ONE point in the short speech which President McKinley made in Philadelphia during the peace jubilee St. Louis deserves and will receive particular attention. "I congratulate you," he remarked, "upon the splendid outlook for the business future of our country. We were never before so well off as we are to-day. Industrial despair no longer hangs over us. We have gone from business depres sion to business prosperity. We have gone from labor hunting employment to employment hunting labor.

STRIKING proof of a change for the better which, almost unnoticed, has taken place in what may be called the theological attitude of civilized men and women, says the Philadelphia Star, is given by the studied moderation marking the comments of both religious and secular papers on the recent widely published assertion by a Surgeon at Camp Wikoff that the Sisters of Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Riotous solutors in Virginia. Newpert News, Va., Oct. 19,-A riot occurred at a saloon in Phoebus late. last night. Five regulars from Fort Monroe were shot, one being killed and another mortally wounded. No civilians were hurt. It is understood that the men were shot by the proprietor or employes of the saloon, which is owned by P. F. Eagan. After the shooting the soldiers set five to the saloon. After continuing their threatening demon-strations for some time the riotous sol-diers were taken in custody by a detail from Fort Monroe.

It was announced that the ceremonles would commence at 10:30 a. m., and fully an hour prior to that time the street in front of the Auditorium was packed with an eager crowd.
