

New stock of beautiful patterns and styles of

PARLOR SUITS.

Just received and ready for inspection.

All prices to suit the times and warranted just value for your money.

J. P. Williams & Son, 13 S. Main Street, SHENANDOAH, PA.

GO TO O'HARA'S

FOR FINE LIVERY AND UNDERTAKING

OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

Cor. Lloyd and White Sts., SHENANDOAH and Main Street, MAHANAY CITY.

Headquarters for Carpets, Linoleum and Window Shades

BLANKETS AND COMFORTS.

DRESS GOODS IN ALL THE NEW STYLES and COLORINGS. Tapestry and Lace Curtains. TABLE COVERS.

J. J. PRICE'S, Dry Goods and Carpet Store.

THE BEE-HIVE.

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED A FULL AND COMPLETE LINE OF Children's Coats and Reefers.

It is needless to say they are the latest makes. Honest and reliable goods, as we handle no others. Our motto: "Best Value at Rock Bottom prices." Which means that we do not pile a big price on our COATS NOW because they are in season. No! they are marked down as low as many would think of selling them months from now at a sacrifice. Call and be convinced.

THE BEE HIVE, 29 S. Main St. Third Door From Post Office.

LAMPS.

Open this week. The odd shapes and colorings make a very desirable room decoration.

Prices Range From $1 to $10.

See them in our south window.

Swalm's Hardware Store.

New Goods For Fall Trade.

JUST RECEIVED.

New Raisins and Currants, New Seeded Raisins, New Cleaned Currants, New Citron and Lemon Peel, New Combed Honey.

NEW MINCE MEAT.—Remember we sell nothing but the best. No second grade at any price.

New Mackerel—1893 Catch.

We offer a special bargain in Loose Roasted coffee at 10 cents—better than package coffee.

New Carpets, Oil Cloths and Linoleum. New Fall Patterns.

At KEITER'S.

"NED" REILEY BURIED.

Result of the Inquest Held in His Case Last Night.

The funeral of Edward Reiley, who dropped dead at Justice Shoemaker's office Tuesday morning, took place from the family residence on West Lloyd street this afternoon. Services were held in the Annunciation church at two o'clock and the remains were interred in the Annunciation cemetery.

Last night Deputy Coroner Manley and a jury had an inquest on Reiley's death. Mrs. Catherine Reiley, the widow, was the first witness. She said her husband told her a week before his death that he fell down the steps leading from the back yard to the basement in which the family resided. His health was very good and he was always complaining. Dr. P. F. Burke attended the deceased after he fell down the basement steps, but not until several days after the fall. The deceased slept well on Monday night and left the house at about seven o'clock Tuesday morning, saying he was going to Justice Shoemaker's office to see about his position.

Mr. P. F. Burke testified that he was called to attend the deceased at eleven o'clock last Friday night and found him suffering from three broken ribs, on the right side. The 6th, 7th and 8th ribs were fractured. The victim was doing nicely on Saturday, but he left his bed after being told to remain there. Dr. Burke also testified as to the result of the post mortem. There was no penetration of the lungs by the fractured ribs. The deceased had what is known as "mitral disease of the heart." The deceased also had fatty degeneration of the heart.

Sanford W. Shoemaker was also sworn and testified to facts substantially as reported in the HERALD at the time of the death.

The jury rendered the following verdict: "That the said Edward Reiley met his death on the 25th of October, 1893, and that it was due to valvular disease of the heart assimilated by the fatty degeneration of the heart."

I. Goldin is the cheapest clothier in the town. 9 & 11 South Main street.

REPUBLICAN SIDE OF IT

Big Campaign Meeting in Robbins' Hall Last Night.

CONTROLLER SNYDER'S ADDRESS!

The Issue as to His Office Brilliantly Stated—Gen. Adams, of Baltimore, Speaks Eloquently on Affairs of the Nation and State—Braum Gets Hot.

The first gun of the campaign, so far as the Republicans are concerned, was fired last evening in Robbins' opera house. To say the meeting was a success, is merely stating a fact. The large attendance proves conclusively that Genl. Adam E. Kinz, of Baltimore, Md., as a drawing card was a "howling success." His reputation as a platform orator had preceded him to our midst, and as a result the hall was packed by Republicans and many Democrats. The people had gathered to hear a good speech and they were not disappointed. He dwelt principally upon national issues, and his remarks were frequently punctuated by hearty applause. He carried the crowd by storm. Few foreign speakers appearing here have been more favorably received than Genl. Kinz, and the committee was wise in its choice of speakers when it selected him to appear before a Shenandoah audience. He made a most favorable impression, and being the star attraction, drew one of the largest audiences in a political campaign in this town for the past several years.

The meeting was opened by Hon. Joseph Wyatt, member of the Republican county executive committee, and David Morgan, who has performed loyal service for the party in the past, was made chairman. A long list of vice presidents were read, and the first speaker of the evening, Charles A. Snyder, Esq., was introduced. His remarks were necessarily brief, and confined to county affairs, in which he paid a just tribute to his colleagues upon the Republican ticket. Mr. Snyder, as the party's candidate for Controller, which position he now holds by appointment of the Governor, is no stranger to the people of Shenandoah. His speech was favorably received, and if we are to judge from the remarks made by his hearers, he will receive a flattering vote in Shenandoah in November next.

A Volunteer's Story.

William E. Smith, son of Robert C. Smith, the hunter who enlisted in the regular army, has just arrived home. His physical condition has certainly undergone a change, and he bears the appearance of a long siege of illness at the camp. A Hazleton paper says: "When questioned at the station by a reporter, he stated that he enlisted with Lieutenant Siviter at Shenandoah in July and was sent to Ft. McPherson, Ga. Soon after beginning service he was taken ill with typhoid fever and the tale he told of the suffering was harrowing. When recovered sufficiently to travel he was sent to Plattsburg, N. Y., where he remained in a hospital for thirty days. Having secured a furlough he was on his way home Tuesday night." Since his return to this town Smith has said that he is well satisfied with soldier life at Plattsburg.

Cas Argoline, the genuine article, for sale at Kiril's drug store. 10-6-93

Hickert's Cafe.

Potato salad and sausage to night. Oyster soup to-morrow morning.

HEARD FROM AGAIN.

This item is of especial interest to the economical household. In volume 13, A. Friedman's always welcome announcement. His shelves are loaded down with a full line of fancy and staple groceries, and canned goods. No second grade goods. Our jellies and preserves are the best to be had. A host of our customers will make you buy again. Any brand of flour sold in town is included in our stock. Our prices are within reach of everybody. We ask you to give us a call. Our prices are sure to please, and so will our goods. These bargains are offered at the leading and cheapest grocery.

B. A. FRIEDMAN, 218 West Centre street. Three doors below brick school house. 4t

STILL THEY COME

To Girvin's for Bargains—Friday and Saturday.

Good cups and saucers, 5c. Enamel cooking kettles, 7c. Window curtains poles, complete, 10c. Matches, 12 boxes for 5c. Decorated vegetable dishes, 10c. Hand step-ladder, 3 feet, 20c. Decorated cream jugs, from 10c up.

See our window for prices. Call and see our china department in rear of store. It is crowded with new fall china. 10-27-2t

GIRVIN'S, 8 South Main St.

Kendrick House Free Lunch.

Rice soup will be served, free, to all patrons to-night.

All Collieries Idle.

All the collieries in this district were idle today on account of the day being set aside by Governor Hastings as one of special Thanksgiving for the termination of peace between the United States and Spain. The holiday came in very opportunely, as the jubilee celebration at Philadelphia have shut down nearly all branches of employment in that city and consequently curtailed the return of empty coal cars to this region.

If you buy clothing at L. Goldin's, it's a guarantee that they are well made and will not rip.

Cases of Assault.

Justice Shoemaker had two cases of assault and battery before him last night. Stephen Carroll, of Colorado, was prosecuted by his father, William J. Carroll. Patrick McGuire, a driver for F. J. Brennan, was prosecuted by Bryan Pukiewicz. Each of the accused furnished $200 bail for trial at court.

Johnson's Cafe, 36 East Centre Street. Leading oyster cafe in town. Oysters served in all styles and to your own taste.

After the Institute.

A movement is on foot among the school teachers of this town to have the County Institute of 1893 held in this town. Circulars soliciting aid in that direction are being issued over the signatures of Misses Mahala Fairchild, Jane T. Lambert, Annie L. Williams, Julia Miller, Ella C. Ganser, Clara Clise and Messrs. H. C. Hooks, M. H. Britt, R. A. McHale, M. H. Devitt, all teachers in the schools of town.

Bargains.

Carpets, matings and window shades a specialty. It will also pay you to buy your dress goods and flannels here.

P. J. MONAGHAN, 10-22-7t

At L. Goldin's it is a pleasure to examine the hundreds of different patterns to select from.

Opening of Meade Peter's Restaurant.

Meade Peter extends a cordial invitation to all his friends and acquaintances to call upon him at the new cafe and restaurant, which he will open Saturday morning in the Mellet building, on East Centre street. His motto will be, "good goods and courteous treatment for all." 10-27-2t

the last thirty years to have a non-partisan Judiciary; to elect a member of the bench regardless of politics. Mr. Koch, he said, has been on the bench and given satisfaction, and he believed, in all honor and fairness to the people, that they might vote for Judge Koch, especially as nothing can be urged against him. He is a good man, a good lawyer, and has made a good Judge. In speaking of the District Attorney's office Mr. Snyder said the office ought to be run at less expense. In the last six years the expenses have increased almost to three times what they were previously, and it is necessary, to carry out an economical administration in that office, to elect a man who is competent to fill it. Such a man he believed S. Burd Edwards, the Republican nominee to be. As to the Coronership, Mr. Snyder said it is an important office in many particulars, and he submitted that none in the audience could recall when the Coroners' office in this county had been either the active prosecutor in a case, or the champion of any case in the courts. That is history, he said, and the record of the courts will carry it out. As far as the taxpayer is concerned, it runs merely in the line of expense. The office in the last three years has been a most expensive article, and in no office in the county of similar importance has more money been uselessly and negligently spent than in that one. He proposed an inquiry, for instance, holding an inquest in a case of an infant child that had died of colic. He was confident that if Dr. W. N. Stein, of Shenandoah, is elected he will carry the office in the lines of economy and in accordance with the law (applause). After paying a compliment to Mark D. Bowman, of Malanoy City, Mr. Snyder passed on to the Poor Directorship and in unmistakably clear and concise language successfully refuted the charges of extravagance laid at the doors of the Republican Poor Directors by Democratic County Chairman Meyer. He said Mr. Meyer forgot to say that 1887 was the cheapest year of any in the history of Democratic administration at the almshouse for twenty years before; that it cost this county from $50,000 to $60,000 a year to run that office. Under Republican rule it cost $18,900, but it must be remembered that in 1887 the outdoor relief was but $14,000, and in 1897 it was $47,000. In 1887 the population of the county was between 134,000 and 140,000, and in 1897 it was 160,000. In 1887 it didn't cost this county a cent to furnish a hospital, because it had none; and in 1897 it cost the county $12,000 to furnish the finest hospital in this county, barring none. In 1893 three Democratic Directors of the Poor went out of office leaving a debt of $40,000. In 1887 the debt was paid off under Republican rule. In 1887 the Poor Directors received but two dollars a day for their services, but in 1897, by an Act of the Legislature, the directors were given $4,500 each for a term. Mr. Meyer, said Mr. Snyder, either deliberately falsified the records to obtain a foundation for a charge, or, in making the charge, did it through sheer blindness. In referring to extravagances as to salaries in other county offices, as alleged by Mr. Meyer, Controller Snyder declared that in 1887 every office in the county was operated under the fee system. In 1897 the county paid the assistants. In 1887 the needs of this county were not half as much as they are now. Some cases were run through the courts in 1897. As to the Poor Directorship, Controller Snyder said that Stephen G. Middleton should be re-elected on his record of experience, competency, and excellent service.

When speaking of the Directorship, Mr. Snyder assumed a frankness and fairness that frequently elicited applause. He said the office pays $4,000 a year; that he was at the meeting to talk for it, and he would like to have the people help him to get it. He ridiculed Mr. Meyer's assertion that the office does not count much and was created for Republican office grabbers. He said that when Mr. Meyer asserted that the office was of no importance; he stated what was not true. It is absolutely the most important office in the county. Through it every year the figures of the county pass and every order issued by the County Commissioners is scrutinized. Even if the Controller merely had to sign every warrant for the $700,000 expended in a year by the county, it would be an important office. The duties cover over seven pages of an Act of the Assembly and if the people have a good Controller in office the positions of Poor Director and County Commissioner amount to very little. The Controller must pass upon the legality of every bill; must investigate business of every kind pertaining to the county; must know exactly what it will cost to run the county; and must have the courage to say just how much shall be expended the next year. The Controller must supervise the keeping of the books, has absolute charge of all outdoor relief, makes all contracts, must see that every article purchased by the county of Schuykill is contracted for, and contracted for fairly; and the man who is elected to the office, if he does not know what the office means, will find it out in a very short time. The salary is a good one, and it ought to be; and the man who fills the office with integrity, honesty and fairness to all concerned, earns the salary. If because the duty of every voter, said Controller Snyder, to find out just what kind of a man is running for that office. The people ought to go to Fottsville and find out what kind of an officer Charley Snyder has been since last April. See whether he has the requisite judgment, ability and courage. Courage is one of the greatest requirements for the office. You must refuse your friends more favors than in any other office in the county of Schuykill. You must turn them out often. If a man is right in his charges, approve his bill; if he is not, reject it. It is also the duty of the voter to find out just how this Charley Snyder's opponent is equipped to run that office. It must not be merely popularity,—how much we are liked, or not liked. It is simply a question of fitness for the office; not a question of politics. The office of County Controller must be run on absolutely business principles, and in accordance with the law governing it. A man cannot interject politics into it, and the man who injects politics into the office is bound to get into trouble. Mr. Muldoon lives in Shenandoah. The people of the town know him well. He is a gentleman, of course, but has Mr. Muldoon the requisite qualifications to run that office?

OUR NEXT CONTROLLER.

Mr. Snyder is a native of the western end of the county, where at an early age he went to work in the coal breaker. His ambition was to become a lawyer, and subsequently entered the law office of W. J. Whitehouse and was admitted on the Bar. His rise in that profession has been active, and he is pronounced one of the ablest of the young members of the Bar. He served with marked distinction as deputy under District Attorneys Whitehouse and Koch, and then solicitor for the Borough of Pottsville.

Mr. Snyder has for years been active in party affairs, but has never before sought office. Last April he was appointed by Governor Hastings to the Controllership, to fill a vacancy, and has since then performed the duties of the office fearlessly, competently and in the interests of the taxpayers. In this respect he has been commended by the members of the Taxpayers' Association.

Though stern of purpose, he is genial in manner, and every person having business with him in his official capacity, no matter what his station in life may be—be he rich or poor—is treated alike and with the same courtesy. That Mr. Snyder is excellently equipped for the office to which he aspires, no one will dispute. This was fully attested by the reception he received here last night, at the home of his Democratic opponent. The people recognize in him a man in every way competent for this important position.

Mr. Brumm made the closing address, and paid his respects to some of the Democratic writers who have criticized his record in Congress.

Among the prominent Republicans who occupied seats upon the platform beside the chairman and speakers were Supt. W. H. Lewis, Thomas Baird, Adam Boyd, Thomas Dove, Jr., Hon. Joseph Wyatt, Register F. C. Reese, and others.

As the band concluded a stirring air in front of the stage the genial face of Controller Charles A. Snyder, with his face wreathed in smiles and beaming with good nature, stepped to the front of the platform amid a deafening welcome applause. Mr. Snyder spoke upon the county ticket and left the state and national issues to the other speakers. He commented his brief, but exceedingly interesting and well delivered address by saying that if the people believe in the administration of President McKinley they will see that Republican State Senators and Assemblymen are elected, and it will therefore be their duty to vote for David Graham and Dr. Reitzel, of Mahanoy City. In regard to the county ticket Mr. Snyder dwelt with an earnestness that impressed the audience with the speaker's ability, a thorough knowledge of the county's affairs and a desire to prosecute a campaign in a spirit of fairness and candor. As to the Judiciary he said it had been the policy of the people of Schuykill county for

MET THE PRESIDENT

Chief Magistrate Applauds the Heroes of the Merrimac.

SOLDIERS INVADE QUAKER CITY.

But They Come Bearing Messages of Peace and to Hear the Plaintiffs of a Grateful People Assembled by Thousands to Greet Them.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—The civic day parade and the ceremonies incident to the dedication of Independence Hall have been postponed until tomorrow. This announcement was made yesterday morning from the jubilee headquarters in the city hall, the heavy storm having induced the change in the original plans. The rain continued all day and until nearly midnight, but this morning it is clear and cool, and the success of today's grand military parade is assured.

All the regular and volunteer soldiers who are to take part in today's military parade of the peace jubilee are now in this city, the Sixteenth Pennsylvania having arrived early this morning. There are now in the city about 25,000 soldiers. The regulars all arrived on Tuesday, and all of yesterday was spent in receiving the troops from Camp Meade, near Middletown, Pa., and those Pennsylvania commands which are on furlough or which have been mustered out. The last regiment to arrive, except the sixteenth, was the Fourth New Jersey, which reached town last night.

The detachment of rough riders who are acting as escort for General Wheeler in today's parade consists of just one dozen men. The detachment is mounted, but without regulation accoutrements. Among them are Lynn Fletcher, of Chambersburg, Pa., who was wounded in the first engagement at Las Guasimas, on June 24, and Edwin Emerson, Jr., the regular rider and former newspaper correspondent who went through Porto Rico as a spy, and who served through the Santiago campaign as General Wheeler's orderly.

President McKinley was in the city yesterday afternoon, and was entertained at the Union League. The dinner was entirely informal, and was given by the board of directors of the league. There were 60 at the table. President C. Stuart Patterson, of the league, welcomed President McKinley, and the latter responded very briefly, simply a word of thanks.

Among those at the table were Vice President Hobart, Postmaster General Smith, Secretary Wilson, Secretary Alger, General Miles, Commodore Phillips, Captain Robley Evans, Captain Sigbee, Generals Shafter, Wheeler, Charge, Patterson, Sumner, Lawson, Young and Nichols, Private Secretary Porter, Commodore Casey, Captain A. Paquet, of the royal British, Governor Hastings and Mayor Warwick.

At the end of the dinner the original banner of the Union League, with a number of old battle flags, were brought into the dining room by an escort of the Veteran corps, under Colonel Theodore E. Wehrhahn, and created considerable enthusiasm.

At the reception which followed there were fully 4,000 guests. The crowd was so great that the president was not even asked to say anything. He stood in the center of the side room, the line of visitors passing and shaking his hand by the hand. The Marine band and the First Pennsylvania Regiment band and the regular orchestra of the league were in attendance. Naval Constructor Hobson was among those who shook hands with the president, and he received a kindly word of greeting.

The only speech made by the president was a brief one as he was leaving the Union League shortly before 11 o'clock. A tremendous crowd of people had gathered in the street outside the building. Mayor Warwick and Naval Constructor Hobson passed out of the door just ahead of the president, and upon reaching the top of the steps leading to the sidewalk the mayor presented Lieutenant Hobson to the crowd. A great cheer arose, and the hero of the Merrimac bowed his acknowledgment of the compliment. Then the president was introduced to the vast concourse of people by the mayor. When the cheering which followed the introduction of the president had subsided President McKinley said:

"You have cheered the president of the United States and also cheered a hero of the late war. If you will be patient a few moments longer, you will have an opportunity to cheer other heroes of the Merrimac."

The president then withdrew and was escorted to the hotel.

A moment later four of the crew of the Merrimac came from the building and were presented to the crowd. They received a most tumultuous greeting. The Merrimac heroes then retired and the crowd in the street gradually dispersed. The men of the Merrimac, including Lieutenant Hobson, made their way to the home of the Pen and Pencil club, where they were entertained with an impromptu "night in Bohemia."

The president is much pleased with the preparations of the jubilee celebration, and was amazed at the magnificence of the arrangements therefore. He today reviewed the military parade, and he expressed his regret that he will not be able to remain to see the postponed civic parade tomorrow. He says that there will be an important cabinet meeting tomorrow morning, which will require his presence at Washington, and furthermore he desires to begin the preparation of his message to congress. He will leave for Washington tonight.

It is learned that the president has had with him at all times since leaving Washington a body guard of three detectives. The president, however, said today that he never felt so safe as he did while in Philadelphia.

$2.00 For a Carcase.

Don't allow people to tell you that the Ashland Fertilizing Company has gone out of business. It is false, they are doing more than ever. Telephone or telegraph to them when you have a dead horse, cow or mule, and receive some reward. 10-1-1m

L. Goldin's store keeps only well made clothing.

(Continued on Second Page.)

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

MAX LEVIT'S.

MAX LEVIT HAS MOVED TO THE EGAN BUILDING

COR. CENTRE AND MAIN STS.

SHENANDOAH'S GREATEST HAT and GENT FURNISHING HOUSE.

LADIES, THIS WAY

This is our mission in advertising; our store must do the rest. We are pointing right in the way of honest announcements and invite your confidence. There's economy at the end of it. Money saving satisfaction confronts you at every turn when you once cross the threshold of our store.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's

PLUSH CAPES AND COATS, FUR COLLARETTES, PLUSH CAPES, CLOTH CAPES, ASTRACHAN CAPES.

Our styles are a temptation to any caller. They are fetching and there is no better proof of price economy than the values we offer for the money. All of this season's selection comprise style, careful finish, dressiness and good service.

R. F. GILL

No. 7 North Main Street.

35 Cents per yard for home-made rag carpet; others for 40, 45, 50 and 65c per yard. Call and see our new line of Brussels, Velvets and Ingrain carpets.

FRICKE'S CARPET STORE, 10 South Jardin Street.

We're Holding Out

Some strong inducements in fine furniture. All the newest designs in the market are shown on our floors. Our prices this season are so popular that to buy seems irresistible.

We have special values in Iron Beds, Dressers, Bedroom Suits, Couches and Parlor Furniture. Don't buy until you've seen what we can do for you.

M. O'NEILL,

106 S. Main St.

Furniture Dealer and Undertaker

THE MAN WITH THE HAMMER!

The man who wields the hammer with the most flourish and makes the most noise isn't always the one who drives the most nails. His nails may be bent, his hammer poor, and when the day's work is done he'll be behind. We drive bargains, not nails, but our stock is up in quality. The blows of our hammer are accurate and regular. We are making a winning record every day in our GROCERY line.

T. J. BROUGHAL!

28 South Main Street