Martin Moore. Little time was consumed, as the evidence bearing upon the shooting was direct and clear. Chief of Police Murphy told his story of the case, which did not differ in any material respect from that already published.

Mrs. Nellie Lakowicz, Blasecki's daughter, was also a witness, but her narrative indicated that she must have suffered under great mental excitement at the time of the shooting, or her memory is very defective. However, the evidence did not affect the material points in the case. It has been stated that after Dando was taken from the house she was in the kitchen when her father left the stairway, and that he said to her as he was hurriedly leaving the house, "Good-by, I am going to the 'Squire's office.'" Mrs. Lakowicz says the remark was made when her father went upstairs before Dando's second attempt to shoot her. She says she did not see her father when he left the house, and does not know how he got out. Dr. W. N. Stein was called to testify as to the injury inflicted and the result of the autopsy. He said he took fourteen of the hind shot from the body of the victim. The verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to his death by a gunshot wound at the hands of Wojczyk Blasecki.

Several members of the Borough Council yesterday authorized Chief Burgess Tabler to offer a reward of $200 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer. Bickler's Cafe. Potato salad and sausage to-night. Vegetable soup to-morrow morning. L. J. Wilkinson's Cloaks and Dress Goods. To look beautiful is part of woman's mission. From the beginning every age every season has marked a higher development in the adornment of woman, by style in her garments.

It is a woman's right, then, to adorn herself as becomingly as possible—to look beautiful. Therefore, when choosing an outer garment—the principal garment in woman's dress at this season of the year—everything being equal, the one having the approved style is the one you should have. It is plain then that they who want to be properly dressed, to have outer garments of the approved style, must "pin their faith" to a make that can be relied upon for being absolutely right in that particular. It has been our aim every year to excel in excellence of quality and our popular low prices are our best advertisement; our twenty years' experience in buying and selling places us in the front rank of local dealers and we cordially invite the ladies of this and adjoining counties to come and see if we can't do better than others. A store like ours can't afford to make a statement we can't prove. Come and see us for Ladies' Caps or Jackets and Children's garments, Dress Goods, Carpets, etc.
