LIENS FILED.

The Borough Secures Itself For the Laying of Pavements.
Chief Burgess Tabor, through Borough Solicitor M. M. Burke, to-day filed municipal liens at Pottsville to secure the borough for the expense it recently incurred in laying pavements where property owners refused or neglected, to comply with the notices served by the Burgess. The thirty days will soon expire and then the borough will proceed to collect the amounts with costs.

HOISTING ACCIDENT.

A Defective Indicator Caused Trouble at Packer No. 3 Colliery.
While the engine was hoisting at the slope of Packer No. 3 colliery Saturday morning and running with full steam, the indicator got out of order and the car was jerked to the top with such force that several timbers were knocked out. The car was stopped before it went over the dump. Temporary repairs were made and the colliery continued work for the balance of the day. Workmen were busy all of yesterday repairing the damage and the colliery resumed operations this morning.

A Klondiker Dead.

A telegram was received last night by Mrs. Elizabeth Greaser, of Ashland, from her sons, Joseph and Jacob Greaser, of Shinnock, stating that they had received a telegram from Seattle, Washington, announcing that their brother, John, had been drowned in the Lewis river, in the Klondike. The deceased left Ashland last spring in company with his cousin, Nicholas Greaser, who went on a prospecting expedition to the gold fields. A letter received from them on Aug. 24th, last, stated that the party had established a camp at Dawson City and intended remaining there for the winter. The presumption is that Greaser was drowned while prospecting on the river. The accident occurred about a month ago. It took three weeks to get the news from Dawson City to Seattle. The deceased and his party had not been successful in their expedition up to the time the last letter was received.

Christian Endeavor Officers.

The two-day session of the Christian Endeavor closed in Pottsville on Saturday afternoon. It was a most successful convention in every way, the reports from the committees showing that the union is gaining strength, and an increase in the number of societies. The following officers were elected: President, Prof. J. M. Schrepe, Delano; Vice Presidents, all the presidents of the local societies in the Union; Recording Secretary, Miss Anna Dengler, of Shenandoah; Assistant Recording Secretary, to be filled by appointment by Miss Dengler, from one of the Shenandoah societies; District Secretary, C. B. Silliman, Pottsville; Treasurer, Miss Kate Devine, Mahanoy; Superintendent, Cor. Superintendent Committee, P. L. Swank, Delano; Superintendent Missionary Work and Tenth Legion, W. A. Schminkey, Ashland; Superintendent of Good Citizenship, open; Superintendent Evangelistic Work, open. The next convention will be held at Port Carbon.

Bickers' Cafe.

Wiener sausage and potato salad to-night. Buckwheat cakes and sausage to-morrow morning.

Substitute Appointed.

Harry Reese, of South Jardin street, has been appointed substitute letter carrier to succeed Joseph H. Stanley, resigned. The latter is engaged in business at Northampton, and, therefore, was unable to perform the duties of the position. Mr. Reese is a young man who will prove a worthy substitute to the place. He passed a very creditable civil service examination some time ago. He is active and industrious, and his qualifications generally make his appointment a good one. Mr. Reese started upon his first day a service to-day, serving the route of Corner Reilly, who was in attendance at the funeral of a relative.

Kendrick House Free Lunch.

Vegetable soup will be served, free, to all patrons to-night.

A Christening.

William, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wilkinson, was christened after the last mass in the Church of the Annunciation, on West Cherry street, yesterday morning by Rev. Vincent Corcoran, the curate of the church. The God parents were Mr. P. J. Devers, a brother of the child's mother, and Miss Marie Donovan. In celebration of the event a musicale was given at the family residence in the afternoon. An elaborate dinner and supper were served, the relatives and employes of Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson being in attendance.

Johnson's Cafe, 36 East Centre Street.

Leading oyster cafe in town. Oysters served in all styles and to your own taste.

Rule Granted.

The court at Pottsville this morning granted a rule allowing Borough Solicitor M. M. Burke to take testimony on 48 hours notice in behalf of the borough in the case wherein Mrs. Mary Mellet asks that her name be stricken from the bonds of Tax Collector Scanlan for the year 1895-6, on the ground that she never signed the bonds.

HEROES OF THE WAR!

Who Will Participate in Philadelphia's Peace Jubilee. THE CITY GAYLY DECORATED.

Elaborate Preparations For Making the Celebration a National Fete of Greater Magnitude Than Any Public Function in Many Years Past.

Philadelphia, Oct. 24.—The peace jubilee began yesterday. It fittingly opened with special services of prayer and thanksgiving in all the churches of the city, irrespective of creed and doctrine. Sermons were preached on the inevitable horrors of war and the consequent blessings of victorious peace and there were services of song and worship on these themes. This was the spiritual inauguration. The material and spectacular beginning will not be until tomorrow. The celebration has gradually but surely broadened into a national fete of greater magnitude than any public function in many years past. In it will participate the president and the vice president of the United States, with the officers of their cabinet; General Miles, General Wheeler and other military notables, Commodore Phillip, Hobson and four other heroes of the Merrimac and scores of naval warriors of lesser fame. Captain Sigbee, the ill-fated Merrimac, will march in Thursday's military parade in command of a battalion of sailors, while Colonel Huntington will march at the head of 500 marines. The principal ships that will take part in tomorrow's naval review are the Texas, Oregon, Pensacola, Dolphin, Columbia, Minneapolis, Winslow, Hudson, Olivette, Morrill and Albatross. The turning point of the line will be where the Japanese cruiser Kasagi lies at anchor, off Cramps' shipyard, where she was lately built. While she will have no active part in the jubilee, she will be dressed for the occasion with the Stars and Stripes, as well as with the more ornate decorations of the Orient. Many of the ships are already moored at their respective positions, but will not be dressed until tomorrow morning. At 1 o'clock tomorrow the fleet will leave Pine street wharf on the yacht May to find the parade of steamers which will pass the fleet of war vessels. In the evening there will be a grand illumination of the warships, the Court of Honor and city hall.

On Wednesday at 10 a. m. the re-dedication of Independence Hall takes place, and at 11 a. m. the civic parade starts from Broad and Cumberland streets. That afternoon the president, vice president and members of the cabinet arrive, and in the evening the parade will leave Pine street wharf on the yacht May to find the parade of steamers which will pass the fleet of war vessels. In the evening there will be a grand illumination of the warships, the Court of Honor and city hall.

The decorations throughout the city are lavish and beautiful. Broad street, from end to end of the five mile route, wears a wooden aspect to-day. Heretofore the route has been lined with huge stacks of lumber, the pathway left open under the lines of stands seeming to the pedestrian like a long arcade. Scarcely a single sidewalk in the whole distance is left uncovered. These great woodpiles, many of which reach almost to the heavens at night, are now surmounted by an enormous structure of white galleons, of the piece de resistance is the Court of Honor, from a stand in the center of which President McKinley will look at the parades. It consists of a succession of massive white columns, at each side of Broad street, extending from Chestnut to Walnut streets. Each of the columns is surmounted by a great eagle and globe of shimmering gold, while the four at the ends bear the legends, "San Juan," "El Caney," "Manila" and "Santiago." In the center of the street is spanned by the magnificent triumphal arch. This is simple, but impressive, the prevailing tone being white and gold. It is elaborately festooned with flags by day and illuminated by a beautiful scheme of incandescent lights at night. The arch is surmounted by an enormous figure of victory mounted on chariots. On the south front appears the quotation: "The Star Spangled Banner. Then conquer we must while our cause is just." On the north front appears: "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." The archway between the columns will be flags by day and red, white and blue electric lights by night, arranged in picturesque intervals to symbolize the Stars and Stripes. From the top of the arch will fly the flag which fluttered at the topmast of the Dewey's fleet, but here it will be on the flagstaff raised by Shafter at Santiago.

The auxiliary displays in front of the Union League and the Lippincott mansion, which flank the Court of Honor on either side, will make the whole scheme of decoration one of unparalleled splendor and brilliancy. The arch is surmounted by an enormous figure of victory mounted on chariots. On the south front appears the quotation: "The Star Spangled Banner. Then conquer we must while our cause is just." On the north front appears: "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." The archway between the columns will be flags by day and red, white and blue electric lights by night, arranged in picturesque intervals to symbolize the Stars and Stripes. From the top of the arch will fly the flag which fluttered at the topmast of the Dewey's fleet, but here it will be on the flagstaff raised by Shafter at Santiago.

The influx of visitors has taxed roads and hotels to the limit of their best efforts, and the down town streets are literally jammed. It is estimated that over 500,000 visitors from this and other states are here, and the inward rush continues hourly. In an effort to give all of these sufficient accommodations the jubilee committee some time ago established a bureau of information, and homes and boarding houses all over town are receiving the strangers.

A thorough system of emergency relief has been established along the route of the parades, and ambulances with corps of doctors and nurses will be placed at intervals, with telephone connections.

The first fatality of the celebration occurred yesterday. James Sweeney, aged 47 years, fell from the stand in course of erection for city councils and suffered injuries from which he shortly afterwards died.

HEROES OF SANTIAGO, Including the Fighting Musicians, For Philadelphia's Jubilee.

Plattsburg, N. Y., Oct. 24.—Three hundred men of the Twenty-first infantry, under Major Boyle, left for Philadelphia today on a special train over the Delaware and Hudson railroad. Only those who were at Santiago were ordered out. The regiment will be accompanied by their band, called the fighting musicians, who threw away their instruments and seized guns from fallen comrades, joining in the charge on San Juan. Only 20 of the original 38 bandmen are left to go to Philadelphia. The regiment will carry the colors presented to them by Mrs. McKinley, and which gave them the title of the "President's Own"; also the colors presented by a New York lady as a tribute to the gallant charge of the regiment around San Juan hill when they took a position nearer to the Spanish lines than other American troops and as they repulsed a Spanish attack sang the "Star Spangled Banner."

Umbrellas all prices. Also umbrellas covered while you wait. At Brumm's.

L. J. Wilkinson's Cloaks and Dress Goods.

To look beautiful is part of woman's mission. From the beginning every age every season has marked a higher development in the adornment of woman, by style in her garments. It is a woman's right, then, to adorn herself as becomingly as possible—to look beautiful. Therefore, when choosing an outer garment—the principal garment in woman's dress at this season of the year—everything being equal, the one having the approved style is the one you should wear. It is plain then that they who want to be properly dressed, to have outer garments of the approved style, must "join their faith" to a make that can be relied upon for being absolutely right in that particular. It has been our aim every year to excel in excellence of quality and our popular low prices are our best advertisement; our twenty-one years' experience in buying and selling places us in the front rank of local dealers and we cordially invite the ladies of this and adjoining counties to come and see if we can't do better than others. A store like ours can't afford to make a statement we can't prove. Come and see us for Ladies' Capes or Jackets and Children's Garments, Dress Goods, Carpets, etc.

The celebrated McCall Sewing Machine Patterns only 10 or 15 cents, none higher and none better.

New Trial Refused.

Judge Albright has filed an opinion at Pottsville in the case of Martin Gensky vs. Harris Rubinsky, Israel Rubinsky, Thomas Bolin, John Dando and Israel Lauterstein; March term, 1893, for new trial and arrest of judgment; argued Sept. 30, 1893. This case dates back to an attachment executed in 1887, levied on the goods of Gensky in this town. The jury found against Harris Rubinsky for $375, and further found specially that of said sum $300 was compensation and $75 punitive damages. This specification of the two kinds of damages was pursuant to instructions in the general charges. The court in summing up states that there is no evidence entitling the plaintiff to recover punitive damages; that the verdict ought to stand for the residue on the verdict judgment is now entered for $300, and as to said $75 punitive damages, judgment is entered for the defendant non obstante verdicto. The rules for new trial and in arrest of judgment are discharged.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures coughs and colds. Don't go to church or public meetings and disturb the audience by incessant sneezing, but use this wonderful remedy at once.

Rev. Vincent Corcoran will preach.

Rev. Vincent Corcoran, curate of the Church of the Annunciation, of town, will preach at the Forty Hours' devotion services at Mahanoy Place to-night.

ROBBER CAUGHT!

He Got Away With Nearly Four Hundred Dollars. WAS TRACED TO BROWNSVILLE!

When Searched After Arrest the Thief Claimed to Have Earned the Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars Found on His Person. Held For Trial.
Peter Stopalitis, a poorly dressed, short, stoop-shouldered, and anything but intelligent looking Lithuanian, was committed to the county jail Saturday night by Justice Shoenaker in default of $2500 on a charge of robbery. What the prisoner lacks in intelligence he evidently makes up in criminal craftiness, for he succeeded in making a good haul in Mahanoy City and successfully eluded arrest for a week, despite the fact that officers trailed him closely for that time. The complaint was John Brazukas, a boarding house keeper of Mahanoy City, who said that the prisoner was a boarder in his house. During the early morning hours of Oct. 17th the prisoner left the house under the pretext that he was ill and intended seeking relief at East Centre street, and it was subsequently found that he had broken open Brazukas' trunk, from which he secured $370 in cash and clothing valued at four dollars. Stopalitis was traced to Wm. Penn, and then to this town. On Friday it was learned that he had ordered a suit of clothes at a tailor shop on East Centre street, and paid for the clothes in advance. He was to be called for the suit Saturday night. The shop was watched by officers all day Saturday and during the night, but the man failed to show up. Another man called for the suit, but it was not ready for delivery and the messenger was told to call again. Shortly before midnight Saturday Chief Burgess Tabor and Constable Phillips received a tip that caused them to visit Brownsville and in passing a house at that place they saw a man who proved to be Stopalitis standing at the door. They arrested him and he was arraigned before Justice Shoenaker. Stopalitis protested his innocence. He was searched and two pocketbooks containing in all $240.30 were taken from his person. He insisted that he had earned the money by working in the mines. The prosecutor identified him. Several men from Gilberton were also present and identified the prisoner as a man who had boarded in their respective boarding houses at different times and robbed them, but the amounts were so small they did not wish to bother with suits. After some parleying the prisoner said he would surrender the money found on his person to the prosecutor if the suit would be dropped. Justice Shoenaker said that could not be done, but that if the prisoner was satisfied the money would be returned to the owner. Stopalitis was not satisfied with the proposition. He reiterated that he had not stolen the money and that he had saved it from earnings in the mines. When asked why he had offered to return it, he said he had done so because it would be cheaper to lose the money than to go to the expense of attending court to prove his innocence. This story was too fishy for the Justice and he promptly closed the hearing and committed the prisoner. The money recovered has been deposited with the court pending the trial.

A Girl Doing the Hobo Act.

Mary Lennon, a sixteen-year-old girl, who formerly resided at Locust Gap, has been in town the past several days and tells a conflicting tale of being abandoned by her parents, who are at present residing at Pottsville, near Scranton. The girl came here from Schuylkill Haven, where she had been employed as a domestic. Her destitute condition aroused sympathy and she has virtually been doing the hobo act. The overseers of the poor were enlisted in her cause to-day and will furnish her with transportation to Scranton.

Deaths and Funerals.

The funeral of Elizabeth Parritt, eighteen-year-old daughter of William Parritt, took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence at Lost Creek No. 2. Services were conducted at the residence and subsequently at the Protestant Episcopal church in town, Rev. G. W. VanFossen officiating at both. The remains were interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. J. P. Williams & Son, were the funeral directors.

The funeral of John Manley, Sr., took place this morning from the family residence on West Cherry street and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. The remains were conveyed to the Church of the Annunciation, where Rev. H. F. O'Reilly, the pastor, celebrated requiem high mass. Interment was made in the Annunciation cemetery. The funeral was directed by J. J. Franey. The pall bearers were Messrs. James Bell, T. J. Mullahay, Patrick Connors, John Scanlan, Henry Flaherty and P. J. Gaughan.

THE MAN WITH THE HAMMER!

The man who wields the hammer with the most flourish and makes the most noise isn't always the one who drives the nails the best. His nails may be bent, his hammer poor, and when the day's work is done he'll be behind. We drive bargains, not nails, but our stock is up in quality. The blows of our hammer are accurate and regular. We are making a winning record every day in our GROCERY line.
