ENJOYABLE EVENING.

Dunkel, of Watsontown, an accomplished exponent of Debates, and Miss Herr, of Philadelphia, a graduate of the Boston School of Expression, one of the best elocutionists who has visited the town and who combines with the complete mastery of her art a very pleasing personality which captivates her hearers at once. Both ladies favored the company with several selections, reading the gamut from the pathetic to the ludicrous, and the grave to the gay with equal facility, and to the delight of all.

Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Bonner, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Henner, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Boddall, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Hauck, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Boddall, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Stomach Trouble

Stomach trouble is the common name applied to a derangement of the system which is keenly felt but vaguely understood. It may mean inability to retain food or to digest it. It may mean nausea, pain after eating, fullness, inordinate craving for food, or entire lack of appetite. Whatever it means, there's trouble, and it's with the stomach. If you have stomach trouble, you will be interested in this letter from a man who had it and was cured by

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For nine years I suffered from stomach trouble. I tried the aid of the best doctors in Philadelphia and Pittsburg, and spent large sums of money, all in vain. One day while waiting a train in Bellefonte, O., I picked up a paper with a notice of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I got one bottle to try it. It did me so much good that I purchased five more bottles. I took four of them and gained in flesh, my appetite improved, and now I can eat anything. My stomach is all right, thanks to the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla." —CALVIN M. STEVENS, Uniontown, Pa.
