Taking the Testimony of Officers at Anniston, Ala. SHORTAGE OF MEDICAL SUPPLIES

Another Physician Tells of Difficulty in Securing Medicine for Stricken Soldiers in Cuba—General Wilson Rebukes a Swearing Surgeon.

Anniston, Ala., Oct. 26.—Dr. H. D. Ross, assistant surgeon in the First infantry, was the first witness before the war investigating committee yesterday.

Major William H. Lee, major and surgeon of the Third brigade, First division, Third corps, said he had urged the removal of the camp from Chickamauga because he considered the water bad and because of the impossibility of getting deep sinks.

Major Johnson, who was inspector general of the First division, Third corps, at Chickamauga, said it had been impossible to enforce sanitary regulations at Chickamauga because when men were arrested the courts would not punish them.

Major Woodbury, an engineer on General Frank's staff, did not consider the site of Camp Thomas suitable for a permanent camp.

Captain Fremont, who was adjutant general of the Second division, Third corps, detailed the difficulties attending the government of the hospital of that division.

Major Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cholera, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse.

BRISSON GIVES IT UP. French Premier and His Cabinet Forced to Resign.

A WILD MEETING OF DEPUTIES. The Crisis Precipitated by the Refusal of War Minister Chanoine to Declare in Favor of Revision in the Dreyfus Case.

Paris, Oct. 26.—The cabinet of Premier Henri Brisson, which was formed on June 25 of the present year, resigned in a body last evening after two stormy sessions of the chamber of deputies.

When General Chanoine was able to resume speaking he asserted that he was the guardian of the honor of the army, and concluded with saying angrily: "I place in your hands the trust I received, and I tender my resignation in this tribune."

The announcement was received with loud cheering. General Chanoine then left the chamber of deputies and the premier, M. Brisson, assembled the tribune.

M. Brisson said General Chanoine's declaration was a complete surprise to him, as the general had been present at the cabinet meeting which decided to submit the documents in the Dreyfus case to the court of cassation.

Continuing the premier said that the government was fully determined to uphold the civil power against the military and asked for a statement of the business of the chamber, which was granted.

General Chanoine is the fifth minister of war who has declared himself absolutely convinced of the guilt of Dreyfus and the third who has resigned on that account.

During the suspension M. Brisson went to the Elysee Palace in order to communicate to President Faure the resignation of General Chanoine.

After the chamber of deputies had resumed business, at 5 o'clock, M. Brisson announced that the "irregular resignation" of General Chanoine had been accepted.

After attempts upon the part of various deputies to discuss the alleged military plot, the insults to the army, etc., their remarks being punctuated with interruptions and cheers, M. Ribot, in behalf of his friends, including M. Meline, approved M. Brisson's statement and added: "We have every confidence in the army and do not wish to see it attacked. All Republicans are united on this subject."

M. Cavignac, the former minister of war, then rushed to the tribune and demanded an immediate discussion of the resolution. He was greeted with hostile shouts, which caused a word to be shouted: "The shooting of the word 'razor' was an illusion to the suicide of the late Lieutenant Colonel Henry, who is said to have cut his throat in his prison cell at the fortress of Monte Valerien, after confessing to having forged one of the Dreyfus documents, though it has since been claimed the razor with which the forgery was committed was not found in the cell of the deceased."

M. Brisson then accepted the order of the day, proposed by M. Ribot, affirming the supremacy of the civil over the military power. Several of the deputies attempted to speak, but their voices were drowned in the uproar which filled the chamber.

An amendment proposed by M. Berger, chief surgeon, "for not causing the honor of the army to be respected," was voted by 27 to 261.

M. De Mahy then proposed a resolution calling upon the government to "end the campaign of insult against the army."

The premier refused to accept the motion, and a vote was taken on it amid such confusion that a majority was demanded. Later this showed that the government was defeated by a vote of 296 to 245.

After the result of the scrutiny had been announced M. Berteaux moved a vote of confidence in M. Brisson, which was rejected by 286 votes to 251. When this vote was declared the ministers left the chamber, and immediately afterwards tendered their resignations to President Faure.

It is the general impression among deputies that President Faure will invite Alexandre Ribot to form a cabinet. The president has since the appointment of M. Lockroy, minister of marine in the retiring cabinet, as minister of war ad interim.

When accepting the resignation of the ministry M. Faure begged M. Brisson and his colleagues to continue to act until the formation of the new cabinet.

STREET RIOTING IN PARIS. Attempt to Overturn a Carriage Containing Three Americans.

London, Oct. 26.—The Paris correspondent of The Times says: "The days of Boulangism are returning without a flourish to draw the sword against a factious general and without a constant to make him cross the frontier."

The cabinet has been overturned on a mere pretext, because a band of people, collected by those driving authority while pretending to defend it, have fomented agitation and almost terror. In the Rue Royale the rioters tried to overturn a carriage containing three Americans, amid cries of down with the Jews.

About midnight a mob of members of the Patriote League smashed the windows and glass staircases of a shop whose owner is said to be a Jew, at the corner of the Rue Auber and the Rue Serbie.

"Evidently the taste for street demonstrations is reviving, and perhaps on Thursday, when the court of cassation will meet, there will be a renewal of the uproar."

"It looks as though M. Brisson gave up in disgust a position which yielded him neither pleasure nor greatness. Nobody has any idea who will succeed him, unless, perhaps, M. Faure knows for he is alleged to have instigated the overthrow of the cabinet."

A Disguised Woman. It isn't any wonder that some women get disgusted with medicine and lose faith in the doctor.

When a woman complains of feeling weak, nervous and despondent, and suffers from headaches, pains in the back and stitches in the sides and burning, dragging-down sensations, the average physician will attribute these feelings to heart, stomach or liver trouble.

For years, possibly, she takes their prescriptions for these ailments without receiving any benefit, then, in final disgust, she throws away drugs, and helplessly lets matters take their course.

The "Favorite Prescription" restores weak, nervous, pain-racked women and makes strong, healthy, capable wives and mothers. With its use all pain and suffering disappear.

All good medicine stores sell it and have nothing else—just as good. Constipation and indigestion will make the most ambitious man or woman utterly good for nothing.

SCRATCHED CONSTANTLY. Baby Badly Afflicted with Eczema. Medical Treatment Useless. Cured by Cuticura.

My niece's little baby boy had Eczema all over his face, so that he needed constant washing, and he scratched the sores constantly. His face, hands and clothes would be matted with blood. His nose would run a slimy, his face was so full of eruptions, that he had to be treated, and tried everything that he could get. His mother had read of CUTICURA in the Boston Herald, and she sent for it. She used it, and the eruptions cleared away, and his face is smooth and rosy.
