KITCHENER'S TRIUMPHS

Have Made the British Commander the Lion of London.

PREMIER SALISBURY'S SPEECH.

At a Banquet to the Victorious General the Premier Announces That France Has Given Assurance of the Evacuation of Fashoda.

London, Nov. 5.—General Kitchener is the lion of London. Yesterday the streets of the city were crowded with people who wildly cheered the victorious general on his triumphal progress to the Guild Hall, where he received the freedom of the city and was presented with a sword of honor in recognition of his defeat of the dervishes at Omdurman. The presentation speech was made by Lord Mayor Davies, and General Kitchener replied in a modest speech of thanks.

The banquet given to General Kitchener at the Mansion House last night was exceptionally brilliant. A trophy of British and Egyptian flags entwined had been arranged above the lord mayor's seat. In all there were about 350 guests present, including all the cabinet ministers.

The lord mayor received his guest in the grand salon. General Kitchener was attired in the uniform of a major general of the British army, with the ribbon of the Omdurman order. He was greeted with tremendous cheering from the assembled guests. The banquet, appropriately, was served in the Egyptian hall of the Mansion House.

The speakers were the Duke of Cambridge, Lord Rosburgh, Admiral Newell, Lord Lansdowne and the Marquis of Salisbury, the premier. There was a feeling of expectancy throughout the speeches, and everything that could be construed as an allusion to war was jumped at by the assembly with pronounced cheers. When Sir Newell Salmon alluded to the "preparedness of the navy" and Lord Lansdowne to the "readiness of the army" there were prolonged outbursts of applause.

The assembly greeted the raising of the Mahratta ensign, which the lord mayor carried, with a shout of approval. It was whispered that he had an important and grave statement to make. His statement was important, but it was pacific, as he announced a settlement of the chief difficulty with France.

The premier said in part: "No one can wonder at the vast enthusiasm with which the career of this great soldier has been received, especially when we consider the strange dramatic interest of the circumstances and conditions in which his laurels were won by the sirdar. Besides being a splendid soldier, he is also a splendid diplomatist. It must have required unusual talents to successfully carry out the delicate mission up the Nile which conducted him to the presence of Major Marchand."

"The sirdar has recently expressed the hope that the difficulties arising from the presence of Major Marchand may be within the power of diplomacy to adjust. I am glad to say that up to the present point he has proved a true prophet."

"This afternoon I received from the French ambassador the information that the French government has come to the conclusion that the occupation of Fashoda is of no sort of value, and that they therefore, in the circumstances, that to persist in an occupation which would only cost them money and do harm, merely because some bad advisers thought it might be disagreeable to an unwelcome neighbor, would not show the wisdom with which, as I think, the French republic has been uniformly guided."

"They have done what I believe every government would have done in the same position—resolved that the occupation must cease. I must not be understood as saying that all causes of controversy are removed. That is not so. Doubtless there will be many discussions between us, but a somewhat acute and a somewhat dangerous cause of differences has been removed."

General Kitchener's reply, which was modest and not important, gave unstinted praise to the British, Egyptian and Soudanese troops. The sirdar said he would indeed have been an incapable leader if he had failed of victory with such soldiers. He gave some details as to the expenses of the expedition, dwelling with pride upon its cheapness and its unpinning to the "assets" that remain, referred to 600 miles of railway, gunboats, a flotilla of sailing craft, and (after a pause) the Soudan.

A Young Girl Saved!

So remarkable are the facts, so strongly are they substantiated; so important are they to all who are suffering, that there is no necessity of publishing them under the disguise of news or other false colors.

Few men in Detroit Real Estate Circles are better known than Frank B. Trout, and he does not hesitate to say so.

Mr. Trout has reason to believe in the potency of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and he does not hesitate to say so.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved the life of his daughter.

Saved her when eminent physicians failed; when the pharmacopoeia was exhausted; when science acknowledged defeat.

The gratitude of the father overbalances the natural conservatism of the man, and he tells the world his story that others may be benefited.

"At the age of fourteen" said Mr. Trout, "we had to take our daughter from school owing to her health. She began to fall away and became pale and languid. She was so weak she would fall down every time she tried to walk unsupported."

"When she was fifteen she weighed only ninety pounds. She was actually fading away. Several physicians said she might not grow up, but that it would no doubt terminate in consumption."

"She was growing weaker every day; we concluded we must lose our child. The medical profession had exhausted their skill, we had tried all the well known remedies. Finally I bought a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and took them home to her. Before she had taken all of the first box we noticed a change for the better.

"She gained strength daily. I bought two more boxes. When she had taken them she was strong enough to leave her bed, and in less than six months was something like herself.

To-day she is entirely cured, and is a big, strong, healthy girl, weighing 130 pounds, and has never had a sick day since."

"I know Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my daughter's life and I am glad to recommend them to the world."

To further verify this statement Mr. Trout made affidavit to its truthfulness before Robert E. Hull, Jr., Notary Public.

The last decade of the nineteenth century has been marked by some of the most important discoveries in the history of the world. None have done more to benefit mankind than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Some of the cures effected by this wonderful remedy almost equal the miracles of old. Diseases long supposed incurable have succumbed to their potency. The paralyzed have walked; the weak and ailing have stepped from their beds well and strong. The evidence is irrefutable. The fact stands supreme that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the greatest blessing ever bestowed on suffering humanity.
