country and the number increasing. has already become the National Disease. we to become a nation of Catarrhites? It looks like it.

The Aberiginal Indians are said not to have nown the disease. That proces it is not caused our climate and must have been imported, a growth was slow but persistent. Forty ars ago there were less than 40.000 cases in by our climate and must have been imported. Its growth was slow but persistent. Forty years ago there were less than 40.003 cases in the U.S., to day there are 20 million. Soon there will be 30 million. Where is it to end? Shall we not awake till it has fastened its fangs on every man, women and child in the hand flow shall we prevent it unless we take immediate and vigorous steps to stamp out the plague? This putrid disease knows no sex, no class, no station. It is everywhere. A germ (microbe) disease it spreads by contagion. The carion breath and expectoration of the poor victim are loaded with these microbes. Others breath them in, they find lodgement and never release their hold till the victim lies down in death, unless every microbe is killed. But can they be killed? Yes, but not by any "blood medicine." No Catarrh germ was ever found in the blood. The trouble's local and must be treated locally. A balsam has been discovered that is sure death to the Catarrh microbe, making a radical and permanent care. It is Brazilian Baim. It has cared tens of thousands in the past it years. It also care when the control of control is parts. pernament cure. It is Brazilian Baim. It has cared tens of thousands in the pool is years. It also cares all the troubles caused by Catarrh, as Sore Throat. Old Coughs, Bronchitis, Asthme and Lang troubles. The swallowing of the Catarrh pas makes the Stomach raw and alectrated. The Brazilian Balm soon makes a radical care of the Stomach and allorentary canal. It is the cheapest remedy on the market, a $1.60 bottle containing a whole month's treatment. Last night a boy excitedly notified Police nan Uraitis, on West Centre street, that a man was cutting another's throat with a razor in a house on West Line street. The policeman hurried to the place indicated and found Jacob Berkawicz, of Shamokin, calmly eated in a chair while the proprietress of the house, Mrs. Amelia Langowski, stood before the man, scolding him, and threatening him with arrest. No cutting had been done. Upon the woman's demand the Sha-mokin man was taken to Justice Bhoemaker's office. Some excitement was caused along the route taken to the office, by reports that the prisoner was Bialecki. At the hearing Mrs. Longowski said Berkawicz left her house last week owing her a board bill to the amount of $8.40. He returned yesterday and, when she refused to give him his cloth ing unless he would pay the bill, he threatened to "fix" her and her husband. The woman said she was afraid of the man, be cause he frequently threatened to cut people's throats and it was known that he made a Felt Hats of every description and shade at practice of carrying a mzor.
