Blaney's "A Hired Girl"

Edith Marilla is a new comers with Chas. E. Blaney's attractions, it being her first time to play in "A Hired Girl." She has always played in the New York productions and this is her first season to travel. Her specialty this season consists of popular songs, and it is said her laughing song is far superior to anything the famous English singer, Alice Atherton, is doing. In "A Hired Girl" Miss Marilla has a part just suited to her and one that gives better opportunities for her singing and dancing than ever before. At Ferguson's theatre, Tuesday, November 1st. An extra scale of prices will prevail at this performance, fifty cents for the entire lower floor and 25 cents for the gallery.

A Revolution in the Air. From Mahanoy City Record.

The Record does not like the newspaper policy which belittles public political meetings, but the two unsuccessful efforts to hold a Republican meeting in this place were not due to the fact that there are no Republicans in Mahanoy City, but to the prevailing indifference to campaign oratory. A revolution is in the air, but it shows no violent signs upon the surface. The intelligent voter knows that the average political orator is hardly worth listening to, and they have been so deceived in the past that they permit the candidate, this year, to howl into the empty air.

John M. Reimer, of Barry Township, Placed Under Arrest.

Constable Matt Gibbon, acting as Deputy Sheriff, yesterday went to Barry township to serve writs in the case of Frank Scott, of the Hotel Franey, of town, against John M. Reimer. Gibbon telephoned the plant yesterday, and also arrested Reimer on a charge of larceny as he had, it being alleged that he has secured some important pairs of the mill's apparatus. Reimer went before Justice W. E. Houck, of Barry township, and furnished $500 bail for trial at the Potomac court. Gibbon arrived home last night.
