

Eczema!

The Only Cure.

Eczema is more than a skin disease, and no skin remedies can cure it. The doctors are unable to effect a cure, and their mineral mixtures are damaging to the most powerful constitution. The whole trouble is in the blood, and Swift's Specific is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated blood diseases.

Emma broke out on my daughter, and continued to spread until her head was entirely covered. She was treated by several good doctors, but grew worse, and the dreadful disease spread to her face. She was taken to two oculists, and the first bottle was finished, her head began to heal. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now sixteen years of age, and has magnificent growth of hair. Not a sign of the dreadful disease has ever returned.

H. T. SWIFT,
3704 Lucas Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Don't expect local applications of soaps and salves to cure Eczema. They reach only the surface, while the disease comes from within. Swift's Specific is the only cure and will reach the most obstinate case. It is far ahead of all other remedies, because it cures cases which are beyond their reach. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no potash, mercury or other mineral.

M. DUPUY FOR PREMIER

Invited by President Faure to Form a French Cabinet.

HEIVED TWO TERMS AS PREMIER.

General Chanoinne's Resignation Was Timed to Prevent the Civil Power Getting Hold of the Dreyfus Dossier. Probable Personnel of New Cabinet.

Paris, Oct. 28.—President Faure at 9 o'clock last evening asked M. Dupuy to form a cabinet in succession to the Brisson ministry, which resigned on Tuesday. M. Dupuy asked until today to decide, but it is believed he will accept. It is thought that the new cabinet will be composed as follows: M. Dupuy, premier and minister of the interior; M. de Freycinet, war; M. Constans, justice; M. Delcasse, foreign affairs; M. Ribot, finance; M. Bourgeois, public instruction.

M. Dupuy, who was interviewed as he was leaving the Elysee, said the question of Dreyfus revision was purely judicial, adding: "No honest politician will decline to accept the decision which shall be given."

M. Charles Dupuy has already twice been premier of France. He was elected in 1885 and was re-elected in 1889, 1893 and 1894. He was minister of public instruction in the Ribot cabinet in 1892, premier and minister of the interior in April, 1893, president of the chamber of deputies in December, 1893, and premier in May, 1895, which office he resigned on Jan. 14, 1896. M. Dupuy was regarded as a strong rival of M. Casimir-Perier in the canvass for a successor to the late M. Carnot as president of the French republic. The Brisson cabinet was overturned ostensibly because it failed to protect the army from slander. The real fact

The Boys—Bob, how do you make such big sales?
Bob—I give my customers a piece of Battle Ax!

It is no longer a secret that the quality of Battle Ax PLUG is different from that of any other chewing tobacco ever made. It stands to reason that it is better than any other chewing tobacco; or why does it sell five times more than any other brand? You can fool the eye—with color. You cannot fool the mouth with taste. Battle Ax tastes right—chews right—costs right and is "right."

Remember the name when you buy again.

are that the ministers constantly but vainly urged the slandered staff officers to take proceedings against their slanders. General Mercier, General Zurlinden and General Chanoinne all declined to assist the government to vindicate the army's honor on the plea that it was useless to proceed against "General Chanoinne's resignation was timed to prevent the civil power getting hold of the Dreyfus dossier. It was calculated that if he went out, slandering the door, the government would be beaten by parliament, afraid of having the army and the people against it. The coup was fixed for yesterday, but M. Deroulle's sting provoked Chanoinne to precipitate the matter.

However, the desired object has been accomplished. M. Brisson was unable during the suspension of the sitting of the chamber on Tuesday to obtain M. Faure's signature for the nomination of a new minister for war. Had he succeeded the secret dossier would now be before the court of cassation, but M. Lockroy, as an interior war minister, cannot take the initiative. The custodians of the dossier can refuse to let him see it.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes swollen, tongue swollen, and continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and now a well-known fact, they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at A. Wasyly's drug store."

Steamer Wrecked, Fifteen Lost.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—The steamer L. H. Doty, with her crew of 15 men, is believed to have been wrecked in the great storm in midlake off Kenosha. The names of the crew, so far as known, are: Captain Christopher Smith, Chief Engineer Thomas Abernathie, First Mate Harry Thorpe and Steward Doss West. The remainder of the crew are not known to the owners in Cleveland.

Give the Children a Drink called Grain-O.

It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee, but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about as much as coffee. 15 and 25c.

Empress William at Jaffa.

Jaffa, Palestine, Oct. 28.—The emperor and empress of Germany arrived here last evening, escorted by a large cavalcade of Arabs and Turkish cavalry. They were accompanied also by the vail of Damascus and the governors of Jaffa and Jerusalem. In large numbers. A multitude of natives came a considerable distance to meet them. The German squadron left Haifa simultaneously and steamed toward Jaffa in a parallel line with the royal advance by land, which was somewhat slow, owing to the nature of the country.

A Few Pointers.

The recent statistics of the number of deaths show that the large majority die with consumption. This disease may commence with an apparently harmless cough which can be cured instantly by Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs, which is guaranteed to cure and relieve all cases. Price 25 and 50c. Sold by all druggists; ask for free sample copy.

Trump's Shot Proved Fatal.

Trenton, Oct. 28.—William Cowan, one of the men shot by the tramps on the outskirts of the city Wednesday night, died last night at St. Francis' hospital. The Trenton police raided the tramps' rendezvous yesterday, and arrested about a dozen of them. Several of the men had revolvers. The tramps were placed in jail, and the police are trying to connect them with Cowan's murder.

THE DREYFUS APPEAL.

M. Bard's Report Strongly Favorable to Dreyfus.

A NEW TRIAL DEEMED UNLIKELY

It is Probable, However, That the Court of Cassation Will Set Aside the Captain's Conviction and Sentence, and He Will Be Liberated.

Paris, Oct. 28.—The court of cassation, which is to decide upon the question of reopening the case of Alfred Dreyfus, has just received from M. Bard, who is alleged to have been falsely convicted of selling important military plans to agents of a foreign power, opened yesterday. Maitre Labori, who was counsel for M. Zola during the latter's famous trial, was seated among the lawyers occupying the first row. Mme. Dreyfus, wife of the prisoner, was provided with a seat in a corner. She was represented by Maitre Mornard.

Reporter Bard reviewed the history of the case from the arrest of Dreyfus and said his conviction was for one of the crimes which inspire universal horror, and it struck one of those in whom the country had the most confidence. He cited many facts favorable to the revision, and expressed astonishment at the manner in which the whole affair had been conducted. He referred to the fact that the residence of Colonel Picquart had been searched, while the residence of Major Esterhazy, who was directly accused, was not searched.

The sensation of M. Bard's report was the shorthand notes of the examination of the late Lieutenant Colonel Henry by M. Godfrey Cavaignac, then minister of war, after Henry's forgery had been discovered. These notes showed that the confession of forgery was only obtained with the utmost difficulty, Henry stoutly denying any part of the charge, and insisting that he only added one phrase to the genuine letter, and then when driven to the last corner protesting that he acted for the country's good. The drift of M. Bard's conclusions was that Colonel Esterhazy was the real culprit. Great stress was laid by M. Bard on Colonel Picquart's letter of July 14, 1895, to the minister of justice, in which he gave several principal arguments against the probability of the guilt of Dreyfus, including the impossibility of Dreyfus procuring the plans of fortresses and projects for the movements of troops undetected, whereas Major Esterhazy had free access thereto.

This letter also cites interviews which Colonel Picquart had with General Billot and Gonze and says: "With the proof in my hands I have established the innocence of Dreyfus." To this General Gonze replied, according to the letter to the minister of justice:

"What is it to you if Dreyfus is in Devil's Island?"

Colonel Picquart—"But he is innocent."

General Gonze—"You know Mercier (former minister of war) and Saussier (former military governor of Paris) are mixed up in this affair. Do you wish to compromise them?"

The letter then continued that on leaving General Gonze Colonel Picquart declared he was convinced of the innocence of Dreyfus, and he proposed to fight the matter out and reveal what he knew.

These statements caused a sensation in court. After further reference to Colonel Picquart's charges that the ministry of war and the general staff had tampered with documents and had manufactured evidence in the Dreyfus case and a presentation of the contradictory statements of Colonel Picquart and the minister of war relative to the secret documents alleged to have been communicated to the court the hearing of the case was adjourned until today.

The Corrier du Soir says that the revelations in the report of M. Bard as to the part played by some members of the general staff have produced a strong effect in military circles and are "likely to result in a reaction tending to put an end to the antagonism between the civil and military authorities."

The belief is general that the court of cassation will pronounce neither for revision nor for annulment of the decision in the Dreyfus case, as either course would set the precedent of precedents. To avoid these it is expected the court will decide that as the affair now presents itself there has been no treason, and therefore the condemnation pronounced upon Captain Dreyfus by the court martial cannot be upheld.

Although the proceedings thus far are so favorable to Dreyfus it must not be assumed that there will be any real clearing up of the mystery. It looks rather as though an attempt is being made to stifle the real truth by liberating Dreyfus without a new trial. It is asked by the Dreyfusites if the secret dossier exists, as alleged, what good purpose can be served by the court of cassation giving a decision without seeing it, since that it is the only real proof, if any, of the guilt of Dreyfus.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption, and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself "benefited" from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own household, and is as well as the ever was. Free trial bottle of this Great Discovery at A. Wasyly's Drug Store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

SPANISH COMMISSIONERS YIELD.

Have Abandoned Hope of Avoiding the Cuban Debt Payment.

Paris, Oct. 28.—The American commissioners have finally but courteously declined to assume for the United States the entire or joint responsibility for the Spanish financial conditions. Senior Montero Rios, the president of the Spanish commission, and his colleagues, with faithful resistance, sought another result. But they have finally abandoned the effort, and have agreed that the Cuban articles of the protocol shall, without conditions, have a place in the ultimate treaty of peace. Though, through several sessions, the Spanish commissioners have had before them the unfavorable presentation of their American colleagues, it was not until Monday that they became absolutely convinced that the Americans from the outset of their refusal to accept the Cuban debt, meant exactly what they said.

It should be said that the adjustments already accomplished will stand in the final treaty, unless opposing views and positions on the Philippine question should develop hereafter and bring to naught the efforts of the future and at the same time the results already obtained.

The Philippines Puzzle.

London, Oct. 28.—The Madrid correspondent of The Standard says: "The government has good reason to believe that the United States intend to retain the Philippines on the ground that President McKinley must satisfy public opinion. Spain, however, cannot yet believe she will be deprived of the Philippines without some pecuniary compensation. In addition to a recognition of the Philippine loan of 1898."

Many a woman throws away the flower of her youth—her beauty, her amiability and her capacity for usefulness and motherhood—without realizing it. There is no sadder sight than that of a young woman who has for years been bearing up bravely and stoutly under physical tortures that would drive a man to the mad-house.

Thousands of women suffer in this way and ask neither aid nor sympathy. They realize that they are the victims of weakness and disease of the distinctly womanly organism. They do not consult a physician because of the well-founded fear that he will insist upon disgusting "examinations" and "local treatment." Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription does away with all necessity for these ordeals. It cures in the privacy of the home. It restores health and strength and vigor to the delicate organs concerned in wifehood and motherhood. It tones, invigorates and builds up the nervous and transforms nervous, overworked, sickly invalids into healthy, happy wives and mothers. Dr. Pierce is an eminent and skillful specialist who has been for thirty years chief consulting physician at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y. He will answer, by mail, all questions pertaining to the "Favorite Prescription" and is for sale by all good dealers.

"I suffered from womb trouble for about twelve years," writes Henry Fournier, of Box 27, Monona, Clayton Co., Iowa. "I doctored with six different physicians, but found only temporary relief. I then used six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and three of 'Pleasant Laxative' and I am now a healthy and happy woman. This will induce other poor sufferers to try Dr. Pierce's medicines and be cured."
