SUDDEN DEATH.

"Old Ned" Reilly Expires at Justice Shoemaker's Office.

Edward Reilly, an old and eccentric character of town who was known to almost every adult and child in the borough, on account of his odd appearance, peculiar shuffling gait and eccentric habits, died suddenly at Justice Shoemaker's office this morning.

At about 11:30 this morning "Old Ned" stumbled into the Justice's office. He stood for a moment or two near the desk at which Justice Shoemaker was writing, but said nothing. It was noticed that "Ned" staggered a step or two, but no particular attention was paid to it, as the old man frequently tottered in the peculiar walk he had.

Reilly was about 65 years of age and leaves a wife and two adult daughters. He was a veteran of the civil war and drew a pension of $12 per month. He enlisted in the three year service and was private in Co. D, 107th Regt., Pa. Vol. Inf. He enlisted on Feb. 12, 1862. On Aug. 9th of the same year he was wounded in the right hand at the battle of Cedar Mountain, Virginia. The shot crippled his hand and he was discharged on service Mar. 29, 1863, on a surgeon's certificate.

An inquest is to be held in the case. It is alleged that a week ago last Friday night the old man was assaulted and three of his ribs fractured. The inquest will determine the truth of the report and the bearing the injuries may have had upon his death.

Grand Army bean soup will be served, free, to all patrons to-night.

William James Very Sick.

William James, son of Superintendent Thomas J. James, of Gilberton, arrived at the latter place Saturday evening from Huntsville, Ala. He enlisted in the hospital corps, resigning his position as school teacher in this town to enlist in the service of Uncle Sam.

Plant Improved. Christ Schmidt has made another valuable addition to his temperance drink manufacturing plant on West Apple alley by the purchase of a carbonator of the latest improved design. It is working with satisfaction and materially increases the facilities of production.

Shoulder Injured. Benjamin Howard, employed at the bottom of the slope of Kehley Run colliery, had his left shoulder injured yesterday afternoon by being struck by a piece of coal that fell from a car ascending the slope.

Johnston's Cafe, 56 East Centre Street. Leading oyster cafe in town. Oysters served in all styles and to your own taste.

Soldiers on the Move. Meade and Joseph Peters, Harry Hafner and John Jones received telegrams last night to rejoin their regiment, the 4th Pa. Vol., this morning, to proceed with it this afternoon to Philadelphia and take part in the Peace Jubilee ceremonies. They went to Pottsville on the 8:15 a. m. Penuz train.

Geraniums, fuchsias, pansies, dahses, roses etc., for spring planting at Payne's nurseries, Girardville. Tuberoses and gladioli bulbs.

School Visit. Superintendent Cooper and Trust Office Smith this morning paid a visit to the Turkey Run school to quiz some boys who entertain the notion that they know more than their teachers.

Mercantile Complaint. Much complaint is heard among many of the merchants on Main street of the continuous looting in front of their business places during and after closing hours. In the morning when the clerks open for business they are confronted at the doorway by an immense throng of ruffians. Notwithstanding the additional force of police and night watchmen there seems to be no abatement of this nuisance.

THE PEACE JUBILEE!

The Celebration Opens To-day With the Naval Review.

THE DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Generals Shafter and Chaffee Added to the List of War Leaders Who Will Participate in the Festivities in the Quaker City.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—Between Sunday's initial church services and today's naval review, which practically opens the peace jubilee, yesterday was dedicated to the perfection of final details, and the only doubtful element remaining is that of nature—the weather. Should this be favorable there is no question that the three days' celebration will be of unprecedented magnitude and grandeur.

The city today wears her carnival garb. On the down town streets, which are jammed with surging crowds of sightseers from this and other cities, there is scarcely a building which does not flaunt a display of bunting, while many of the large edifices last night were ablaze with electrical illumination.

The naval fleet in the Delaware river was augmented yesterday by the arrival of four more war vessels—the torpedo boat, the cutter, the cutter, the dispatch boat Mayflower. They took the stations assigned them in the line and anchored.

Commander Phillip, Captain Folger, of the New Orleans, and Lieutenant Staunton exchanged visits with Mayor Warwick yesterday.

The presidential party is not expected until tomorrow afternoon. President and Mrs. McKinley will be quartered at the Bellevue. Vice President and Mrs. Hobart and other prominent public men at the Stratford, while General Miles and his staff will have rooms at the Walton, where many of the visiting governors and other dignitaries will also be located.

On Wednesday evening the president will hold a reception at the Union League. He will review the military parade of Thursday from a stand erected in the Court of Honor. Early that evening he will sit with General Miles and Shafter and other prominent public men at the Clover club's dinner, and later will attend the public meeting in the Academy of Music.

General Shafter's presence was assured yesterday by a telegram from him accepting the committee's invitation. A like message was received from General Adnae Chaffee, who also did conspicuous work at Santiago.

The Virginia gubernatorial party arrived last night. With Governor J. Hope Tyler are Mrs. an Miss Tyler and the governor's staff.

Secretary Long and Miss Long arrived at noon today and were promptly escorted to the yacht May, from which they will view the naval display.

Major General Wheeler will be accompanied by his daughter and two aides.

GENERAL GRAHAM'S ULTIMATUM Philadelphia Must Guarantee Proper Quarters For the Troops

Middletown, Pa., Oct. 25.—Major General Graham is waiting to hear from Chief Surgeon Girard before making up his mind whether to send his troops to the Philadelphia jubilee. The general is not pleased with the arrangements which have been made to take care of the soldiers, and if the committee does not provide better quarters the boys will not go. He has directed Colonel Girard to make an investigation of the sanitary condition of the buildings to which they are proposed to be sent, and the details of the matter depends entirely in his report whether the troops will go to Philadelphia, and General Graham expects to know definitely by this evening. His intention was to take the four Pennsylvania regiments, Ninth Ohio color, battery, and a provisional battalion from every other regiment in the Second corps, the engineer and signal corps companies and the division, brigade and regimental commanders and their staffs.

The President's Philadelphia Trip.—Washington, Oct. 25.—The details of the visit of the president to Philadelphia to attend the peace jubilee practically have been completed. The train bearing the presidential party will leave here between 8 and 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, arriving at Philadelphia just before noon. In time for the president to witness the civic parade. The presidential party will comprise about 20 persons, including Mrs. McKinley, Secretary and Mrs. Gage, Secretary and Mrs. Alger, Secretary and Miss Wilson and Secretary Illus. Vice President Hobart will join the party in Philadelphia on Thursday.

The Peace Commissioners. Paris, Oct. 25.—The adjournment of the joint commission after yesterday's session was until 8 o'clock tomorrow. Guam, in the Ladrone Islands, has been chosen by the Americans for the United States, under the terms of the protocol, and its session has been confirmed by the Spanish commission. Details of minor importance alone remain to be decided upon in connection with the cession of Porto Rico, the formal transfer of which is practically accomplished. The chief matter considered at yesterday's session was the American reply to Spain's revised and renewed propositions of the last meeting, and the indications are that the Cuban question will be disposed of this week.

LOCAL INSTITUTE.

The School Teachers Hold Their Regular Weekly Meeting.

The teachers of the local public schools held a regular weekly session of their institute in the High school building yesterday afternoon with Superintendent Cooper presiding. The proceedings were interesting, but of a character involving technical interest of the teachers and the following program was rendered: Drill in music, Miss Douglis; singing, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," by institute; drill in drawing, Miss Gough; reading, Miss Burns; "First step in reading," Miss Shindler; "Words combined," Miss Morrison; phonic method, Miss Kavanaugh; reading drill in second reader, Miss McGuiness; cautions in primary reading, Miss McNeil; "Getting the thought before giving," Miss Clauson; discussion—primary reading; general business by teachers; general business of office.

The Benefit Ball. EDITOR HERALD:—In yesterday's issue of your paper we, the undersigned members of the West End Grays base ball club, were represented before the public as having misappropriated the receipts of a benefit ball tendered the son of Mrs. John Matthews. As a matter of vindication we would be pleased if Mrs. Matthews would answer the following questions: Where did her son get the new suit of clothes and watch he is now wearing? From what source does the money come that he is spending since the benefit has been tendered? Name the committee to whom he turned over the $16.00 for tickets sold by him personally.

Heavy Freight Traffic. Speaking of the freight traffic on the Reading railroad, an official stated to a Reading Eagle reporter that never in the history of the company has the volume of freight been so heavy as it is at present. In order to handle this traffic many of the men have been making overtime all summer, and there is no apparent let up. The coal trade is picking up.

Deaths and Funerals. Peter Cadrey, a well known young man of Schuylkill Haven, died Sunday after lingering illness from consumption.

The funeral of Corporal James Hannon, of Ashland, who died at the provisional hospital at Plattsburg, N. Y., took place this morning. It was largely attended.

Owen Cannon, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Big Mine Run, died at the family home there Sunday morning after a lingering illness. Funeral tomorrow morning, interment at Ashland.

The funeral of Mrs. Mathias Dahl, who died at her home in Ashland on Sunday, will take place to-morrow morning.

John Purcell, father-in-law of James McDonald, superintendent of the St. Nicholas district for the P. & E. C. & I. Co., died at his home in Maple Hill yesterday afternoon after an illness of about eight months. The deceased was about 60 years old.

Engine Without a Fireman. The Lehigh Valley train from Shamokin passed through here without a regular fireman yesterday. Henry Rippel, who fills that position, was on the engine when it left Shamokin, and while leaving out he was struck on the head by a freight car standing on a siding, inflicting serious injuries. He was not missed until the train reached Mt. Carmel. An unsuccessful effort was made to secure a fireman at the latter place, and one of the brakemen, in a white shirt, fed the engine with coal for the balance of the trip.

Girl-Found in a Freight Car. When the Pennsylvania freight train arrived at Anderson yesterday, and one of the cars was opened to deliver a consignment of freight, a winsome lass with a gown much the worse for wear, was the weird tale that confronted the crew. The girl said she was without money, and was compelled to rough it to her home in Norristown. She came all the way from Pittsburg, and was allowed to continue her journey in the freight car.

Sunday School Class Entertained. Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Kehler last evening entertained the Sunday school class of Miss Sadie Danell at the Presbyterian parsonage on West Oak street. The members present were: Harrison Powell, Harry Johnson, Harry and James Gibson and Elmer Seidoun. Much amusement was afforded the class and during the evening refreshments were served.

EXCITING ACCIDENT.

An Assault Follows an Injury to a Child.

The Victim's Father Enraged!

A Horse Trampled the Child and Fractured Its Thigh—The Driver Arrested, But He Was Evidently Not Responsible For the Affair.

Some excitement was occasioned on West Centre street at about six o'clock last evening by an accident through which a child was seriously injured and an attack by the father of the victim upon the young man whom he charged with being responsible for his child's injuries.

A driver in the employ of Swift & Company named Fred Roberts was on his way along the street named with a load of meat when one of his horses knuckled down and stepped upon Bernadatta, the three year old daughter of George Vratias, one of the borough police. As the child fell Roberts swerved his horse so that the wheels of the wagon cleared the victim. Roberts then stopped his team, alighted from the wagon and went back to ascertain the result of the accident.

A woman named Parrish residing in the neighborhood had already picked the child up and carried it to its home nearby. Roberts went back to his wagon and drove to the store where he was to make his delivery. While he was there Policeman Vratias run to the place greatly excited and grabbed Roberts by the throat. Bystanders interfered and the policeman was finally induced to leave.

When the child was taken to its home it was found to be seriously injured. Drs. C. S. Phillips and S. M. Peter were called and they found that the victim had sustained a fracture of the right thigh. The fracture was reduced.

Last night the father of the child prosecuted Roberts before Justice Shoemaker, alleging that he "astrociously and maliciously drove over the child crossing at a greater speed than was lawful and prudent in regard to the rights of pedestrians, and thus knocked down and drove over dependent child." The accused waived a hearing and entered $300 bail for trial at court.

Roberts denies the charge made against him and gives his version of the affair. He says it was an accident over which he had no control; that his horse was on a walk and there were some cows passing along the street and the child, who had started across, trod tight at the approach of the cows and suddenly dashed in front of the horse. He says he has a number of witnesses, including the woman who picked up the child, to prove the circumstances as he states them.

MARRIAGES.

William Hoffman and Miss Tessie Grady, both of Yatesville, were married in the Church of Annunciation in town this afternoon by the curate, Rev. Vincent Corcoran.

Miss Anna Eichler and Joseph Gassner, both of Mahanoy City, were married this afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Rev. H. A. Keiser performing the ceremony.

They were attended by Miss Matie Hughes and William Gassner, of Mauch Chunk, brother of the bridegroom. They left on a wedding tour.

John J. Keilly, who was formerly engaged in the merchant tailoring business in this town, and was a Democratic candidate for the Legislature in this district a few years ago, and Miss Mary O'Neill, also a former resident of this town, will be married in St. Stephen's church at Nicetown, near Philadelphia, to-morrow. Rev. Michael Kane, formerly curate of the Church of the Annunciation in town, will officiate at the ceremony.

Miss Nellie Mellet, of town, and Michael Mellet, of Pottsville, cousins of the contracting parties, will be the bridesmaid and groomsman.

Mary, daughter of Michael Goldis, inside foreman at the Wm. Penn colliery, and Michael Bartosick, of Shamokin, were married this morning in St. Mary Magdalene's Roman Catholic church at Lost Creek, by the pastor, Rev. P. E. Daggert. The bride was attired in a beautiful white organdy and carried a white ivory prayer book. The maid of honor was Miss Nellie Doughterty, who wore a pink organdy, and the bridesmaids were Misses Anna Cardiff and Bridget Seweeney, who wore blue organdy. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of sunnax and white roses. The ushers were William Carroll, James Dougherty and Patrick Goldis.

Prof. James Craun presided at the organ. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was partaken of by a large number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride received many beautiful and costly presents. The newly wedded couple will go to housekeeping in a handsomely furnished home at Shamokin.

MINEERS ON STRIKE.

About 25 miners went on strike at the Royal Oak colliery, Shamokin, yesterday. About 125 miners are employed. They claim that they have to cut their own timber and are not paid as high a rate of wages as those employed at other collieries in that vicinity. They demand that this same treatment be accorded them.
