WHAT IT MEANS.

Shenandoah Is Learning it, Learning It Fast—Proof not Lacking.

Everybody has it.
That tired feeling.
Don't know what it means.
Keeps you awake at night.
Destroys daily comfort.
Wearies the body. Worries the mind.
You would shake it off.
You would be healthful and strong.
So you can.
If you go at it right.
First learn what it means
Some say it's bad blood.
Others say it's a lazy liver.
They're all wrong.
Tired feeling means tired kidneys.
Just as Lame back means Lame Kidneys.
And Backache means Kidney Ache.
How do we know it?
Because Doan's Kidney Pills cure it.
And they are for kidneys only.
How can we prove it?
Because the public say so.
Here is a case in point:

Mrs. Wm Gradwell, of 28 North Gilbert street, says: "I had no trouble with my back unt I about four years ago but from that time on it was quite severe and seemed to be of the nature of a pain across my loins and when standing much an aching took me across my back. At times there was considerable pain between my shoulders. The kidney secretions were not normal and caused an uncomfortable feeling. I had a tired sensation mornings which made me lose all my energy. I became interested in Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them from Kirlin's drug store and though I did not take a whole box I found thorough relief from the troubles. I am quite free from them all now and I consequently have no hesitance in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills as a valuable preparation for the kidneys."

A DENIAL FROM FRANCE

Semi-Official Note Discredits Alarming War Rumors.

THE FRENCH FASHODA BOOK.

It Does Not Include Major Marchand's Report, Which Will Be Published Later—An Endeavor to Exalt the Mission of Major Marchand.

Paris, Oct. 24.—A semi-official note issued last evening says: "There is no foundation for the alarmist rumors regarding the relations between France and Great Britain. It is equally incorrect to say that extraordinary measures have been taken at any of our naval ports."

The Fashoda yellow book is voluminous, but it does not include Major Marchand's report, which will be published later. The dispatches were largely anticipated by the English Fashoda blue book.

The diplomatic conversations recorded show a curious endeavor on the French side to represent that Marchand's mission was quite as important as General Kitchener's, on the ground that the struggle was against the khalifa and barbarism.

On Sept. 18 M. Delcasse, the foreign minister, informed the British ambassador to France, Sir Edmund Monson, in explicit language, that France did not regard Lord Salisbury's claim to the Soudan by virtue of conquest as applying to Fashoda, on the ground that the Marchand expedition went to the relief of the French expedition under Captain Licotard, which dated from a period long before the declaration in the house of commons by Sir Edward Grey, under secretary of state for foreign affairs in Lord Rosebery's cabinet, as to the policy of the British government towards the Soudan and at a time when the equatorial provinces were lost to civilization. In fact, M. Delcasse argued, unless Great Britain possessed the sultan's mandate, as well as the khedive's, to acquire all former Egyptian provinces France considered herself equally entitled with England to possession of any point occupied by French officers.

Judging from the yellow book dispatches the foregoing represents the French standpoint, and M. Delcasse contends that as Marchand reached Fashoda first England has no right to demand an evacuation of Fashoda prior to negotiations.

On Sept. 30 M. Delcasse declared to Sir Edward Monson that such a demand would be equivalent to an ultimatum, and while he could afford to sacrifice France's material interests so long as her honor was intact, for the sake of the Anglo-French entente, no one could doubt what would be the reply of France to such a demand.

The subsequent dispatches appearing in the yellow book relate to conversations between Baron De Courcel, French ambassador in London, and Lord Salisbury, the latter contending that the capture of Khartoum entitled Egypt to possession of all the mahdi's dominions, and the French ambassador arguing that Major Marchand had captured Fashoda before General Kitchener took Khartoum and that France had for a long time held several posts in the Bahr-El-Gazal.

Lord Salisbery retorted that the French forces in the regions referred to were too weak to constitute effective occupation.

A final dispatch, dated Oct. 12, from Baron De Courcel to M. Delcasse records a conversation with Lord Salisbery, that the French ambassador claimed access to the Nile through the Bhar-El-Gazal and asked an amicable delimitation of the respective spheres of interest to the two powers, in reply to which Lord Salisbery indicated that it would be necessary for him to consult his colleagues.

Baron De Courcel, having represented that it would be impossible for Major Marchand to retire until it was settled where he should go and how the evacuation was to be effected, Lord Salisbery, after reflecting very seriously, said he was not sufficiently acquainted with the geography of Africa to reply for the present regarding delimitation, and moreover that he could not enter into projects of that nature without consulting his colleagues.

Baron De Courcel concludes the dispatch of Oct. 12 by saying:

"I quitted him on these explanations, which were pronounced in a conciliatory tone."

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a bilious look; if your stomach be disordered, you have a dyspeptia look; if your kidneys be affected, you have a pinched look. Secure good health, and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good Alterative and Tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys. Purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at A. Wasley's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

RACE TROUBLES SOUTH.

A Bloody Battle With Deputies in Mississippi.

DEPUTY AND NINE NEGROES DEAD

Governor McLaurin Has Gone to the Scene to Prevent a General Uprising—Serious Race War and Election Troubles in North Carolina.

Forest, Miss., Oct. 24.—As the result of an attempt to arrest a negro near Harpersville, Scott county, in the eastern part of the state, one white deputy was killed, three wounded and according to the latest report nine negroes have been killed by the citizens of Harpersville and neighborhood and the sheriff's posse combined.

The pursuit of about 50 negroes who had joined the original offender, with the avowed determination to prevent his arrest and capture and which ambushed the party attempting the arrest, continues, and by morning the number of fatalities will undoubtedly have assumed larger proportions. The whole country is terribly aroused, and the sheriff's posse has been reinforced with men from all the neighboring towns. Governor McLaurin has gone to the scene, which is about ten miles north of Forest, the nearest railroad point.

The trouble originated last Friday, when a negro named Bill Burke had an altercation with his employer, Charles Freeman, a white man, in which the negro got the better of the difficulty. The next night a crowd of white men, headed by Wallace Sibley, who was deputized to arrest the man, went to Burke's house, which is about a mile from Harpersville. They were greeted by a fusillade from the negroes concealed in ambush in the bushes surrounding the house and in the house itself. Wallace Sibley, the leader, fell dead at the first volley, and three more white members of the crowd—James Johnson, James Hamilton and James Wells—were wounded.

The whites returned the fire, but were unable to do any execution, as their assailants were all concealed. There were not more than eight men in the white crowd and, finding it impossible to resist effectively, they dispersed towards Harpersville.

When the crowd returned to Harpersville the news spread like wildfire. During the night a large crowd gathered from the neighborhood. They immediately went to Burke's home and got from his mother the names of all parties which ambushed them the night before. Then the pursuit and search for each of the proscribed darkies began. According to the statement of reliable citizens six negroes were found and killed by the crowd of armed and determined citizens before the sheriff arrived.

Yesterday morning Sheriff J. M. Stevenson was wired to get together a posse at once for Harpersville. Gathering together a posse of 20 or 30 men the sheriff started at once for the place. When he arrived in the afternoon he was joined by crowds of citizens until a conservative estimate placed the number in the posse as over 200 men, and the pursuit is still on. It has resolved itself into a chase of the negroes implicated. A reliable telephone message received at a late hour states that three more negroes have been found and killed, making a total of nine to date, with about 40 more to be heard from.

Sheriff Stevenson, realizing the danger apprehended, immediately wired Governor McLaurin at Brandon for aid in quelling a probable widespread disturbance. Upon receipt of this telegram the governor wired Adjutant General Henry, at Jackson, to get together a company of the National Guard and proceed to the scene upon the first train. General Henry immediately reported that there was no National Guard company obtainable, but that he would get together a company of armed men and render all necessary assistance.

In the meantime the governor secured a special train at Brandon and, accompanied by a posse of 30 men armed with shotguns, proceeded to Forest. Arriving here early in the evening, and finding that there was small danger of the riot assuming proportions beyond the ability of the posse on hand to keep in bounds, he wired General Henry that it would be unnecessary for him to bring his volunteers from Jackson.

The governor and General Henry are naturally counselling moderation, but in the excited state of the public mind a great fear is expressed that the posse will not regard the suggestion favorably. Their presence, however, will undoubtedly have a great effect in restricting the number of fatalities.

Charged With Killing Aged Husband

She is accused of feeding him with ground glass in his breakfast oatmeal. She denies the charge.

There is a widespread and false impression that a man, in order to be a good physician, must be more or less heartless. People mistake heartlessness for nerve. The two terms are far from synonymous. A man may have a nerve of steel and a heart as tender as a mother's.

Of all the specialists in the world, there probably are not two that have as wide an experience in the treatment of women's diseases as Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. With the assistance of his staff of able physicians, he has prescribed, in the past thirty years, for many thousands of women. Dr. Pierce is pre-eminently a sympathetic physician. Perhaps more than any other man in the profession he realizes the hardships of woman's work, and the disadvantages under which she labors because of the weak, delicate and susceptible structure of the feminine organism. His immense practice in diseases peculiar to women forced upon his recognition the fact that women would never take the proper care of their health, so long as that care required the repugnant "examinations" and "local treatments" insisted upon by nearly all physicians. After years of study he invented a remedy now known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription that is an absolute and unfailing cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of diseases peculiar to women. This wonderful medicine cures in the privacy of the home, and does away with the necessity for obnoxious "local treatment." It imparts health, strength, vigor and elasticity to the organs distinctly feminine and fits for wifehood and motherhood.

In paper covers, at one-cent stamps; cloth binding, 10 cents extra. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

U. S. CONSUL CURED OF ECZEMA BY CUTICURA

I had an attack of Eczema, and ordered a box of oxide of zinc ointment. The first application changed the Eczema to boil-fire, which seemed unquenchable. The druggist had used a rancid cerate and I was poisoned. A local physician did not help matters, and everything either failed to help, or made it worse. I was becoming desperate, when I thought of CUTICURA REMEDIES, and dispatched my servant for a cake of CUTICURA SOAP and a box of CUTICURA (ointment). The first application relieved me and in three days I was well.
